

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Bridge Evening is Happy Welcome To Travelers

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner who have just returned from Philadelphia where Dr. Steiner was taking some special work this past winter, have been the center of much social interest with numerous affairs given in welcome to them and still more planned.

Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott Buren will entertain tonight with a six table bridge party at the Max O. Buren home. The guest list includes Dr. and Mrs. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson, Dr. and Mrs. Wells Baum, Dr. and Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman, George Weller, Dr. Verne Miller and Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren.

Eugene Guest Honored

Miss Nancy Thompson, who has been in Salem for the past six weeks doing practice teaching in the schools here, was the inspiration for an attractive surprise bridge evening at the home of Mrs. E. R. Frederickson Thursday evening with Mrs. Frederickson and Miss Helen Bristow as hostesses. Miss Thompson is leaving soon for her home in Eugene.

Tea roses were used for a pretty decorative note in the guest rooms. Following cards luncheon was served.

Guests in compliment to Miss Thompson included Mr. and Mrs. Max Gunter, Miss Genevieve Morgan, Mrs. T. D. McClain, Miss Bristow and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Frederickson.

Silverton—Mrs. I. L. Stewart was the inspiration of a happy party in honor of her birthday anniversary. The affair was held at the Christian church with Mrs. Kate Morley, Mrs. Mary Andrews and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone in charge.

Those present included Mrs. Harvey Good, Mrs. Lillian Hanson, Mrs. Mary Andrews, Mrs. F. M. Powell, Mrs. Nona Kinney, Mrs. W. Jordan, Mrs. Ben Gifford, Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. C. C. Amos, Mrs. M. Hoblitt, Mrs. Lettie Burch, Mrs. C. J. Cooley, Mrs. William Havernick, Mrs. E. Oeder, Mrs. John H. Porter, Mrs. Clarence Reed, Mrs. M. Houck, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre, Mrs. Martin Hannan, Mrs. John Hoblitt, Mrs. E. J. McCall, Mrs. E. Holden, Mrs. F. Blount, Mrs. Carl Specht, Mrs. Ella Brookler, Mrs. A. Bennett, Mrs. G. B. Bentson, Mrs. Otto Dickman, Mrs. L. R. Neal, Mrs. John Wolfard, Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone, Mrs. E. A. Kleeman, Mrs. B. F. Terry, Mrs. W. Egan.

Silverton—A group of Silverton women motored to Portland Tuesday afternoon to attend a tea planned by Mrs. John Martin of Olympia, Wash., and Mrs. Eugene Riches of Portland for the pleasure of Mrs. Theodore Opsund of Portland. The occasion was Mrs. Opsund's birthday and the affair was planned as a surprise for her. Mrs. Opsund formerly made her home at Silverton.

Among those going up from Silverton were Mrs. H. O. Dahl, Mrs. Otto Dahl, Mrs. Arthur Dahl, Mrs. Jasper Dullius, Mrs. T. W. Prescott, Mrs. J. C. Curtis, Mrs. Ida Winslow, Mrs. William Service, Miss May Service, Miss Hilda Olsen, Mrs. M. C. Woodard, Mrs. A. Aarhus, Mrs. C. W. Keene, Mrs. P. L. Brown, Mrs. H. J. Iverson, Mrs. C. A. Reynolds, Mrs. H. R. Latham, Mrs. E. S. Downing, and Mrs. E. A. Banks.

Orchard Heights—Mrs. John W. Simmons, president of the Women's foreign missionary society of the West Salem and Summit churches was hostess Wednesday afternoon at her home here at the monthly study meeting of the society. Devotions were led by Mrs. C. L. Dark and Mrs. Frank Forrester directed the study period. Mrs. Ed Brock had charge of the mystery box and Mrs. Floyd DeLapp gave a talk on Stewardship.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Albert Dark and Mrs. Wallace of the Jason Lee Memorial church, Salem.

