

PELMULDER SELLS FLORAL GARDENS

WOODBURN, June 1 — The Pelmulder greenhouse and floral gardens, located on the Pacific highway north of Woodburn, have been sold by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Pelmulder, the purchasers being

A. F. Timm and his sons, George and Lewis Timm, all of Richland, Washington. The new proprietors took possession of the place June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Pelmulder have moved to Vader, Washington, where they have received a 45 acre farm in the deal. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hudson of Woodburn, who also figured in the deal, moved Tuesday to a 20 acre improved farm at Richland, Washington, which they received in the transaction. The entire deal was made through the Berry Center Land company. Mr. Tim and sons plan to continue operation along much the same lines as before, but will make considerable improvements. The plan to enlarge the plant for handling more volume of business by installing a new sales and store room, which will face the highway. Also a modern heating plant is to be installed within the near future. Purchased stock and supplies will be increased in variety and quantity to meet trade requirements, so that a general and complete line of all greenhouse, nursery and floral orders can be handled promptly. Mr. Timm, who is in charge, is experienced and well qualified in greenhouse, nursery and landscaping work. Lily ponds and rockeries being a hobby and a specialty. He has been associated with the Home Nursery company at Richland for two years and has had experience in various other places.

Garden Club Group Makes Tour of Town

MONMOUTH, June 1 — Members of Monmouth's Garden club enjoyed an afternoon of visiting the local gardens Friday, when in group assemblage they drove above town stopping to observe some 25 gardens. Many beautiful exhibits of floral and landscape art were seen; and especial praise was conceded to the gardens of Mrs. Thomas H. Gentle at the Gentle farm north of town. Tea was served in the garden of Mrs. H. W. Morlan at close of the visiting session.

CHANGES ARE NOTED IN LIBERTY HOMES

LIBERTY, June 1.—A number of changes in residents are noted in this district recently. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Canfield have sold their property to Salem people and left by motor Wednesday morning for St. Paul, Minn., where they will live. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sweet and two children of Pringle have leased the house owned by Mrs. Nellie Harris of Salem and are moving soon. The log cabin on the William Zosel place is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Newman and Mr. Newman's father and two brothers, formerly of Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Trombell, former Portland residents, are living in the apartment in the Zosel house and Mr. Trombell will be employed by Mr. Zosel.

Mrs. Winifred Stevens and Miss Frances Stevens of Cathlamet, Wash., arrived Friday to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stacey. Ted Russell brought them to Salem and was a guest of the Staceys over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert motored to southern Oregon Saturday where they were guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nee. The children, Marguerite and Leonard, who have been staying with their sister and attending high school, will return home with their parents.

GRAVESIDE RITES HELD FOR SIMMONS

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, June 1 — Graveside services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Simmons family plot in the Odd Fellows cemetery in Salem, for Charles Simmons who died May 25, aged 51, at Fairfield, Idaho. The body of a little sister, Ella May Simmons, who was buried at Fairfield 25 years ago, was disinterred and brought to Salem also, where she and her brother will rest beside their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Simmons. Rev. C. L. Dark of West Salem was in charge of commitment services. J. W. Simmons, and Ervin Simmons, brother and nephew respectively of Charles Simmons, reached Monday from Idaho where they had gone to superintend funeral arrangements.

WORKING IN SALEM BRUSH CREEK, June 1—Miss Catherine Benson, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Benson, has secured work at Salem in the office of a dentist. She drives forth and back daily with her sister, Miss Helen, who is a bookkeeper in a super-service station at Salem.

PRE-CONVENTION MEET

MACLEAY, June 1 — Final plans will be made for those attending the state grange meeting to be held at Silverton next month, at the regular grange meeting to be held Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Martin are the regular delegates by virtue of office, and Frank Bowers was chosen alternate delegate.
