

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Picnic Honors Church Group

Members of the St. Joseph's dramatic club and choir members were honored recently by Rev. Father J. R. Buck, when he entertained informally with a picnic held at Reverdy Lodge, five miles southeast of Salem. A wicker roast was held early in the evening after which they adjourned to the lodge where they enjoyed an informal evening before the open fire. Singing, games, and the telling of tales occupied the remainder of the evening. Those enjoying the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kropp, Mrs. Stella Dinsmore, Mrs. Ivy Cowgill and Mrs. Mary Brennan; the Misses Mary and Margaret Heenan, Anna Karst, Margaret Van Vleet, Jo Barr, Theresa Albrich, Leah Sulng, Mary Schoettle, Florence Marshall, Dorothy Dalk, Marcelle De Mytte, Barbara Schottboefer, Frances Marie Kupper, Margaret Mary Zeran, Bernice Kentock, Grace Hammons, Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Margaret Nathan, and Katherine Bear; and Messrs. Johnny Nathan, Laurence R. Alley, Edward M. Zeran, Urban J. Trumm, George A. Coover, Ralph Foster, David Dinsmore, Lawrence Barr, Michael Fitzpatrick, Fred Burrell, Bill Burrell, Dr. Harry J. Moran and the pastor, Rev. J. R. Buck.

Silverton Maid Wed Saturday

Silverton — The wedding of Miss Clara Bjontegard, daughter of Mrs. Karen Bjontegard, and Ray Zobel of Central Point, Oregon, was solemnized at a lovely ceremony, Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in Silverton. The bride was crowned in white net over pussywillow tulle, made Princess style and carried an arm bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and white sweet peas. Miss Marie Bolme as maid of honor, was attractive in yellow organdy. She carried an arm bouquet of tallies roses and orchid sweet peas. Gilbert Hill of Medford attended the groom as best man. Preceding the single ring service which was given by Rev. J. M. Jensen, Ernest Byberg played "Lohengrin's Wedding March." "I Promise You" was also sung by Mr. Byberg with Miss Cora Severn assisting at the piano. The rooms of the Bjontegard home were beautifully decorated with artistic bouquets of mixed yellow and white blossoms. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served with Miss Clara Bolme, Miss Alice Balenrud and Miss Josephine Brekke assisting. Those included in the group were, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zobel, Miss Marie Bolme, Gilbert Hill, Mrs. Karen Bjontegard, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Jensen, Miss Cora Alrick, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lambert and daughter, Irene of Portland, Miss Cora Severn, Ernest Byberg, Mr. and Mrs. George Bolme, Miss Clara Bjontegard, Miss Alice Balenrud and Miss Josephine Brekke. Mr. and Mrs. Zobel will make their home in Silverton, following their return from their honeymoon.

Wacoona — A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. F. R. Nason Friday afternoon honoring a sister, Miss Lillian Flier of Portland. Miss Flier will be married in July to Sam Maers of Salem and will reside in Salem.

Following the untiring of many lovely gifts, refreshments were served at tables on the lawn. Decorations were in pink and white. Those present were Mrs. M. Flier, Mrs. and Mrs. Norman Estelle of Portland, Mrs. Emma Maers, Mrs. Martha Maers, Mrs. Frank Angelo and Mrs. Ben Maers, all of Salem. Those from this community were Mrs. Arthur Goffin, Miss Constance Goffin, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. Ivan Brundage, Mrs. H. C. Stafford, Mrs. A. W. Nason, Mrs. B. J. Miller, Mrs. J. E. Sharff, Miss Cora Jacobs, Mrs. John Jacobs, Mrs. Allyn Nason, the honor guest, Miss Flier and the hosts, Mrs. F. R. Nason.

At the third annual Willamette valley flower show to be held in Salem, June 4 and 5, in Willson park, better known as the capitol grounds, the Albany Garden club will join the local organizations in floral exhibits. This club won first prize, also sweepstakes, the first year and second prize last year.