Others present were Mesdames Lester DeLapp, Floyd DeLapp, John Evans, Margaret Adams, Ed Brock, J. R. Bedford, C. L. Dark, Adeline Withers, J. A. Tantis, H. J. Carter, A. L. Applewhite, Ralph Wilson, George Wilson, Frank Forrester and the hostess, Mrs. Simmons.

Riokey—Mrs. M. M. Magee entertained with a surprise family dinner Sunday honoring her husband and daughter, Margaret, whose birthdays occurred May 20 and 21. Covers were placed for Mrs. H. Y. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Dran Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Magee, J. W. Magee, Gale Smith, Jim Nicholson, Hazel Magee, Margaret Magee, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee.

Monmouth—Newly elected officers of the Business and Professional women of Monmouth and Independence are: president, Miss Bess Sharrow; vice president, Mrs. Maude Baum; corresponding secretary, Miss Faith Kimball; recording secretary, Miss Agnes Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Frances Whitesaker.

Mrs. L. M. DeMutt, Mrs. E. Eckerlen, Sr., and Mrs. S. Breitstein were hostesses at the Bretstein home to complimenting members of their bridge club and Mrs. Max Abert as an additional guest Tuesday afternoon.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday, May 27

Miss Mabel Creighton at Jonesmere farm, annual "open garden" for columbine display from 2 to 3 o'clock; drive 10 miles north on Mission Bottom road, through Wheatland Ferry and Champoo-St. Paul roads, turn at Waconda sign post.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary with Mrs. Carle Abrams, 1547 Chemeketa street.

Oregon state school for blind presents violin and vocal pupils in school auditorium.

Past Matrons association, 7:30 o'clock dinner at Mrs. Godfrey's, 501 North Winter street.

King's Herald and Home Guards party at Jason Lee church following school; mother's invited; Mrs. E. C. Miller will have story hour.

Three Links club, regular meeting, 2:30 o'clock; potluck luncheon, and quilt display.

Berason W. W. G. of First Baptist church with Miss Jean Peterson, 155 North 21st street, 8 o'clock.

Woman's Bible class of First Methodist church with Mrs. H. M. Durrheimer; social and business meeting; election of officers.

Daughters of Veterans of Civil War, 8:30 o'clock potluck dinner; followed by regular meeting; Salem Woman's clubhouse.

Saturday, May 28

Spiritualist church will hold a circle at the home of Mrs. Minnie Huston, 549 North Cottage street; 8:00 o'clock.

Mrs. E. Roseman Entertains Can-Do's

Mrs. E. Roseman entertained members of the Leslie Can-Do class at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Stacy, and Mrs. C. H. Brown assisted at the tea hour.

Mrs. John Ulrich led the devotions for the afternoon program. The custom of presenting a baby spoon to new members in families represented by the class was observed when the wife of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Murray was presented with a spoon.

Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Fred Blake, Mrs. B. E. Otjen, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Joe Murray, Mrs. John Ulrich, Mrs. A. C. Bohnstedt, Mrs. Ed Proctor, Mrs. V. R. Lester, Miss La Verne Proctor, Miss Vesta Mulligan and the hostesses.

Silverton—Mrs. Charity Scott won the "500" prize with Mrs. Del Barber winning the low score prize, and Mrs. Gifford Smith, scoring high and Mrs. Frank Humma low, in bridge at the card party sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary this week.

The committee in charge of general arrangements included Mrs. Fay Handford, Mrs. Jean Cunningham and Mrs. Lillian De Ryke; luncheon committee, Billie Johnson, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. Del Barber and Miss Ina Harold.

Another party will be held in early June with Mrs. Claire Jarvis, Mrs. Carl Schlador, Mrs. W. M. Swift in charge.

A charming surprise party was that which complimented Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lunsford Wednesday night at their East Lincoln home. Mr. and Mrs. Lunsford will soon take up their residence at the Royal Court apartments before Mr. Lunsford leaves for a trip to Montreal, Canada, which will be in the immediate future. The affair Wednesday night was in the nature of a farewell for Mr. Lunsford.

