Announcement Comes As Surprise

Announcement of the engagement of Miss E. Gertrude Anderson to J. Raymond Pite of Payette, Idaho, came as a happy surprise at a recent afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edith G. Anderson.

Miss Anderson has been a member of the Salem school system for the past nine years and is now director of the vocational opportunity school in Salem. Mr. Pite is pastor of the First Christian church in Payette.

Mr. Pite is a graduate of the Eugene Bible Institute and the University of Oregon. He has also had special work at Spokane Christian college, Drake university and Oregon State college. Miss Anderson is a graduate of Oregon Normal school, has attended the University of California, Oregon State college and will soon have her degree from the University of Oregon.

The engagement was made known at the tea hour following the regular session and installation of officers of the Missionary guild of the First Christian church at the Anderson home. Small Betty and Ruth Terhune, granddaughters of Mrs. Anderson, passed tiny corsages about to the guests. A butterfly lightly resting on each corsage bore the news of the betrothal.

The wedding will probably be sometime in the early summer.

Silverton Society Is Variety of Events

Silverton — Mr. and Mrs. James Manning were hosts at a six o'clock dinner Saturday night at their home to the members of the tennis and golf teams of the Silverton high school. Mr. Manning is faculty manager of the two teams.

The guest list for the dinner included Bill Kleebe, Bill Syphert, Wesley Williams, Clarence Johnson, Steve Stagner, Ed Johnston, Elvin Almquist, Wayne Tate, Philip Himmel, Wayne Satchwell, George Smith, Conrad Thorndickson and Duane Thornley.

Trinity Dorcas society and Ladies Aid society will hold a joint meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the social room of Trinity church. Mrs. Hans Hansen, Mrs. H. Rindem, Mrs. Victor Madsen and Mrs. L. G. McDonald will be the hostesses.

Immanuel Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ole amahl, Mrs. Ostrem and Mrs. Hans Steen as hostesses.

Mrs. Walter Fry was the inspiration of a surprise birthday party Thursday afternoon. The affair was planned by her two daughters, Mrs. Robert Goetz and Mrs. Inez Heineman.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Roscoe Ames of Albany, Mrs. W. J. Gettger of Marquam, and Mrs. Tena Royce, Mrs. Joe Grinde, Mrs. Joe Odell, Mrs. Duke Stewart and Miss Eleanor Sauer, all of Portland.

Aurora — The country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Robinson on the Willamette river was the setting Sunday for an interesting reception and tea given in honor of Mrs. Delmar Powers of Calgary, Canada, who with her two children is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and her grandmother, Mrs. Francis Green.

Guests motored out from the surrounding towns and Portland between the hours of 3 to 6 o'clock. The tea table was presided over the first hour by Mrs. H. W. Brown of Canby, followed by Mrs. Elmer Kruse of Wilsonville and Mrs. J. W. Sadler of Aurora. They were assisted by two maids, Martha Francis Bradt and Marjory Stephens. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Stephens, E. E. Bradt and Mrs. U. Eilers.

Miss Wilma Horn returned Saturday from Prineville, Oregon, where she has been teaching the past year and when she will return at the beginning of the school year in September. Miss Horn plans to take summer school work in Oregon State college, where Miss Louvera Horn is a junior, and with whom Miss Horn is visiting this week.

Michel Penha Will Present Program

No doubt a number of Salem people will be interested in attending the program of music for the 'cello which will be presented in Portland tonight at 8:45 in the studio theatre by Michel Penha, 'cellist and mentor for the Neah-Kah-Nie quartet which proved such a delightful musical group in its programs presented in Salem the past winter.

Penha is a musician of brilliance and his work is a splendid part of musical contributions of the west. He will be assisted by Genevieve Pipes, pianist, whose work is spoken of in glowing terms by those who know it.

The program includes:

Club is Organized by Jason Lee Group

The sophomore girls of the Jason Lee church school have been organized into a club under the name of the "H" Patrol. The first pledge service was held April 30 at the church. The girls who were pledged then are: Anna Graber, Clara Belle Burnside, Wilma Godsey, Willa Ellis, Loretta Pro, Florence Esheleman, Marie Graber, Blanche Baumgartner, Ruby Esheleman, Gatha Bressler, Helen Marcy and Irene Heath.

The second pledge service was held May 20 at the church. Those pledged were: Dorothy Miller, Helen Smith, and Hallie Chamberlain.

The officers elected are as follows: Gatha Bressler, Loretta Pro, Blanche Baumgartner, Hallie Chamberlain and Florence Esheleman. The constitution is now ready for ratification.