The time for entering the yard and garden contest is nearing the close. June 1 is the last day and more entries are desired. If you have a pool, porch or window box, border, good lawn or foundation planting put in since September, 1931, please enter in one or all of these classes. Entry blanks may be had at the chamber of commerce. Do not be too modest. Help fill the classes so that the contest will be more interesting.

Complimenting Mrs. Kenneth Bents, nee Elizabeth Rasmick, her sisters, Mrs. M. A. Chioti, Mrs. P. L. Counts and Miss Tava Morgan were joint hostesses at the Ed Erickson home, for a shower, and informal afternoon of conversation.

Those chosen for the afternoon included the honor guest, Mrs. Bents, Miss Neva Stolzheim, Miss Florence Chioti, Mrs. Joseph Chioti, Mrs. A. Chioti, Mrs. M. A. Chioti, Mrs. P. L. Counts all of Portland; Mrs. E. D. McKee, Miss Verna Orr, Mrs. Hillis Braden, Mrs. Frank Barrett, Mrs. Ida Garland, Miss May Love, Miss Anna Knight, Miss Orva Barrett, Miss Dorothy Scholl, Miss Irene Higdonbotham, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Waldo Brown, and Miss Tava Morgan.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Tuesday, May 31

Miss Lois Fellows, presented in senior piano recital, Weller hall, 8 o'clock.

W. C. T. U. executive meeting, W. C. T. U. hall, South Commercial street, Tuesday morning 10 o'clock. Pot luck dinner at noon. All members of executive committee requested to be present.

Wednesday, June 1

Missionary society of First Congregational church, with Mrs. W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer street. Thimble club of Macabees, 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Lottie Smith and Mrs. Ernest Beebe, 1295 Market street. Regular meeting of Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Jason Lee church, in church parlors, Wednesday, June 1, at 2:30 o'clock.

Ladies Aid of Leslie Memorial church, Wednesday, 2 p. m. church parlors. Business meeting followed by silver tea.

Thursday, June 2

Zonta club installation of officers at home of Dr. Helen Pearce; social meeting to follow. Opening of eight statuary exhibits at Gilbert studio. Salem Women's club, last meeting of year; installation of officers, program. Hayville Women's club, 12 o'clock luncheon, with Mrs. Rorilla McAfee. State D. A. R. board meeting; convene in auditorium of city library, 9:30 o'clock; no-host luncheon at one o'clock in Marion hotel; dedication of Maryland elm, 2:30 o'clock.

Friday, June 3

B. and P. W. card club with Miss Juana Holmes, 607 North Commercial street. Mrs. Mona Yoder, and Miss Daisy Hayden will assist.

Saturday, June 4

Chequeta chapter, D. A. R. with Mrs. Seymour Jones; installation of officers.

Juanita Klinger Guest of Honor

Mrs. J. H. Klinger entertained recently honoring her daughter, Juanita, on her tenth birthday. Games and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon, after which refreshments were served. In the group were Rebekah Putnam, Muriel Lindstrom, Eileen McLeod, Norman Bacon, Enoch Herrick, Maxine Brown, Edith Collier, Dorothy Barham, Majorie Smith, Evelyn Dellefs, Bobby Lou Buchholz, David Putnam, Jimmy Hagen, Stanley Bacon, Constance Wodell, Dolly Wodell, Caroline Ward, Irma Illert, Elsie Seburn, Veva Crowe, Florence Elsassner and Juanita Klinger. Additional guests were Mrs. Floyd Bacon, Mrs. F. M. Tatman and Mrs. M. Huff.

Monmouth — Mrs. I. A. Davis was hostess Friday night to the Women's Sunday school class of the Evangelical church. Five cars took the guests out to the charming country home of Mrs. Davis. Those enjoying the affair were: Mrs. J. E. Winger, Mrs. R. P. Matheny, Mrs. E. A. Comstock, Mrs. C. E. Blair, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. Stella Lang, Mrs. Fred Cody, Mrs. Sheldon Cody, Mrs. Dora Tittle, Mrs. Robert, Miss Edith Comstock, Miss Emma Kramer, Miss Blanch Radley, Miss Cora Smith and Miss Lois Trelinger.