The last meeting of the season for members of the Variety club was held Thursday as the bridge luncheon at the Elks club. Winning scores for the year went to Mrs. M. Pearce and Mrs. A. E. Wickert.

SHOES with Winning Charm

Fashion Says White Shoes

.... Obey

And we follow fashion with many lovely models for sport, tailored and formal wear.

WHITES in a splendid selection of Styles for every occasion

Simply one of the many models of the sandal type for Mid-season wear.

Sport Shoe Headquarters

One of the popular styles in white. Priced from $3.50

Buster Brown Shoe Store

The Best in Footwear at the Least Possible Cost

Garden is Setting for Wedding

At an attractive garden ceremony Sunday morning, May 22, Miss Lillian Paige of Seattle was married to Wilford P. Emmel of Salem at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Forbes in Multnomah, Mr. Zenas A. Olson read the wedding ceremony in the presence of the two families and a few close friends.

The bride was beautiful in a costume of embroidered white or gandy and garden hat. She carried a sheaf of white water lilies. Miss Annabel Shindell played the wedding march and Mrs. J. C. Emmel sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" preceding the ceremony.

The bride's attendants, who were attractively gowned in pastel shades were Miss Margaret Brown as bride's maid, the Misses Jean Forbes and Peggy Thompson who scattered roses before the bride and little Elizabeth Olson who carried the ring in the heart of a rose. Dr. G. G. Forbes acted as best man.

After the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Emmel took an airplane trip to The Dalles and later motored to the Cascadia hotel in Cascadia for a few days. They will be at home at the Oregon state tuberculosis hospital after June 1.

Mr. Emmel is a graduate of Oregon State college and is employed in Landscape Architecture. He is employed as landscape gardener in charge of the grounds of the state hospitals in Salem and The Dalles. Mrs. Emmel is a graduate of Virginia Mason hospital, Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Buchanan entertained about 40 members of the Sons of Veterans and its Auxiliary for a potluck supper Tuesday night at the Buchanan home on North Liberty street. At the supper hour the birthday of Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Yantis was observed. An informal program followed the supper hour.

Mrs. William S. Walton entertained for her bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon and had as additional guests Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. O. F. Johnson, Mrs. C. W. Paulus, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton, and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner.

A potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock Friday night will compliment Daughters of Union Veterans, Barbara Freitche tent, and all Daughters who are in the city. The dinner will be served in the dining room of the Salem Women's clubhouse. Following the supper hour the regular meeting will be called. Mrs. Bertha Bergman, department president, is expected to pay an official visit at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Compton and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busck will spend the weekend and Memorial day holiday at Taft where they will have the W. T. Grier cottage.

Rosedale—The Ladies' Missionary society met with Mrs. M. Cammack Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in piecing quilts. Those present were Mrs. A. J. Haldy, Mrs. Edith Arht, Mrs. W. E. Way, Mrs. J. D. Alexander, Mrs. Brown, C. Tucker, Mrs. F. Brown, Mrs. Norman Alexander, Mrs. Lester Bates and Mrs. Ida Bates. The society will meet again next Wednesday at the same place. All women of the community are invited.

Luncheon Honors Bride-elect

Miss Ellen Hemenway, who has been the center of much attention for the past week with affairs given on both as farewell parties before her departure for Portland within a few days and also in compliment to the announcement of her engagement to Edward Roth, was feted with a charmingly informal luncheon Thursday noon by Miss Virginia Newland at the Royal Court apartments.

Covers were placed for Miss Hemenway, and Miss Myra Belt, Miss Kathryn Corey, Miss Ruthita Hoffnell and Miss Newland.

Miss Myra Belt will be hostess for a bridge tea honoring Miss Hemenway Saturday at the home of Judge and Mrs. Belt.

Miss Helen Bristow Complimented

Mrs. T. D. McClain entertained informally at her home Wednesday evening with an attractive dinner party complimenting the birthday of Miss Helen Bristow. Covers were placed for Miss Bristow, and for Miss Amy Thompson, Miss Genevieve Morgan, George D. Fraser, A. L. Riota, and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McClain.

