

Graduation, Brides-Elect and Outdoors Claim Social Attention

Today and Tomorrow Will Divide Social Interests and Call Forth Diversity Of Entertainment

Independence Lecturer is To Speak June 8

With the Approach of June Comes Club Plans for Summer Vacations And a New Season

While Salem Plays Over the Holiday Weekend, Plans Being Made For Busy Days Ahead

SCATTERED to the four winds is the populace of Salem today, and most of it will remain over the Memorial day holiday, thus allowing a splendid rest from familiar scenes and a refreshed enthusiasm for the events of the busy days of the next fortnight.

Just a few of those who will vacation in some manner without the city limits include Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckerbach, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Liljequist, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Leitz, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poissal, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. H. F. Schomker, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Brown E. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson, and many more, come to the coast, some to the mountains, some out of the state, and some to their favorite farm.

There will also be many visitors in Salem. Some will be young people just home from college. Among these are Miss Kathryn Goulet who returned this weekend from her school work in San Mateo junior college, and Miss D. C. New York City, Boston, Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls, Vancouver, Victoria, all in Canada, were visited on route.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were married April 24 in Portland and this trip was their wedding trip. They are making their home in Portland where Mr. Richardson is manager of the Multnomah Athletic club.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and Miss Verne DeWitt all of Portland will be guests of Mrs. Anna K. DeWitt for the weekend at her home.

Graduation is keeping the city busy for there is both high school and university affairs to keep in mind to say nothing of the many students in whom local interest centers in both University of Oregon and Oregon State colleges.

The week gone by has observed the Willamette university junior banquet in compliment to the senior Friday night at Masonic temple. Colorful with many flowers of yellow, lavender and pale pink, the long tables made a pretty picture. The young artist brought back memories of the four years past were given by Isabel Childs, Keith Jones, Nellie Ackerman, and Clarence Poor. Prof. W. C. Jones was toastmaster.

Following the banquet the group attended the annual senior reception of President and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney. The affair was semi-formal and colorful with many flowers attractively arranged. Dean and Mrs. Frank Erickson, Dean and Mrs. R. R. Hewitt, as special guests. Miss Olive Dahl assisted. Special music was given under the direction of Prof. Cameron Marshall.

A few rush dinners and informal affairs are being given at the university for high school seniors and there are the annual picnics here, there and you among which will be that of the Sigma Tau fraternity Monday. Graduation week will be upon the university in a fortnight.

High school graduation takes place Friday morning in the El-

WEEKEND GUEST

MRS. JAMES RICHARDSON, who with Mr. Richardson, will be a guest of her mother, Mrs. Anna K. DeWitt.

Oriental suite including authentic music, and costumes for a Japanese, Siamese and Burmese dances. She will also give an East Indian nautch as well as a modern nautch.

For the East Indian nautch she will wear a genuine Sari costume, one which she was permitted to bring with her from a Boston museum. It is of cream color with pure gold threads for embellishment, and is hand woven.

Greek poetry will also be interpreted through the music of Rudolph Friml and the dancing will be suggestive of the figures from froises and Greek vases. A costume of egg shell crepe adorned with knife pleats, and a headress with curls is planned for this dance.

Miss Lois Fellows Will Play in Recital

A senior piano recital from the Willamette school of music which promises to be of beauty will be given by Miss Lois Fellows, senior, Tuesday night at Waller hall, 8 o'clock.

As with all other recitals given as a series this spring, this is open to the interested public.

The numbers include:
The Flight of the Bumble Bee
Poeome Op. 32 No. 1. Scriabin
Tambourin...Romeau Godowsky
Dance of Terror...De Folla
Hungary Rhapsody No. 12.....Liszt

Monmouth—Roy M. Miller presented his violin pupils in recital Wednesday night at the Christian church. Peggy Johnson, Connie Riddell, Elsie Jane Miller and Margaret Gentry appeared in a quartet of old hymns. A trio of the program planned. Costume interpretation for this dance will be combination of light and dark blue crepe de chine.

Miss Waters plans to give an extensive work has been taken with the young artist has become especially interested in modern dance and has made her special study the interpretative value of the hands. She plans to give one of her own creations, a lyric dance, "Clara DeLune," which is a music visualization of Debussy.