The next meeting will be held June 3 at 8 o'clock at the Jason Lee church. All members are urged to be present.

Word comes from New York City that Mr. and Mrs. Albert Albert and Miss Josephine Albert are at the Barbizon Plaza hotel in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Albert went by airplane to Flint Michigan, where they purchased a new car and drove on to New York City to meet Miss Albert who has been studying there this past winter. They will soon leave for Salem traveling by automobile.

Hennigan-Baker Nuptials Observed

Independence — At an attractive home wedding Sunday noon, Miss Helen Hennigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hennigan, became the bride of Norman Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker. Dr. David Thompson of Portland read the services.

The bride wore an apricot colored lace gown and carried a bouquet of sweet peas, forget-me-nots and Cecil Brunner roses.

Miss Lorene Kemp, the bridesmaid, was dressed in a golden-yellow frock and carried roses to match.

Frances Newton was best man. The rooms were beautifully decorated in spring flowers. After the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served to the bride and groom, her parents, his parents, Mrs. E. M. Bayly, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Day Bayly, the bride's aunt, both of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Vial, the groom's grandparents, his sisters, Esie, Elsie and Audrey Baker, and a brother, Omer Baker, Miss Lorene Kemp, Frances Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Walther, Miss Irene Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reece, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Holgate, Miss Marjorie Plant and Mrs. Henry Hanson.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Baker will be at home to their friends at the corner of Sixth and E streets.

Willamette Auxiliary To Install Officers

Willamette Auxiliary No. 2081 Fraternal Order of Eagles will meet Wednesday evening at which time there will be a class of four for initiation.

Installation of officers has been postponed till June 8 at which time Portland officers and drill team will be here to install officers.

A social hour will follow the class initiation Wednesday evening.

W. C. T. U. Has Busy Meeting

Salem W. C. T. U. stated plans for scientific temperance work to be completed before the opening of schools this fall at the Tuesday all-day meeting in the organization hall.

Plans were announced for the year's work by various society directors of departments, and a plea was made for all those who had not registered for the primaries to register now so that they might vote in the November election. Department plans were announced by Mrs. Jessie Cole, Mrs. Luella Baker, Mrs. Eschbaugh, Mrs. Margaret Martin, Mrs. Lydia Lehman, Mrs. Cora Neer, and Mrs. D. A. Rogers.

At the noon hour Dr. Emma Rogers led the devotions. Following the potluck luncheon Mrs. Necla Buck opened the afternoon session. Mrs. Helen Prescott took charge of the business meeting.

It was announced that the state convention will meet in Salem about October 18. A county picnic will be held following the national convention to be held at Seattle. Mrs. Lydia Lehman is the delegate at large to the National W. C. T. U. convention in Seattle, August 12-18. It was announced that Mrs. Helen Byrnes, National Y. P. B. worker is expected to be present for the national convention.

Mrs. Necla Buck gave an interesting summary of her work this past few weeks in organization of W. C. T. U. units in Washington. Talks to clubs and colleges, and actual organization work occupied the time of Mrs. Buck while on her recent trip. She told the Salem union of the interesting plan used by the Washington W. C. T. U. in its scientific instruction in the schools.

Chapter G Nears End of Season

Members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will be guests at the home of Mrs. H. S. Poisal, 2505 South Commercial street, Thursday. The visitors at the recent state convention held in Portland will give reports as to the results of this meeting.

This will be the next to last meeting for Chapter G for this spring. The last meeting will be a picnic luncheon for which Mrs. E. J. Huffman and Mrs. Frank Churchill are the social committee in charge. The social committee includes Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mrs. D. X. Beechler and Mrs. W. T. Hickey.

National Guard Officers Entertained

At their new home on Fairmount avenue Saturday evening Lt. and Mrs. Robey S. Ratcliffe all an at home night; entertained all the married men of headquarters battery, 249th Coast Artillery, Oregon National Guard, and their wives at cards and buffet supper. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Unruh, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce P. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Heenan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Finster, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard I. Greig, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schultz and Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Finster.

High prizes were won by Mrs. Willis for the women and Roy Finster for the men. Low prizes by Mrs. Roy Finster and Carl Finster.

Mrs. Ratcliffe was assisted by her sister Mrs. Walter R. Bush. After supper the guests before departing inspected the house and gardens.

Mrs. Ratcliffe teaches at the Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland and Mr. Ratcliffe practices law in Salem.

Bethel — An all-day luncheon meeting of the Bethel Dorcas club will be held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bert Smith in Salem.
