The Call Board

By OLIVE M. DOAK

Warner Bros. Capitol

Today—Luce Velez in "The Broken Wing."

Warner Bros. Elsinore

Today—Kay Francis in "Man Wanted."

The Grand

Today—Joe E. Brown in "Fireman Save My Child."

The Hollywood

Today—John Gilbert in "West of Broadway."

The cast of "Man Wanted," the first Kay Francis starring picture for Warner Bros. which opens at the Elsinore today, was specially assembled to support the beautiful star in the first story specially written for her.

David Manners and Kenneth Thomson are seen as the leading male supports of Miss Francis. Manners appears in the role of her secretary, with whom she falls in love after the infidelities of her husband, played by Thomson, are brought to light. Thomson, as the playboy husband of Miss Francis, who is more interested in business than the social whirl, has been chosen for the role because of his ability to reproduce to perfection the atmosphere of idle wealth.

Andy Devine, the young blonde giant, who scored so heavily in "The Spirit of Notre Dame," has been given the comedy division of "Man Wanted" as his special part. Devine represents a well-intentioned, but rather simple college room-mate of Manners. With Una Merkel, Devine furnishes many extremely funny moments.

Leo Carrillo, stage star for many seasons in "Lombardi, Ltd.," re-enacts his stage role in Paramount's filmation of "The Broken Wing." The picture version of this famous drama comes to the Capitol theatre today.

As the swaragery bandit who holds captive the aviator forced down near his camp, Carrillo joins Luce Velez and Melvyn Douglas, who have important parts in the cast.

Carrillo, who has been dividing his time between the screen and stage, recently closed his engagement in the stage version of "The Broken Wing" at San Francisco, after having played to a long run in Hollywood.

FLEISCHMANN DIES AT SUVER, AGED 82

MONMOUTH, May 26.—August Fleischmann, 82, passed away tonight at the home of his son, Gus Fleischmann, at Suver, south of Monmouth.

August Fleischmann was born in Germany November 14, 1849. In 1855 he married Augusta Kline and they came to America in 1856, settling first in Nebraska. In 1895 they moved to Sheridan, Oregon, later living for a time at Dallas and five years in Salem. For the last 15 years the family home has been at Monmouth. Mr. Fleischmann engaged in farming during a long active lifetime. His wife died in 1921.

He is survived by ten children: Mrs. Louise Hartman and Mrs. Helen Watson of North Bend, Mrs. Mary Kimmel and William Fleischmann of Portland, Otto F. Zimmerman of Wendell, Ida, Mrs. Augusta Rich of Independence, Mrs. Anna Aebi and Edward Fleischmann, Mrs. Ben Aebi and Gus Fleischmann, all of Suver, and 28 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements in charge of Clough-Barrick company of Salem, are incomplete. Rev. Rutuch of the German Baptist church of Salem will officiate and burial will be in Jason Lee cemetery.

New Building at Hospital Will be Open on Sunday

The new building at the Oregon state tuberculosis hospital, five miles east of Salem, will be open for inspection of the public Saturday afternoon and Sunday, Dr. G. C. Bellinger, superintendent, announced Thursday.

The new structure is of fire-proof construction, and will provide accommodations for approximately 20 patients. It cost $19,000, including equipment. No patients will be moved into the new building until next week.

Equipment used in treating patients has been installed and this will be explained to the visitors. There also will be an educational exhibit depicting the methods used in combating tuberculosis.

Simpson Injured In Auto Smashup; Turtle to Blame

MEDFORD, Ore., May 26.—(AP)—Fred Simpson, of Salem, is in a hospital here suffering from a severe wound in his chest received in an automobile accident on the Pacific highway. Mrs. Simpson and their young son, who were riding in the same car, were uninjured.

A turtle was blamed for the wreck. The Simpsons were returning from a trip to California and captured the turtle along the highway. They put it in the front seat. The turtle began moving toward the boy and frightened him. When Simpson attempted to push the turtle away he lost control of the car and the machine crashed into a telephone pole.