Bethany—Following the custom maintained by a group of Bethany people, Mrs. Luther Hattberg was honored on her birthday by a large number of people calling during the evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schantz, Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick Dahl, Miss Lorraine Johnson, Kathleen Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. William Richter, Hans Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mead, Stip'n Mead, James Down, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dahl, Mrs. John Hattberg, Bertha Hattberg, Mrs. O. Thomas, Mrs. Elvin English, Mrs. Martin Hattberg, Mrs. Charles Wampole, Mrs. Ben Eppers, Mrs. K. N. Torresdahl, Mrs. Neils Torresdahl.

Members of the Berean World Wide Guild met at the home of Misses Jean and Peggy Peterson Friday evening for a business and social meeting. Lydia Rehfuss and Sylvia Mattson led the devotions, and Irma and Lucille Burnham had charge of the program. An interesting and amusing debate was presented by Juanita Cross, Velma Duerra, Margaret Ayers and Peggy Peters.

Mrs. Ella Willis of Cottage Grove has left for her home after being the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. North for several weeks. Mrs. Willis is an aunt of the noted Helen Willis Moody, tennis star.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nunn and children and Mrs. F. E. Rush, all of Seattle, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Rush over the holiday week end.

MISS ALICE BAKER, art instructor of Jennings Lodge school, and Paul E. Robinson, principal of the Independence high school were married at 8:30 Friday night at an attractive wedding at the home of the bride's uncle, W. T. Hoffman, with Rev. Joseph Robinson of Oakland, cousin of the groom, officiating.

Miss Baker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baker of Independence and Mr. Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Robinson of Mapleton.

A decorative scheme of pink and white flowers made a beautiful setting for the ceremony which was observed in the drawing room before a friendly altar of peonies and rosebuds with fern banked about the fireplace. The wedding parties took their places to the strains of "Love's Old Sweet Song" sung by Miss Martha Hottel of Milwaukie.

Miss Baker was attended by her sisters, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Blanche Baker, and Miss Loretta Byers. Miss Blanche Baker and Miss Byers in dainty gowns of shell pink organdie stood on at each side of the flower decorated french folding chairs which opened to admit the bride and her bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Baker. The bride wore a lovely gown of green net over green taffeta appliqued with pink rosebuds, rose colored moire slippers, and crystals, a gift of the groom. She carried a showy bouquet of the bride's roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid was dressed in rose colored organdie and carried a bouquet of rose colored snap dragons, light pink roses and sweet peas.

Ralph Parker of Corvallis, former instructor in the Independence high school, was best man for Mr. Robinson.

Miss Naomi Hewitt, piano and Miss Marjorie Wunder, violin, softly played "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony and "At Dawning, preceding the services.

Pink tapers and roses decorated the table from which a buffet luncheon was served following the ceremony by Mrs. Baker, assisted by Mrs. Fred Hurford of Corvallis, who poured. The bride's cake and the loaves were cut by Mrs. Joseph Oberon and Mrs. A. G. Byers. Miss Blanche Baker, Miss Loretta Byers and Miss Helen Byers served.

Members of the reception committee were the bride's mother, aunt and cousin, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Alfred Olsen of Molalla, and Mrs. Raymond Howell, teacher in Oregon City.

The bride is a graduate of the Independence schools and of the normal school at Monmouth and also of a special art course from the University of Oregon extension department. She taught four years in the Tillamook schools and has been a member of the Jennings Lodge school faculty for the past four years.

Mr. Robinson is a graduate of the Mapleton high school, of the Oregon State college and the University of Oregon. He has been elected to serve his tenth year in the local school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home to their many friends in the Carbury property on C street. Mr. Robinson will attend summer school at O. S. C. After the close of the summer school session, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will take in the Olympic games at Los Angeles July 28 to August 15 while on their real honeymoon trip.

Guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robinson of Mapleton; Rev. Joseph Robinson of Oakland; Mrs. Albert Robinson of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson of Portland; Mrs. Jane Barnett and daughter, Miss Mabel Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Blair Miller, and daughter, Miss Beth Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mead and daughter, Miss Jean Mead of Jennings Lodge; Mrs. Roxana Hottel and daughter, Miss Martha Jane Hottel of Milwaukie; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurford of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Olsen and son, Glen of Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kirby of Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Baker of Hebo and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baker and daughters, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Blanche Baker; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stalburg, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bennett, Miss Dorothy Young, Miss Naomi Hewitt, Miss Marjorie Wunder, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Byers and daughters Loretta and Helen Byers and Mrs. Joe Oberon, all of Independence.

