

Senators Strengthened for Games Today and Monday

WEST SIDE TO BE MET TODAY

Jefferson on Holiday; Walt Erickson, Gribble and Moore are Signed

Walt Erickson, Gus Moore and Lowell Gribble of the Willamette university baseball team will be with the Salem Senators for the first time this season when the Solons meet the Portland West Siders on Olinger field this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Harvey will occupy the mound for the Senators in his first game for the local town team.

He pitched three innings at Eugene in a Walt Erickson townies at Eugene a few weeks ago and allowed but one hit during that time. That was when Manager Bashor was calling for nothing but straight balls.

Harvey has been working out regularly since that time and his arm is now in good enough condition that he will be alternating current with his booming speed ball.

Ray Brooks of the Multnomah athletic club is coach of the West Side team and has a bunch of boys who are considered the best young baseball blood of Portland.

Most of them are young, but they are by no means a bunch of "Boy Scouts" as they have all played several years of fast ball. Treadway Charles and Jack Todd are the pitchers for the West Side outfit and they both have a wide variety of balls they throw.

Today's game is not one of the state league contests, but both the Senators and the West Side club are members of that circuit and today's game will give some comparative dope on how the league will go this year.

The Senator's lineup will be strengthened today by the addition of new players. Hibbard will be in the lineup at shortstop. Hibbard's home town is Molalla and he is just as much of a sensation as Red Ridings of Molalla was when playing with the Solons a few years ago under Frisco Edwards.

Lowell Gribble may be back from Walla Walla and ready to go at third base. Gribble is clean up hitter for the Bearcats and his hitting power will be a great help to the Senators. Ashby will be on second and with "Smoky" Adams on first sack, as neat a little infield as could be desired will be on hand.

Walt Erickson, who hit a home run and a triple in one game against Whitman this season, will be back to his old position in the outfield and Gus Moore will be another of the heavy hitting Bearcats to play. Scully will probably be kept in his position at center field.

Frank "Burl" Bashor will be behind the bat with the big pad and mask. He has been doing a good job at catching and is strong on figuring the opening hitters.

With the additional players the Senators should show up better in the field and will doubtless be stronger at bat. The entire team with the exception of Hibbard is composed of local talent and Hibbard is a close neighbor of his new team mates.

"Squeak" Wilson will pitch for the Senators Monday when they meet the league leading Jefferson-Albany team in a Memorial day game.

Bearcat Track Team Goes To Conference Meet; Has Chance for Fourth Place

A dozen stalwart Willamette Bearcats will entrain for Walla Walla this morning in quest of northwest conference track honors. Burgess Ford will accompany the team which will enter the meet Monday.

Advance dope from Whitman predicts that Pacific university, Whitman and College of Puget Sound will battle it out for first place. Coach Ford stated last night that his team would be a dark horse number, but that it would not be last nor next to last.

Last season Willamette hit the cellar and during the past five years has never gone higher than fourth place. Whitman has won the meet for the past five years and College of Puget Sound has been in second place four of those times.

According to Roger Folgate, Whitman's track coach, six or seven of the conference records are likely to fall Monday. Last year will be recalled as the year in which the conference records were bettered.

Of course the conference is young and in the future records will not be broken so frequently, but track is improving by leaps and bounds in the northwest circuit.

Willamette is entering 12 men who are generally adjudged over the conference as capable of taking about fourth or fifth place.

The marks they have made this season have not been particularly good, but they have not run on a good track yet.

One certain thing is that the team is stronger than it was last season. Last year the Bearcats lost to Albany college, Linfield college and Monmouth normal, but this year have won from those three in dual meets and in the five meet here which also included Columbia university.

The Bearcat team is well balanced with no particularly outstanding stars unless Faber be called that. Faber will have good chances of placing in the 100 and 200 yard sprints.

DOLP 3RD TIME GOLF CHAMPION

Beats Johnny Robbins 3 and 2; Frank Shafer Loses First Flight Final

PORTLAND, May 28 (AP)—Frank Dolp of the Alderwood Country club, Portland, successfully defended his Oregon State Golf association championship here today, defeating Johnny Robbins in the final round of the annual tournament, 3 and 2.

The victory gave Dolp his third successive state championship. It was the first time in the history of the state tournament that any one person has won the title three times in succession.

Dolp shot one under par in the morning round, turning in a card of 71 to Robbins' par 73. During the early part of the afternoon round the champion wavered and at the 27th hole he was two down. Then he mastered his clubs again, squared the match at the 30th hole and won three out of the next four to end the match.

Miss Jean Plageman of the Multnomah Golf club won the state association title in the women's division. She defeated Mrs. A. G. Callan of the Portland Golf club, 9 and 8.

In the final event of the first flight Tab Boyer, winner of the recent civic championship tournament, defeated Frank Shafer of Salem, 4 and 3. Shafer advanced to the finals Friday with a 3 and 1 victory over Arlo Kyle, of the Riverside club.

Dads of Lincoln Players Win Out

After trailing for eight innings the dads of the Lincoln school boys pulled the game out of the fire in the ninth inning Friday and defeated their sons by a score of 21 to 19, in a lively baseball game at the Lincoln school grounds.

The boys' team included Robert and Melvin Urruh, Dick McNamara, Malcolm Page, Jimmie McNeil, Kenneth Utter, Virgil Teem, Carlton Boehringer, Donald Cronmiller and Albert Lindbeck.