Games and conversation occupied the evening; and refreshments were served.

Silverton — The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sebo was the inspiration of a shower Friday afternoon at the Severn home where Mrs. Sebo has recently been visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Sebo recently adopted the six weeks old baby and have named her Janet Arlene. Fifty guests were present at the shower.

Informal Reception Honors Visitor

An informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Spalding, Rt. 7, Saturday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Spalding, (Louisa Poulade). Light refreshments were served, and guests calling during the evening were:

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Byram, Miss Frances Byram, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. George Starr, Miss Ruth Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. James Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soos, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tasto, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kitchen and son Billy, Misses Ruth and Zelma Kitchen, Ruby Poulade, Miss Greta Bailey, Miss Dolly Ellingham, Mr. Loren Clement, Miss Helen Kaser, Mr. Walter Hillpot, Miss Myrtle Beecroft, Mr. W. H. Rockhill, Mrs. Nellie Banta, Mr. J. D. Lansing, Miss Eliza King, Mr. and Mrs. Lerman, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lerman, Mrs. Cole, Mr. T. L. Poulade, Mr. Donald Poulade, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Spalding and sons, Leon, Harold, Virgil and David and little daughter, Louisa Jane.

Subscription Club Picnic Closes Year

Members of the local Subscription club and their guests are eagerly awaiting next Saturday evening when the group will enjoy a picnic and dance at Hazel Green, as a climax to the year's activities.

The picnic dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock after which the party will enjoy several hours of dancing. Sports costumes will be in order and the affair promises to be one of the smartest of the season. A number of prominent out of town folk, including guests from Portland, Salem, Silverton and other nearby towns will be included in the guest list.

Several informal mid-night suppers are being arranged at the homes of club members following the evening of dancing.

Silverton — Miss Olive DeGuire was hostess Thursday night at a party given for the pleasure of the club members, who will leave June 5 for Honolulu, Hawaii.

Cards were the diversion of the evening. Miss Clower received a guest prize while the high score prize went to Mrs. Lee Alfred. Miss Mildred Wharton was given the consolation prize. Mrs. Elbiel DeGuire assisted her sister-in-law in serving.

Guests included Mrs. Lee Alfred, Mrs. Errol Ross, Mrs. Warren Crabtree, Mrs. Oia Brown of Portland, Mrs. Harry Wells, Miss Clower, Miss Marion Gunn, Miss Mildred McDermott, Miss Marie Klev, Miss Mary Carter, Miss Ruth Elliot, Miss Edna Spenser, Miss Mildred Wharton, Miss Stella Dybek, Miss Blanche Hubbs, Miss Ruth Lawrence and Miss Florence Story.

The Ladies Aid of the Leslie Memorial church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the church parlors. A short business meeting followed by an informal program including a vocal solo by Mrs. Mason Bishop, accompanied by Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson and an accordion solo, by Mrs. Mayne Greenwood, accompanied by Mrs. Mason Bishop, will be enjoyed by the group. A silver tea will bring the afternoon to a close. Then Mrs. B. E. Otjen, general chairman for the day will be assisted by Mrs. Sarah Lowery, Mrs. Anna Shanks, and Mrs. Mina Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deekbach, Jr., returned home late Monday evening from Seattle, where they spent the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Hunter are greeting their friends in their new residential location at 130 South 24th street.

STRAWBERRY FETE SLATED FOR JUNE 2

SALEM HEIGHTS, May 30 — Roy Bohannon, president of the Salem Heights Community club has announced that C. W. Sawyer, chairman in charge of the strawberry festival has everything arranged and that the "Festival" will be held Thursday evening, June 2. Serving begins at 6 o'clock.

Preparation is being made for a large crowd at the hall as the strawberries are just coming on here and as far as is known this will be the first strawberry festival to be held in this district this year.

