NINE EVENTS IN FIRST PROGRAM

Speedy Horses and Special Features are Offered At Fairgrounds

The first horserace meet to be held in Salem for many years, other than in connection with the state fair, will open at the fairgrounds track this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Devotees of this sport, who have hoped perennially for its revival here, are expected to patronize the events in great numbers, for some of the fastest horses available in the west are on hand and good races are assured. A feature of the meeting is the elimination of heat races for the harness performers. Each event will be completed when the contenders pass under the finish wire.

Within the past week the track has been put in excellent condition and some fast marks are expected to be hung up.

The meet is under the general supervision of Max Gehlhar, director of the state department of agriculture in his capacity as manager of the state fair, and one of its purposes is to raise money to reduce the state fair deficit and pay for the maintenance and upkeep of the fairgrounds and buildings.

J. J. Hamilton will be the presiding judge, E. A. Lytle superintendent of speed and paddock judge, J. K. Greer starter, Romeo Gouley head timer and L. A. Westcott judge.

Ray Brooks is coaching and managing the West Side team and has been working with the squad for over a month. He is specializing in young players, some of them from the American Legion Junior teams of the last several years. BEARCATS PLAY WHITMAN TEAM

Missionaries Have Strong Record This Season; Hurlers are Good

This afternoon at Walla Walla the Willamette university Bearcats open the three-game baseball series against Whitman college for the northwest conference championship. Reports on the game will be available at The Statesman office after 6:30 p. m. as the results will be wired here.

Last year Willamette had the struggle of a lifetime to win two of the three games for the championship and the sledding this season looks tougher yet.

Cosch Nig Borleske's men were such good hitters last year that they chalked up a total of many blows which had been going for safe hits in the other games. The Missionaries have been playing ball free from errors this season and will doubtless be just as tough in the field as before.

During the season Whitman has won 15 out of 19 games against college teams including a victory over University of Idaho and Washington State college. One of the strongest points of the Whitman team is the pitching staff.

Four Good Hurlers At Borleske's Call Clow, Russell and Sparkman were counted early in the season as three first class hurlers and Irving has also been winning numerous games. With his great fielding clout and with this line-up of moundsmen, Borleske took six straight games from University of Idaho at the start of the season.

Soach Spec Keen's team is not quite up to par with last season's nine, though in some respects it is stronger. Peterson is more effective than last year and George Erickson is probably as good as Doble Woods was. With the exception of third base, the infield is weaker than it was last year, in hitting and in the field.

The outfield has not suffered from last season when the combination of Walt Erickson, Andy Peterson and Gus Moore are on deck, but when Peterson takes the mound, the outfield is weakened.

The top half of the hitting list is just as good as it was last year, but the bottom section shows weaknesses. Woodyard is as good a leadoff man as Willamette has had for a number of years and Gribble is the best money player for cleanup man that Willamette has had during Keene's regime. Gribble almost always goes above 500 per cent in his hitting and frequently clouts extra base hits.

Peterson has finally reached his hitting stride and in the two games against Pacific university hit five out of seven, one a home run. At College of Puget Sound Andy hit two homers and Gribble added another. Moore and Walt Erickson are dangerous hitters and Gibson has been clubbing well this season.

If the Bearcats can hit the Whitman pitching as well as they have most of their other opposing moundsmen, Willamette has a good chance to win, but the Missionary chuckers are going to be bearing down hard.

DALLAS HIGH ENDS GOOD BALL SEASON

DALLAS, May 25.—Dallas high's baseball team closed its season last week with a victory over Falls City which gave Dallas the Polk county championship for 1932. "Dutch" LeFors finished the season at the top of the batting average with a percentage of .423. Seven of the 14 players hit over .200 for the season.

W. U. TENNIS SQUAD WINS OVER PACIFIC

The Willamette university tennis team whitewashed Pacific university here Wednesday by taking six straight matches from the Badgers in a meet and not dropping a single set to the visitors.

This gives Willamette four victories and no defeats in tennis this season for conference competition and the Bearcats have a good chance of annexing the conference championship in tennis.

Two meets have now been won from Pacific university and two from Linfield college. Meets with College of Puget Sound will be completed here and it is hoped that Whitman can be met.

Wednesday's results were as follows: Roeder from Sprang, 6-2, 6-2. Goode from Norton, 6-3, 6-3. Hageman from Westwood, 6-4, 6-1. Harmon from Gilmore, 6-3, 6-3. Gougeon from Gougeon, 6-3, 6-3. Norton, 6-4, 6-1. Goode and Sanders from Strong and Westwood, 6-4, 6-3.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 25.—(AP)—Sacramento went all to pieces in the eighth inning tonight after Bob Johnson's home run for Portland had broken a 2 to 2 tie and Portland scored five more runs to win the game, 8 to 2.

Portland's six scores in the eighth were made possible by errors by McQuaid, Kampouris, DeMaree and Cammill.

Shores, hurling for Portland, struck out eight.

Because of cold weather, the teams switch back to daylight baseball for tomorrow and for the remainder of the series.

