

MEMORIAL DAY WELL OBSERVED

Special Ceremonies Held by Veteran's Groups in Valley Towns

INDEPENDENCE, May 31—Rev. Edward Achenbrenner, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered an inspiring address on "Patriotism" at the union Memorial day meeting held in the Baptist church Sunday night. Rev. H. K. Nelson, Baptist church pastor, read the scripture. The Young People's choir of the church sang special selections. Master Alvin Richmond gave a pleasing number on the accordion.

J. B. Kelley, one of only two survivors of the local Grand Army of the Republic, represented his post with that of Gibson No. 29 Woman's Relief corps, members of which attended in a body. Mr. Kelley's comrade, Jeff Frier, whose home is here, is at present in the old soldiers' home in Roseburg.

AMITY, May 31—The Memorial day program was held in the auditorium Monday morning with numbers as follows: Star Spangled Banner; Invocation; Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Lelah Shields; vocal solo, Rev. F. L. Cannel; prayer; Memorial day address by Levi Pennington. The program was very well presented and enjoyed by those present.

HUBBARD, May 31—Milt Scherping was the speaker for the Memorial day exercises given Monday at the city auditorium under the auspices of the Woman's Relief corps. The theme of his address was "Why Honor We These Dead?"

Susie Ott, the president of the Relief corps announced the following program: America All, accompanied by Edith Painter; flag salute, led by Phyllis Brown; selection, band under the direction of Dr. de Lespinaise; invocation, Rev. Hartong; recitation, Arlene Colgman; duet, Irene and Tom Higgenbotham; "Vacant Chair"; solo, Helen Knight; "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground"; flag drill; Mrs. Fry's room; selection, band.

At the cemetery the Relief corps gave their regular ritualistic ceremony during which Dorothy McKay gave Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The benediction was given by Rev. Hartong. The cemetery was beautiful this year, partly due to the late rains.

WOODBURN, May 31—The Memorial day services at Belle Pass cemetery were carried out as previously announced, except that Joy McCarty read Lincoln's Gettysburg address, instead of Alden Watt.

TURNER, May 30—A Memorial day program was given at Twin Oak cemetery Monday morning in charge of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Marion post 661 V. F. W.

Following the Bugle call the singing of America was led by a local quartet, Mrs. W. A. Martin, Mrs. M. McKinley, U. E. and Russell Denyer. The invocation was given by W. C. Duncan; General Logan's orders were read by Miss Josephine Gilstrap, which was followed with an appropriate selection by the quartet.

Byron Conny, state chaplain, gave the address in which he urged "all to remember the sacrifices made for a free country." The closing ceremonial was in charge of Roy Remington, commander.

SCHOOL TERM ENDS AT VICTOR POINT

VICTOR POINT, May 31—School closed here Thursday and the day was spent in picnicking at the schoolhouse. A basket luncheon was served at noon and was followed by a treat of home made ice cream. The teacher, Miss Eleanor Paddock, left for her home at Eugene Saturday. Mrs. Daphne Hunt will teach the school here next year.

Victor Point school children receiving Herald of Health badges were: Ernest Qualey, Marvin Darby, Helen Larson, Alvera Johnston, Louise Doerfler, Donald Larson, Laurel Krenz, Elaine Qualey, Wesley Darby and Donald Jaquet.

Miss Helen Mulkey accompanied her sisters, Mrs. Zelma Dale, Portland, and Mrs. Jessie Raines, Salem, to Eugene Wednesday where they attended the Rebekah lodge assembly. The ladies are members of the Silverton Rebekah degree team which had charge of the initiatory work at the session.

Miss Annie Slagle of Portland who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Theodore Fisher, and family returned to Portland Saturday. Mrs. E. R. Palmer of Salem, another sister, has also been a recent visitor at the Fisher home.

Twins Sixteen, Honored at Party

MEHAMA, May 31—A very pleasant surprise party was given at the Ralph Wilson home honoring Ercell and Russell Wilson on their 16th birthday. Games and various contests were played and at four o'clock ice cream and cake were served.

Mrs. George Bucholz and her daughter Mrs. Gabbe and son Bobby of Portland spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Boone Poyner. Mrs. Poyner and Mrs. Bucholz are sisters. Mrs. Dickson has as guests her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Casteel and Mr. Osborne all of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mulkey of Astoria were weekend guests at the W. F. Mulkey home.