Salem Heights, being deprived of one store due to the closing out of the Dalton grocery, has just learned that Harry Scott, former manager of the Dalton store here will open up a new grocery at the corner of Jefferson and Liberty road in a few days. He will own this store himself.

2 Shelburn Girls Get High Honor for Scholastic Record

SHELLBURN, May 30 — At the graduating exercises held in Sco Thursday night two Shelburn girls were chosen to compete for the scholarship offered by the Albany college and Salem Business college.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynes, Harry and Earl are brothers.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Jason Lee church will hold its June meeting Wednesday at 2:30 at the church. Mrs. Benjamin will lead devotions and Mrs. W. L. Wilson is in charge of the lesson. All women of the community are cordially invited.

Mrs. Grace Busselle, formerly of Salem but now of Portland and Seattle, is a guest in the city for a few days. While here Mrs. Busselle is making her home at the Senator hotel.

The regular monthly meeting of the Y-Men's club will be held Friday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bates, 1095 North Capitol street. Election of officers will be the important issue during the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Krabbe of Bellingham, Washington, were guests in Salem during the two day vacation. They returned to their home in Washington, late Monday evening.

Mrs. I. A. Erickson of Spokane, was a weekend guest at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hoyer, Sr. Erickson returned to her home late Monday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Lee Wood, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wood, spent the weekend at the Oregon beaches.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, May 30 — The annual commencement exercises for the West Salem school will be held on Tuesday evening at the Ford Memorial church at 8:00 o'clock, with J. F. Santee of the Oregon normal school, Monmouth, the commencement speaker. Francis Wise of the graduating class will give the valedictory address and Guy Newgent, chairman of the school board will present the diplomas to the 16 graduates.

The Cleary-Hillman Packing company are hustling all preliminaries with the expectation of beginning to open the season's industry by receiving orders for the cold pack. A fine new type Universal fruit grader has recently been installed which will facilitate the work of caring for the fruit. No gooseberries will be accepted but probably the work on strawberries will begin Wednesday or Thursday.

Mrs. Martha L. Grandstaff, who has been living in Portland for over a year, caring for a partially orphaned niece is here for a week or so in her own home. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Radkey and little son Robert, arrived in an automobile accident one day recently four miles east of Salem. Mrs. Radkey received severe body bruises and two broken ribs and the car was wrecked but Mr. Radkey and little Robert, a year old baby, were fortunately unharmed. The Ladies Aid society will hold its regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Earl Lynes, Harry and Earl are brothers.

PICNICS HONOR ENDING OF SCHOOL

JEFFERSON, May 29 — The Jefferson schools closed last week. Thursday picnics were enjoyed by the students of the high and grade school. The high school motored to Thomas creek and enjoyed the day; the seventh and eighth grades picnicked across the Santiam river on the baseball grounds; the fifth and sixth grades picnicked on the banks of the Santiam river near town; and all the other grades remained on the school grounds for their good time. Athletic sports and games were enjoyed at these picnics, and at the noon hour picnic dinners were served.

All of the teachers have gone, except Superintendent Lyman Patton, and Mrs. Flo Young who live here. Miss Frances Chambers will spend the summer with her mother in Portland; Miss Maude Durfee left for Lewiston, Idaho where she will spend the summer vacation at home; Miss Bertha Dillon will remain at the home of her brother, W. E. Dillon, at Molalla; Miss Geraldine Register has gone to her home in Lebanon. She will teach in the Lebanon school next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKee, A. McKee, Miss Virginia McKee and Lincoln Waterman, motored to Carlton Sunday morning, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynes of Portland were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynes, Harry and Earl are brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynes of Portland were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynes, Harry and Earl are brothers.

GENTLEMEN HOME MECCA FOR CLUB

SUVER, May 30 — Mrs. M. H. Gentemann was hostess to the Ivy club Wednesday. A quilt was worked on. Potluck dinner was served at noon. Those present were Mrs. J. R. McCusker, Mrs. Henry Lamb, Mrs. O. J. Bagley, Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Mrs. Blair Douglas, Mrs. Miles Davis, Mrs. Ralph Kester, Mrs. Hilko, Mrs. Loren Steptoe, Mrs. Joe Gentemann, Mrs. Howard Rogers, Mrs. Jack Countyman, and Mrs. Earl Conkey. Mrs. Conkey will entertain at her home in Monmouth June 8.