Sacramento R H E Portland 2 5 5 McQuaid, Bryan and Woodall; Shores and Palmisano.

Junk Not so Good SEATTLE, May 25.—(AP)—The Oaks got to John "Junk" Walters and Lynn Nelson, Seattle hurlers, for eight runs in the first inning tonight and they were enough to give the visitors a 9 to 5 win, their second straight of the series.

Five singles, four free passes and a bad error by Ellisworth, Seattle shortstop, put the eight runs over the right field wall for the Indians in the second.

Oakland R H E Seattle 9 12 2 Ludolph and Gaston; Walters, Nelson and Bottarini.

Day Ball Popular SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—(AP)—In the second game today of a "back to daylight baseball" movement inaugurated yesterday, San Francisco's Missions defeated the Seals 5-3 before a crowd of some 4000 fans. The attendance was approximately four times that recorded for a majority of night contests played this season until yesterday.

The Missions put on three-run rallies in the third and fifth innings, assisted meanwhile by several Seal errors. Bowler, Mission Pitcher, held the Seals to seven hits and received strong support from his team mates. Sankey and Hafey of the Missions bit homers while Gana also contributed a four-put away for the Seals.

Missions R H E San Francisco 8 12 2 San Francisco 3 7 7 Bowler and Hofmann; MacDougal, Henderson and Ward, Penabsky.

STATERS CAPTURE COUGAR GAME 9-5

PULLMAN, Wash., May 25.—(AP)—A hard hitting Oregon State nine knocked Washington State college's pennant chances askew by winning their conference game, 9 to 5 here today.

Washington State, long on top of the conference heap, however, still has a mathematical chance to win the northern division championship.

The Cougar hurling staff gave lots of hits away and the rest of the team played smart bag with the ball to smash eight errors. Oregon State scored nine runs before Washington State counted once. The Cougars loaded the bases in each of the last three innings but could get only five runners home.

Oregon State R H E Washington State 9 11 4 Washington State 5 11 1 Lundberg and Keema; Coleman, Estill, Donedecker and McKay.

AMERICANS OUT OF BRITISH AMATEUR

MURFIELD, Scotland, May 25.—(AP)—Another American quest for the British amateur golf championship failed today as the three survivors of an original delegation of eleven went down to defeat in the third round.

David Martin, stocky young California champion on whom the greatest hopes were based, was the first to fall. He was followed shortly by the Sweeney brothers of Oxford, Charles and Robert.

Martin played two rounds today, defeating Bernard Dravin, the English golf writer, two and one in the morning. He lost his touch in the afternoon and fell before H. Shaw, a 25-year old Manchester player who hasn't even a local reputation, two up.

Gervais Cancels Salem High Tilt

The Salem high-Gervais baseball game, scheduled for Wednesday, was cancelled Wednesday when the coach called Salem high and stated that some of the key players were not in condition.

The game will probably be played later.

W. U. TRACKMEN FACE BIG TEST

Head for Walla Walla and Conference Meet Soon; Will Rank Higher

The Willamette track squad is being groomed for the northwest conference meet at Walla Walla on Memorial day and final announcement of the crew going will be made soon.

Burgess Ford, assistant track coach who has done much of the work with the team this season, will take the entering group to Walla Walla Sunday.

Willamette is not given an outside chance to win the meet, but has girded its belt for third or fourth place. Last year the Bearcats ranked at the bottom of the list, but this season have already defeated Linfield and Albany college, teams to which they lost last year.

Whitman and College of Puget Sound will probably have the strongest teams, with College of Idaho and Pacific university ranked in third and fourth places.

However the Bearcats showed unusual strength in their five way track meet here Tuesday and may pull some conference surprises.

In a meet with Cheney broke three school records when Cee Carpen-tier did the low hurdles in :24.9.

TWO OF FAVORITES ELIMINATED EARLY

PORTLAND, Ore., May 25.—(AP)—Eddie Hogan, runner-up for medalist honors in the Oregon State amateur golf tournament now under way here, and Tab Boyer, Portland civic champion, were defeated today in the opening round of match play.

Hogan, formerly Pacific northwest amateur champion, was eliminated by Dr. Cliff Baker, Portland, by 1 up. J. Wilson Johnston, of Waverly, defeated Boyer, 3 and 2. Johnston was one under par.

Other results included: Ray Isaac, of Alderwood, beat Leslie Leal, of Eugene, 3 and 2. Russ Burdett, Inverness, beat F. E. Shafer, Salem, 5 and 4.

Midweek Events At Illahee Club Drawing Crowds

Clay McDowell, Dewey Scarborough and V. E. Kuhn were winners in the ball sweepstakes tournament held at the Wednesday night stag gathering at Illahee Country club, with McDowell winning the principal award. Attendance at these midweek events continues good.

The Illahee course is in excellent shape at present. Irrigation having been started, Ray Powell, club professional, reports. The first round of the spring handicap tournament will be completed this week, having been allowed an extra week due to other activities and bad weather.