Among the parties to motor to the beach for the weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Bosler, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hammett, Mr. and Mrs. John Moritz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Barrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McDonald. This group will have cottages at Nye Beach.

The lure of a weekend with one extra holiday is taking Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean for a trip along the Roosevelt highway. They hope to be able to attend the dedication of the Rogue river bridge between Bandon and Grants Pass Saturday.

Mrs. A. F. Marriott complimented the fifth birthday of her daughter, Colleen Jeanne, with an attractive birthday party at the Marriott home, Wednesday.

Mrs. Minnie Huston will open her home at 549 North Cottage street for the Spiritualist circle Saturday night at 8 o'clock. All are welcome to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McClain will motor to Portland for the weekend where they will be guests of J. F. Riota, brother of Mrs. McClain and of Mrs. J. M. Prather.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckebach will leave this morning for Seattle where they will spend the weekend.

Mrs. Allan Carson and children are in Roseburg for a fortnight where they are visiting with Mrs. Carson's father, Judge J. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg of Portland will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McLellan for this weekend.

Mrs. W. S. Shearer will spend the weekend in a visit at the various Oregon beaches.

Mrs. E. A. Collier is Honor Guest

Mrs. E. A. Collier is being entertained before her departure with Mr. Collier to make her home in Roseburg. Mr. Collier is with the highway department and he and Mrs. Collier expect to leave for their new home about June 6.

Mrs. Collier has been leader of two Girl Scout troops for the past year. Each of the troops has given her a surprise party within the past few days. Gifts of appreciation were presented at each party.

This afternoon Mrs. Collier will be the guest of honor of the Englewood Women's club at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ryan on Garden Road. Mrs. Collier has been a prominent member of this club.

An evening of "500" was enjoyed at the J. G. Taylor home Tuesday with the Taylors and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wickert as hosts.

Miss Helen Bristow will spend the weekend and Memorial day holiday in Eugene.

Mrs. C. H. Ringwald was hostess to members of her club Wednesday afternoon at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chapel will spend the weekend and holiday at their country place at Mehama.

Vesta Carothers Wins Scholarship To Business School

WOODBURN, May 26—Vesta Carothers, a member of the graduating class at Woodburn high school, has been awarded a $54 scholarship from the Capital Business college of Salem. The amount of the scholarship covers the regular cost of three month's tuition.

MRS. GEER CRUSHES FINGER IN MACHINE

WALDO HILLS, May 26—Mrs. A. A. Geer is suffering considerably with her index finger on the right hand which was crushed in the car door early Saturday morning. Accompanied by her daughter, Vesper and Reba, she had come to take Mr. Geer, chairman of the election board to Salem. She was sitting in the back seat and reached across to make sure the ballot box was far enough in the car just as Mr. Geer slammed the heavy sedan door. An X-ray showed all the bones broken and crushed.

Mrs. Chas. R. Riches, who Friday forenoon suffered a stroke of paralysis is able to be about and except for weakness, seems as usual. For the first few hours after the stroke she was helpless and her speed was affected. She had been quite ill with flu but remarked to her Willard club friends whom she entertained the previous day that she felt better that day than she had for weeks.

Awards for perfect school attendance were earned at Center-view by Robert Cunningham, first grade; George Haberly, 3rd grade; Fern Ray and Janet Comstock, 5th grade; Helen Goodknecht, 8th grade. At Evergreen, they were earned by Ruth Dix, 8th grade; Elmer Klopfenstein, first grade.

Father, Sons Homestead At Silverton

VICTOR POINT, May 25—Residents of this section are considerably surprised to find that homestead land has been available right under their nose, so to speak.

They discovered this recently when E. R. Andrews and two sons, ages 19 and 14 years, came here from Portland to settle on their 17-acre homestead near Drift Creek canyon, nine miles from Silverton.