GARNER AIDE

To Matt W. Jure (above), of Fort Worth, Texas, belongs the distinction of having been the man who threw Speaker John N. Garner's hat in the Presidential ring. As president of the Texas Veterans' Association, Jure sponsored a resolution favoring Garner immediately after the popular Texan had been elevated to the position of Speaker of the House.

FIRES CAUSE LOSSES
HUBBARD, May 31—Ray Chubb, who lives near Macksburg had the misfortune to burn out last Tuesday. Nearly everything was burned. His daughter, Meta Chubb Schatz, was alone at the time with her baby son and her young brother and sister. All of Mrs. Frances Erickson's furniture which was stored in an upstairs room was burned. Mr. Cooper who lives south of Hubbard burned out Friday night.

SCIO HIGH SCHOOL HAS RECORD CLASS

SCIO, May 31—Commencement exercises were held for the 18 seniors, six boys and 12 girls, at the Z. C. B. J. hall Thursday evening, May 28. This is the largest class ever to graduate from the local high school.

Rev. Rex Dallas of Albany gave the principal address. Opal Shilling gave the salutatory address, by virtue of having the second highest grades in the class. Due to the fact that there is no annual this year, the class will, history, and prophecy, read by Ralph Johnston, Marjorie Hoppe, and Eleanor Miller, respectively, were given at the commencement. Evelyn Bronson, who has the highest grades, gave the valedictory address.

Mr. Gallego, in the absence of P. W. Schrank, chairman, presented the diplomas. He also announced that Opal Shilling had been chosen for the scholarship offered by the Albany college, and that Evelyn Bronson will receive the one offered by the Capital business college of Salem.

M. H. Beal, coach, presented the cup he awarded to Max Long, a senior. The cup was awarded to the most outstanding boy in high school. Award was made on the basis of athletic ability, scholastic standing and student activity participation. The choice was made by the high school faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Beal will leave for their homes in Portland and Waldport, respectively.

Thieves Pay Two Profitable Visits to Milne Residence

CENTRAL HOWELL, May 31—Everett Milne suffered a double loss the past week and he suspects there was a connection between the two.

Sunday night the dog belonging to Mr. Milne was missing. Thursday night about midnight Everett's sister, Mrs. Tuve, aroused him saying she saw a car near the garage. A 50-gallon barrel of gas was missing. He found a trail where they had rolled the barrel down the slight incline to the road where they loaded it on their vehicle.

Three Mehama Pupils End 8th Grade Work

MEHAMA, May 31—Mehama joined Stayton school in the 8th grade graduating exercises Sunday night, having the following graduates to receive diplomas: Ruth Grace, Ardys Landers and Ruth Moe.

School closed Friday with the teachers, Miss Otinger and Mrs. Poyner, taking the children to "the grove" to spend the day at games and other recreation followed by a treat of ice cream and cake.

MISSPELLED WORD CONTEST

$5.00 CASH PRIZE and 10 Merchandise Prizes

Read the Rules Below—Open to Everyone. Nothing to Buy. Abbreviations Are not Mistakes.

Scattered among the advertisements below are a few words that have been purposely misspelled. Find the incorrect words, underscore them, cut out and paste on sheet of paper, placing date of the issue above the ads.

Contest runs for six consecutive days, from Tuesday, May 31, through Sunday, June 5th. Prizes will be awarded those contestants finding the largest number of misspelled words during the whole six days run of the contest. Mistakes are changed daily.

At the end of the six days mail or bring your entry to the Contest Editor, Oregon Statesman. Entries must reach this office before 6 p. m. Wednesday, June 8th. Winners will be announced Sunday June 12.

Accuracy, Neatness and Originality will count in this contest. In case of a tie duplicate awards will be given. Prizes will be awarded in this manner. First prize $5.00 and 10 merchandise prizes will be given the following winners.

Contest is open to everyone except Oregon Statesman employees and their families. Judges will be selected by The Oregon Statesman and their decisions will be final.

In the event you would like to enter the contest late, missing one or two previous issues, these copies may be had by calling for them at The Oregon Statesman.