Members of the Berean World Wide Guild met at the home of Misses Jean and Peggy Peterson Friday evening for a business and social meeting. Lydia Rehfuss and Sylvia Mattson led the devotions, and Irma and Lucille Burnham had charge of the program. An interesting and amusing debate was presented by Juanita Cross, Velma Duerra, Margaret Ayers and Peggy Peters.

Mrs. Ella Willis of Cottage Grove has left for her home after being the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. North for several weeks. Mrs. Willis is an aunt of the noted Helen Willis Moody, tennis star.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nunn and children and Mrs. F. E. Rush, all of Seattle, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Rush over the holiday week end.

MUCH interest is being entertained concerning the lecture of Marian Bauer, internationally known lecturer on musical subjects, who is being presented by the Oregon Federation of Music clubs June 8 in the Neighborhood of Woodcraft hall in Portland at 10:30 o'clock.

According to Miss Helen Calbreath, president of the Federation, an open meeting will follow the lecture and a luncheon hour will be enjoyed. Music devotees all over the Willamette valley are making plans to be present for this exceptional opportunity.

Miss Bauer, editor and music critic for "Musical Courier", is known internationally for her lectures. She has come to the coast from her home in Chicago, to be present this graduation time at the "Walls," at which time she will have conferred upon an honorary degree from Whitman college. Miss Bauer is a member of the faculty of New York university.

Miss Bauer at one time made her home in Portland and will be remembered by many in musical circles there.

With Miss Ethel Peiser Bauer is co-author of "How Music Grew." Her lecture June 8 will be on the subject of "Music in the Twentieth Century."

Girl Reserves Closing Activities

The year's work is about to close for the Girl Reserves of Salem. The work of this group is an active part of the school year and with the school vacation comes the cessation of Reserve activities.

Camp life, however, becomes the center of interest for the summer and so the present days are full of closing work in school and plans for the summer at Camp Santaly.

Miss Elizabeth Hughes of Springfield, Ore., was a guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Galaher Saturday, having called here in connection with plans for her work as one of the Camp Santaly counselors for this summer.

Mrs. Claude Glenn, chairman of camp committee, is sending out the request for any camp furniture, such as chairs that anyone may have and could donate for the needs of the camp. A new cabin has been built and new pieces of furniture is needed to take the place of some that has worn out.

David and Allan McRae entertained at their home, 2242 North 4th street, Friday night with a party in honor of the Highland school ball team. Games were played and refreshments served at a late hour.

Those present were Misses Veve Crow, Meryl Lindstrom, Iota Miller, Ines Miller, Gladys Fisher, Maxine Brown, Dorothy Lee Jones, Margie Dehn, Florence Dehn, Helen McRae, Edith Young, Adelle Collier, Margaret Sloan, and Mrs. Norma Dornhecker, Harold Doerfler, Norman Ludington, Glen Ellis, Richard Parker, Hiram Anlic, George Dewitt, Donald Zanders, Virgil Seaburn, Lyle Lee, David McRae, Alan McRae, Edward McGoven and David McRae.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary U. S. W. V. were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Carl Abrams Friday. The house was decorated with a profusion of flowers. A short business session was followed by an informal refreshment hour. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. May Sammons. Mrs. Sammons leaves shortly for New York.

Present were Anna Alley, Barbara Arnold, Bessie Baker, Ruth Brant, Elizabeth Greene, Ellen Thompson, Martha Herrington, Catherine Hewlett, Lulu Humphrey, Lillian McKinley, Grace Mickelson, Lucy Newcomb, Clara Reese, Ida Seymour, Blanche Walcher, Margaret Weiser, Ethel Welch, Ella Woodard, May Symmes, and the hostess Myrtle Abrams.

An unusually happy birthday surprise party was given which was given Adam Burns Thursday evening at his home when Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doerfler and other friends called to compliment him on his birthday and brought with them a potluck dinner. The group gathered have been friends for many years and a delightfully informal evening of conversation and reminiscence was enjoyed following the dinner hour.

State D.A.R. Board Meet Thursday

A MEETING of importance in D. A. R. circles of the state will be the state executive board meeting which will be held in Salem Thursday with the opening session at 9:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the city library.

