Funeral Rites Held
Funeral services for Mark M. Peery of Springfield, a former resident of Scio, were held at the Franklin Butte Masonic cemetery two miles south of Scio, Tuesday afternoon, May 24, at 2 o'clock. The services were in charge of the Walker and Poole undertakers of Eugene. J. K. Weatherford of Albany spoke briefly. Mr. Peery had spent most of his life around Scio, his folks having been old pioneers of this region.

Mr. Peery is survived by his widow, Mrs. Addie Morris Peery, and two children, Mrs. Paul Smith of Portland and Dr. Harold M. Peery of Eugene, and one granddaughter, Joan Cox of Portland. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters, Rex, Roy and Robert E. Peery of Scio, Mrs. Wayne Davenport and Mrs. Bud South also of Scio.

It is reported that Mrs. Clara Griffin is very ill at her home here in Scio. Mrs. Griffin has been in declining health for many years but has been seriously ill for the past week.

MRS. PETERSON IS CLUB'S PRESIDENT

Hop Growers Report Cloudy Weather Causes Downy Mildew in Hops

OAK POINT, May 26.—Mrs. G. A. Peterson was elected president of the Independence Rural Women's club at its regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Tom Ottinger Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tom Ottinger was elected vice-president, Mrs. Robert Seegar, was reelected secretary; Mrs. John Walker, treasurer, and Mrs. M. R. Black, journalist.

The club voted to give a reception on the night of June 6, when six pupils will graduate from the Oak Point school, and also for the seven high school students from this community who graduate from Independence high school June 8.

Mrs. John Walker and Mrs. M. R. Black were chosen as delegates to the State Federation which meets in Portland this week. Hetty Jane Ottinger, Miss Hazel Hughes and Miss Jesse Brown were guests.

Delivers Wool
Tom Ottinger delivered a truck load of wool to the Portland worst mills on Tuesday. Mr. Ottinger furnishes these mills with wool and delivers as needed.

Farmers in the community have finished seeding spring oats, and are getting their ground in shape to seed clover. Tom Ottinger has just finished sowing about 200 acres to rye grass and rape for sheep pasture. Corn is being planted by quite a number of farmers for ensilage, at this time. This cold, cloudy weather is causing downy mildew in the hop yards. The Titus yards, McLaughlin and Horst company have finished putting up twine and have started the training of hops.