J. J. Thurstin of Portland is loading out wheat from the Suver warehouse.

J. H. Quillan has bought the John Miller place at Granger. He will take possession soon.

Queener 8th Grade Finished; 3 Pupils, A Boy and 2 Girls

QUEENER, May 30 — Among those graduating from the eighth grade at Queener school were: Dorothy Fleming, Lola Sims and Joe Schiles.

Mrs. Barbara Crane who was on the sick list this week with a heart attack, is able to be up and around. Mary Schiles stayed with her sister during her illness.

A number of the Queener district people attended the cleanup at the Wiser cemetery.

HASSETT FUNERAL TUESDAY TURNER, May 30 — The funeral of Mrs. R. O. Hassett who died Saturday, May 28 at the hotel Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at the Turner Christian church.

300 HATS

in a COMPLETE CLOSE-OUT

These lovely new summer hats are outstanding values at regular prices. This is your chance to be style-right without going to price extremes.

There are only 300 hats in the lot so we recommend that you come early for good selection.

Hats Valued to $5.00 Choice Now

$1.95

Hats Valued to $7.50 Now

$2.95

Hats Valued to $10.00 Now

$3.95

One Lot of Hats to Choose from. Values to $6.95... 95c

ALPHA BASCUE, Mgr.

MACK'S

415 State

Here is a Message of Importance to You....

The entire stock of Mack's ready to wear store has been sold for the benefit of creditors. Our assignment sale is now in progress and hundreds of Salem's thrifty have already taken advantage of these savings.

We invite the ladies of Salem and vicinity to come and buy from this wonderful stock. This sale will not last long. We are sacrificing MACK'S ENTIRE STOCK.

Salem people know that Mack's have always carried high-grade coats, suits and dresses only.

W. T. HISLOP, New Owner

ASSIGNMENT SALE Selling Out Mack's Coats - Suits - Dresses - COATS -

For Street, Dress or Sport Wear

COATS UP TO $19.75 NOW $9.95

COATS UP TO $24.50 NOW $11.95

COATS UP TO $29.50 NOW $14.95

Suits

Knit and Tweed Suits for Sport and Street Wear

Values up to $16.50. Now $6.95

Values up to $11.95. Now $9.95

Values up to $19.75. Now $16.95

Values up to $24.50. Now $12.95

GRADUATION DRESSES $5.95

All Sales Final—No approvals—No exchanges—No refunds

W. T. HISLOP, NEW OWNER

MACK'S

415 State Street, Salem, Oregon

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

UNION STATES LIFE INSURANCE CO.

OF PORTLAND, OREGON

A fully qualified Legal Reserve Life Insurance Company licensed by the Oregon State Department of Insurance

$6,061,150.00 of Insurance in force May 24, 1932

The first Union States Policy was issued on November 12, 1931. Since that time policies have been written on 1,543 Oregon people, totaling $6,061,150.00.

Keep western money at home

Paid-up of western life insurance companies will prevent drainage of capital from the section where it is most needed. Buy insurance in western companies.

An important Oregon institution

Now, when the whole thought of citizens is directed toward employment, it is well to remember that the disbursements to employees and agents of this company in Oregon will amount to over $100,000 in 1932.

Know the Union States agent

The Union States Agent is a responsible business man, having been carefully selected and thoroughly trained to offer dependable counsel upon all phases of life insurance problems. It will pay you to know such a man.

CAPITOL UNDERWRITERS CORPORATION

OWNERS

Home Office — Portland, Oregon

WAYNE E. HISBARD President P. F. McGINNIS Vice President F. W. KAISER Vice President H. W. BERTULEIT Secretary H. E. HOLLOWELL Treasurer