STOCKMAN HELPER IN SALES EFFORTS

ber 1931 and had told him what he knew about the Empire concern. He later became connected with the prosecution and went to various parts of the state investigating the statements made by salesmen to stockholders. He admitted signing an affidavit, at the request of Frank Keller, stating that some of the officers had made many misrepresentations to him, that they had not instructed him to make any misrepresentations, and that he had made none in selling the stock. Conover said that he had not read the affidavit before signing it and could not state definitely whether he knew he was under oath when he signed it.

The witness said that he had made no sales for the concern but had accompanied others when sales were made. He drew about $700 in advances from the corporation.

During the testimony of I. Elbert and his son Harold Elbert, of Eola, it was brought out that after the permit to sell stock had been suspended, Jay Stockman had called at their home and asked them to accompany him to the office of the state corporation commissioner. In the conversation which took place there, Stockman asked Mott to carry out his agreement and stop publicity about the Empire Holding corporation until Judge Coshow returned from his vacation. Mott was reported as saying that he did not know if he had the authority to do this.

In this conversation, an argument arose between the Stockman and Mott about the financial standing of the corporation. Mott was quoted as saying that the corporation appeared to him as being "pretty well cracked" but that he believed he could pull it through if he took hold of it. Stockman was reported to have said he believed the assets of the corporation were enough to tide them over until things were straightened out.

Other witnesses called by the state today and whose testimony was similar, were H. J. Elliott, Perrydale; Mrs. Anna Clark, Forest Grove; Frank Schulmerich, Hillsboro; W. R. Bailey, Portland; Charles L. Deeter, Portland; George L. Lacy, Portland; George W. Weatherly, Portland; Dr. C. L. Ogilvie, Grants Pass; Harry S. Moore, Medford; and Ernest L. Scott, Medford.

The testimony of the majority of the witnesses today varied little but few of them had any conversation with Stockman or any correspondence with him. The amounts subscribed for went as high as 200 shares and amounts paid varied from nothing to $18,000.

FAREWELL SENIOR ASSEMBLY IS HELD

Salem high school seniors said their farewell to student affairs there at Thursday's assembly. Honor cups were presented, Paul Hauser, senior president, spoke for his class and Robert Read, new student body president, presided.

Edward Hansen, business manager for the 1932 class yearbook, was awarded the Dr. Henry E. Morris cup for the outstanding student in the commerce department. The Snook cup, donated several years ago by Grace Snook Wolgamott, head of the physical education department, for the girl earning the highest number of points in the department's activities, was presented to Anoka Coates.

The state champion Salem golf team formally received the state cup. On the team were Millard Groves, Clinton Vincent, Robert Uffer, Walter Cline and Winfield Neenan.

The high school orchestra and chorus under direction of Lena Belle Tartar and Marie Patton, vocal soloist, provided music for the assembly.

Worker Injured At Paper Mill; Fingers Mashed

Chester Loynes suffered badly mangled fingers and thumb as a result of catching his right hand in the 15,000-pound "stack" rollers on a paper machine at the Oregon Pulp & Paper company, said about 10:30 o'clock last night. He was taken to Salem Deaconess hospital by ambulance.

The attending physician reported that while two fingers and the thumb on Loynes' hand were crushed, the man would not lose them. More serious injury to Loynes probably was prevented by the quick action of the night watchman, who jumped to an emergency switch and turned off the electric power.

DOCTORS MYSTIFIED

SILVERTON, May 26.—Mrs. W. O. Davis, proprietress of Peggy's Shop at Silverton, who was rushed to the Silverton hospital a week ago, is still confined to the hospital. Physicians have been unable to determine the cause of her suffering, it is said. Mrs. Davis was taken suddenly ill while at work.

Mickey Mouse NOTES

M.M.C. Good morning!

M.M.C. Just want to let you know that there's a great time planned for tomorrow at the matinee.