Mrs. John Y. Richardson, new state regent, will preside over the sessions. The Salem Chemeketa chapter will be hostess and will entertain with a luncheon at the Marion hotel at 1 o'clock. Any local chapter member who wishes to attend may do so by making reservations with Mrs. Lewis Griffith. Mrs. W. F. Fargo is receiving the state reservations.

Following the luncheon the tiny Maryland elm planted some time ago will be dedicated by the state officers. This little tree is planted at the west entrance of the statehouse grounds. Mrs. Richardson will have charge of the ceremony. Small packets of soil from the tree, the birthplace of Washington, and other noted places, will be scattered over the soil of the tree as part of the dedication.

This dedication will take place about 2:30 o'clock.

Social Affair Honors Mrs. Eitelgeorge

Lincoln—Mrs. W. R. Edwards, Mrs. Arthur Durham and Mrs. T. J. Merrick entertained with a social afternoon and miscellaneous shower at the rural home of Mrs. Edwards in compliment to Mrs. Louis Eitelgeorge, nee Elvora Edwards of Salem.

A profusion of mixed bouquets of white peonies, sweet peas, bleeding heart and gum were used about the attractive guest rooms. Assisting Mrs. Louis Eitelgeorge were Mrs. Dale Ridge and Miss Thelma Walling of Lincoln.

Included in the guest list were the honor guest, Mrs. Eitelgeorge, Mrs. Harry Walling and Mrs. Nora Lenhard of Salem, Mrs. O. Eitelgeorge of Independence, Mrs. Clarence Merrick and daughter Audred, Mrs. Kenneth Henry and Mrs. W. N. Crawford of Zena, Mrs. Clifford Genser and sons, Robert and Richard, Mrs. O. Martin and Mrs. Ira Hewitt, Jr., Mrs. George L. P. Matthews and Mrs. John Leach of North Spring Valley, Mrs. George Boyd, Mrs. Ivan Merrick and children, Delores and Norman, Mrs. Alvin Madsen and sons, Richard and Alvin, Jr., Mrs. C. C. Grim, Mrs. J. H. Skett, Mrs. Tracy Walling, Mrs. E. E. Buckles, Mrs. D. R. Ruble, Miss Jeanne Smith, Mrs. Anna Neiges, Mrs. H. J. Neiger, Mrs. Ben McKinney, Mrs. C. Teeple, Miss Thelma Walling, Mrs. J. R. Craven, Miss Ethel McKinney, Evelyn and Derayne Durham and Vernon Merrick, all of Lincoln, Mrs. J. J. Stratton and Mrs. V. A. Stratton of Spring Valley, and the hostesses.

Mrs. Albert Cox was hostess Thursday to the Martha Mary circle of the First Christian church. Assisting her were Mrs. A. C. Carper, Mrs. E. L. Case, and Mrs. C. C. Cole. Present were Mrs. Bert Macy, Mrs. W. B. Bane, Mrs. E. A. Steinke, Mrs. C. J. Emerick, Mrs. George Cree, Mrs. C. F. Doane, Mrs. C. J. Andrews, Mrs. O. C. McDowell, Mrs. Harry Hunt, Mrs. W. Schiesner, Mrs. A. F. North, Mrs. C. C. Cole, Mrs. Ella J. Willis, Mrs. A. J. Arnett, Mrs. E. C. Case, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, Mrs. C. L. Reasor, Mrs. Ava Lind, Mrs. E. J. Reasor, and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pettit will leave today on a vacation trip to California. They will stop in San Francisco and visit for several days at Stockton. Mr. Pettit was in San Francisco the day after the big earthquake of 1906 and has not been back since, save for driving through a portion of the city en route to San Jose a year or two ago.

Preparing for the Summer Just Around the Corner, Salem Organizations are Setting Their Affairs in Readiness

NOW that vacation time is approaching and hot summer days may be in store—with Memorial day passed by the rain really should stop and the sun shine out—there is much planning for the cessation of club activities for the season.

Among such to plan is the Salem Women's club which postponed its regular meeting Thursday in order not to conflict with the state convention in session in Portland this past week.

Affairs of the club year will be concluded at the board meeting and the regular business meeting which will follow it. Officers will be installed and the program for the afternoon is in charge of Miss Maud Covington and Mrs. W. J. Minkiewith. Miss Mary Eyre will give an informal on "Personalities in Print" and music will be presented by Miss Marie and Jean Patton and by the high school boys' quartet.