Mr. Andrews is an ex-soldier. He says seven acres of the homestead may be plowed immediately, as this part does not need to be cleared.

GRADERS PICNIC

WOODBURN, May 26—The members of the seventh and eighth grades in Woodburn schools held a picnic Wednesday at Champoo park. There was boating and playing of games. A picnic lunch was served. Mrs. Myrtle Clark, principal of the school, accompanied the group which went in the school bus.

SILVERTON, May 26—Miss Lillian Block, office nurse in the offices of Dr. R. E. Kleinsorge, will leave in the near future for her home in the middle west. Miss Block plans to go farther east and spend a portion of her vacation in the vicinity of Washington, D. C. She will return to Silverton at the end of her vacation.

Enjoy..... Riding Comfort on your Memorial Day Trip

Mountain roads or smooth highway... they're all the same to Airwheels!

YOU RIDE ON "A ROAD OF AIR!"

Pressures as low as 10 lbs.

Now riding is like flying on these big soft rolling rubber pillows... Goodyear's new Airwheel for Automobiles

Want to enjoy a delightful new relaxation in motor travel? Come ride with us on these big soft rolling rubber pillows—Goodyear's new AIRWHEEL for automobiles—developed from Goodyear's aviation AIRWHEEL. From highway to highway! • Low-sprung and deep-cushioned, see how smoothly and swiftly you soar over even the roughest places—as if riding "on a road of air." Relax completely—don't brace yourself for bumps—AIRWHEEL tires blot them out • Feel the security of speed on curves and straightaways—the mightier grip of Silent All-Weather

Treads that also enable safer stops, quicker starts, surer pull in deep mud. Safety with Silence • Your eye for smart style, swanky appearance, is delighted by the handsome big Goodyear AIRWHEEL and your pocketbook is benefited as well—absorption of road shocks lengthens tire and car life. • • • • •

If it's not a GOODYEAR, it's not an AIRWHEEL

★ AIRWHEEL is Goodyear's trade-mark registered in the U.S.A. and throughout the world and is used to denote that Goodyear is the exclusive maker of AIRWHEEL tires.

GOOD YEAR AIRWHEEL

FIRST FOR AIRPLANES... NOW FOR AUTOMOBILES

LIBERAL ALLOWANCE FOR PRESENT WHEELS AND TIRES. Goodyear AIRWHEEL tires come complete in sets of five, to fit many cars. Change-overs are made easily, quickly, without any mechanical changes in car. Come in for information about equipping your car.

WHEN IT'S AN Exide YOU START

Remember, Too, That a Poor Battery Causes Unpleasant Troubles

Doolittle's Service Station

is Now Authorized Dealer for

Exide BATTERIES

FRANK DOOLITTLE'S

Master Service Station

N. Com'l at Center "Satisfaction With Every Transaction" Tel. 4525

WHAT DOES A 2 DAY HOLIDAY Make You Think Of? WELL, WE HAVE EVERYTHING THAT YOU WILL NEED

PAJAMAS Printed and plain pajamas for beach wear 95c and 1.95	SANDALS Beach sandals with rubber soles, choice 69c
SWIM SUITS Ladies', plain colors 1.75 & 1.95 Plain with appliques 2.95	SACKS Large selection, ideal for beach and camp 98c
BEACH SUITS Cotton Jersey and two-piece Terry cloth 2.95	TAMS Close fitting sport hats and tams 35c 49c 98c
SKIRTS A group of wool crepe skirts to be sold for 1.85	SWEATERS Every color and most every style, novelty weaves 85c
SCARFS Crepe de chine sport scarfs in most every color combination 45c and 95c	SKIRTS All wool and oorduroy skirts, you will like these 1.59
JACKETS Suedes... 7.49 and 8.45 Wool... 6.45 Wool Bellhop Coats 3.95 Sleeveless Wool Jackets 2.45	HOSIERY Pure thread silk, full fashioned in lace and net weaves 79c and 95c

SHIPLEY'S