High jump—Campbell, Pacific and Burnett, C. of I.; 5 ft. 11 1/4 in., 1928.

Javelin—Smith, C. of I.; 177 ft. 7 in., 1931.

Relay—Forques, Millam, Yenney, and Felters, Whitman; 3:36, 1927.

Four of these record holders, Teats, McKenzie, Phillips and Smith will compete again this year.

Prof. Newton Moves Here; Meets Davis

Prof. Newton of Oregon City, who meets Tuffy Davis in the preliminary bout on Tuesday night's wrestling card at the armory, has now moved to Salem and will make his home here.

Newton has won his last four bouts here and if he can win from Davis will challenge Pat Finnegan for a match. Newton is still pretty much of a youngster in the ring when compared with some of the old veterans like Henry Jones, but during his few years of professional grappling has put a lot of dynamite in his mat work and is a good drawing card.

In his bout with Tuffy Davis nothing will be barred and the two will be permitted to go at it in whatever manner they may choose. Davis is supposed to be a real tough customer, but Newton has a habit of treating these tough "blokes" anything but gently.

Pat Finnegan is going to take another crack at Henry Jones before admitting that the old Strawberry King is the better man. Finnegan almost had Jones subdued in their last meeting here, but the little Irishman was unable to pin him because his own arm was injured and he had use of only his right.

There was no wrestling match last Tuesday. The matchmaker Plant has stired round to get an exceptionally good one for this week.

Mt. Angel Plays Monitor Monday

MT. ANGEL, May 28—A ball game that is causing much speculation among local baseball fans will be played on the Mount Angel Cascade League grounds at Elber Park Monday May 30. Decoration day. Johnny Beck, former Mt. Angel college pitcher and later of the Portland and Los Angeles Coast league clubs, will pitch for Monitor and try to turn the tables on the Mt. Angel Cascade League team, which last year won its game from Monitor with a close score.

Witzel Blanks Redskins Up To Eighth With Best Support of Year

Inspired by the heady pitching of slender Dolph Witzel, the Salem high school baseball team turned in its best defensive game of the year Saturday on Olinger field but lost to Chemawa Indian school, 2 to 1.

Witzel, rated in about fourth place in Salem's not-too-imposing pitching staff, shut the Redskins out for seven innings, with the aid of steady and sometimes phenomenal support. The Indians fanned the breeze at Witzel's slow curve and slower slowball and failed to hit either squarely until the eighth when Dord Franklin went in as a pinch hitter and started the rally that tied the count. Meachon and Bobb also had a part in that rally.

In the ninth two Redskins bit the dust before Franklin's second hit brought Israel in with the winning run.

Salem also started strong on attack. Ramp, leadoff man, smacking a three bagger over the center fielder's head in the first inning. He might have stretched it to a homer but pulled up and scored on Mason's single. Van Cleave and Scholner also hit that inning to fill the bases, but then Vivette, Indian hurler, lightened and stopped further scoring.

No Salem runner got farther than first base after that, Vivette allowing but three more hits. He struck out 11 men. Twice Chemawa had men on third with none down, but Witzel and his mates stopped them there. A double play engineered by Mason spoiled a Chemawa threat in the fifth.

The Williams and Callan teams will be played on the Mount Angel Cascade League grounds at Elber Park Monday May 30. Decoration day. Johnny Beck, former Mt. Angel college pitcher and later of the Portland and Los Angeles Coast league clubs, will pitch for Monitor and try to turn the tables on the Mt. Angel Cascade League team, which last year won its game from Monitor with a close score.

Bryan Pulls Out of Bad Hole to Win

PORTLAND, Ore., May 28 (AP)—Ed Bryan, Sacramento pitcher pulled himself out of a hole in the ninth inning today to defeat Portland, 3 to 2. It was the visitor's second victory in the present series.

The Ducks filled the bases in the ninth before a putout was counted against them. Only two runs were needed to tie the score but Bryan allowed only one of the men on base to score before retiring the side.

Salem also started strong on attack. Ramp, leadoff man, smacking a three bagger over the center fielder's head in the first inning. CURT COMMENTS

Our Platform for Today—A change in the rules that will permit both teams to win if they deserve it.

A clean sweep in major sports for Whitman in the Northwest conference this year—with Willamette the runner-up in each case, actually if not technically. Linfield had a better basketball percentage than Willamette, but didn't play Whitman. All the final, decisive contests were played on Walla Walla snow, hardwood and turf respectively—by which we mean no allibi.

And next year they'll be played in Salem, if the same season winds reach the same climax. And why mourn? Willamette won a clean sweep two years ago and two of the three championships last year.

Speaking once more of Andy Peterson being "knocked out of the box," we learn that Andy was nipped for four hits, two of them in that disastrous fifth inning which was his last in the opening game of the championship series. There were four errors that inning and Whitman got four runs out of the combination.

Andy struck out eight men in the five innings he pitched in that game. Whoever was the source of the Whitman-colored report we received on the wire, it apparently wasn't the sports writer of the Walla Walla Union, who lauded Andy to the skies, gave him due credit for that home run and also spoke a word in praise of George Erickson who hurled one-hit ball for the last three innings according to that writer's scorebook.

Elsewhere on the Union's sport page we find further evidence that Andy was appreciated. There is a remark in a twilight league story that so-and-so "pulled a Peterson by