Mrs. W. C. Clark is chairman of the tea committee which will serve during the social hour at the close of the program.

Mrs. Seymour Jones will entertain members of Chemeketa chapter of the D. A. R. at her home for the last regular meeting of the chapter.

The last meeting of the year has become an annual event at the Jones country home. Officers will be installed at this meeting. Mrs. H. T. Love taking her official position as regent to succeed Mrs. W. F. Fargo.

Assisting Mrs. Jones as hostess will be Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. W. C. Conner, Mrs. W. L. Potter, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. Claude T. Ellison, Mrs. F. E. Sherwin, Mrs. J. G. Heltzel, Mrs. J. G. Reigelman, and Miss Lillian Applegate.

The last meeting for the year for the Missionary society of the First Congregational church will be an event of Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. I. Staley as hostess at her home 271 North Summer street.

Miss Grace Beck, returned missionary from China, will be speaking for the afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Staley as hostesses will be Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. F. D. Kibbe, Mrs. E. L. Myers, Mrs. J. F. Humphrey, and Mrs. Steven Stone.

Another group to get work organized for the summer is the Salem Zonta club which will install officers Thursday night at a meeting at the home of Dr. Helen Pearce.

A social evening is being planned to follow the installation of Miss Helen Louise Crosby as president to succeed Miss Alene Phillips. Mrs. Belle Niles Brown and Miss Helen Voyles are in charge of the programs being presented.

Mrs. W. F. Fargo returned to Salem Saturday night after attending the State Federation of Women's Clubs convention in Portland the past week. Much constructive legislation was accomplished, according to Mrs. Fargo. The final program of Saturday included the impressive memorial service for departed members. A large urn received white roses placed in it by club women from each represented club in memory of those who had gone. One very impressive remembrance was that of Mrs. Georgianna Frankel, late past president of the state federation.

"Lily of the Valley"

TRADE MARK

$100 the Set

One hundred dollars is a favorite price with young men engaged to be married. So, of course, we are alert to obtain for you attractive rings at that price.

How well have we succeeded? In the exclusive new "Lily of the Valley" rings above illustrated you will find the answer. Lovely 18k solid-gold rings with four diamonds and center stone at $75—a matching wedding ring with five additional diamonds at $25—the ensemble all for $100. And liberal credit terms. Come, see them!

Pomeroy & Keene
879 State St., Salem

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, May 30

Regular meeting of Royal Neighbors of America, 8 o'clock in Fraternal temple; short business meeting followed by regular memorial service for departed members.

Salem Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, have as its special guest, Mrs. Maud Rogers, president of Grand Rebekah assembly; fraternal visit.

Members of Woman's Relief corps meet at First Christian church, noon, for basket luncheon; members of all patriotic organizations asked to bring basket lunch and join them.

Memorial day program at armory, following parade.

Tuesday, May 31

Miss Lois Fellows, presented in senior piano recital, Waller hall, 8 o'clock.

Wednesday, June 1

Missionary society of First Congregational church, with Mrs. W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer street.

Thimble club of Maccaebes, 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Lottie Smith and Mrs. Ernest Beebe, 1295 Market street.

Thursday, June 2

Zonta club installation of officers at home of Dr. Helen Pearce; social meeting to follow.

Opening of eight statutory exhibits at Gilbert studio.

Salem Women's club, last meeting of year; installation of officers; program.

Hayesville Women's club, 1/2 o'clock luncheon, with Mrs. Rovilla McAfee.

State D. A. R. board meeting; convene in auditorium of city library, 9:30 o'clock; no-host luncheon at 1 o'clock in Marion hotel; dedication of Maryland elm, 2:30 o'clock.

Friday, June 3

B. and P. W. card club with Miss Juana Holmes, 607 North Commercial street. Mrs. Mona Yoder, and Miss Daisy Hayden will assist.

Saturday, June 4

Chemeketa chapter, D. A. R. with Mrs. Seymour Jones; installation of officers.

Additional Society on Page 8

"Your" Graduate

Will His Career be Successful?

In whatever venture comes next... high school, college or business, your child has every right to make a successful beginning.

A TYPEWRITER WILL PROVE A DEFINITE ASSET IN ANY VENTURE.

Ask any college student or business man who owns one. They'll tell you what a definite investment in neatness and efficiency a good typewriter can be.

Headquarters for Royal Sales and Repairs
NEEDHAM'S
Atlas Book Store