M.M.C. Mickey Mouse is going to be there in his latest cartoon, "Barnyard Olympics."

M.M.C. Only three more school days. Boy! Isn't that something.

M.M.C. And we've got a lot of swell things planned for this summer. Maybe a picnic.

M.M.C. Do you know what Memorial Day is for? Think it over.

M.M.C. How did you like the "Movie Star" contest last Saturday. Bob McNeil was the best guesser, so he won the marbles and the baseball.

M.M.C. Murray Wade, Jr., was sick last Saturday, but he'll be with us this Saturday, for sure.

M.M.C. Remember this: Show people that you're a live wire and they won't step on you.

M.M.C. I'm going to try and give you one of Uncle Chaucer's Philosophies each week.

M.M.C. I see, by reading Mickey Mouse in The Oregon Statesman that he's going to start looking for buried treasure. Well, we wish you lot of luck, Mickey.

M.M.C. The Mickey Mouse matinee is going to open at 12:30 tomorrow.

M.M.C. Some swell acts on the stage tomorrow. Your favorite tag dancers.

M.M.C. Also Roy Mack and his Racketeers Dance Band.

M.M.C. Those on the program last Saturday were, Beredelle Wade, Theodore Bueffler, Haywire Symphony, Eleanor Brazean, and Harold Jepson.

M.M.C. I'll have more to tell you tomorrow at the club meeting.

So Long, ZOLLIE.

POLK COUNTY MEET TODAY, MONMOUTH

DALLAS, May 26.—Dallas high plans to send a 15 man track team to Monmouth Friday afternoon to compete in the annual Polk county high school track and field meet. Five lettermen from last year are included in the squad that Coach Kutch will enter in this meet.

Dallas will be the defending champion in this meet as she has won the cup two years straight and needs one more win to secure permanent possession of the trophy. Independence was the outstanding track town until two years ago and had won the track meet without much opposition for seven years straight.

In 1929, the first year Dave Wright coached here, Dallas made her first road bid for the cup and lost to Independence by a few points. In 1930 Dallas sent practically the same team back and won the meet by about a two to one score over Independence in second place. Last year, Coach Shroves took a strong team over and won the meet by a greater margin than before.

The team representing Dallas this year was a green outfit at the start of the season but has entered several meets and has gained experience. Dallas won a three-way meet with Independence and Albany here a few weeks ago by taking a majority of the points given.

The squad which will go to Monmouth Friday is as follows: Rex Pemberton, Kerne Bahler, Lester Friesen, Lloyd Hunter, Dean Cadie, Henry Kliever, Irwin Peters, Arthur Schroeder, Burrill Webb, Ray Koser, Owen Mellin, Robert MacMillan, Valen McDonald, Bill Cadie and Bill Watson.

OLYMPIC TRYOUTS IN SEATTLE TODAY

SEATTLE, May 26.—(AP)—The most important track and field meet ever held in the Pacific northwest will open tomorrow in Seattle with more than 100 of the finest athletes of colleges, high schools and athletic clubs in the district competing in the combined northern division Pacific coast conference and Pacific Northwest Olympic trials two-day show.

Qualifying heats will be held in the 100 and 200 meter dashes, 110 and 220-meter hurdles and 400-meter spring tomorrow with finals scheduled for Saturday in all events.

Twenty-two men will race for places in the sprints—an even dozen from the six schools in the conference and 16 outsiders who will compete in the Olympic tryouts. Fifteen conference athletes and four Olympic trial men make up 19 starters in the 400-meter race.

SALEM WOMAN TO HEAD STATE P. E. O.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 26.—(AP)—The Oregon state chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, in annual convention here since Tuesday, today elected Mrs. C. A. Sprague of Chapter G, Salem, as president—the coming year.

Mrs. Sprague served during the past year as vice-president. She succeeded Mrs. Grace Magruder of Clatskanie, who has served as president for two years.
