Surprise Weddings Interesting Topics

Avoiding rumors and quietly stealing a march on many unsuspecting friends Mrs. Gladys Proctor and Harold Eakin were married in Chemawa Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the apartment of Miss Gertrude Eakin, sister of the groom. The only other guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wait of Oak Grove, parents of the bride. Rev. Grover C. Birtchett read the wedding service.

Mr. and Mrs. Eakin attended Salem schools together and have both made their homes in Salem for the greater part of their lives. Mrs. Eakin for the past three years has made her home in Portland. Mr. Eakin is a substantial member of the staff of the First National bank and has been a prominent and popular "eligible" in social circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Eakin will make their home at the Royal Court apartment.

A second wedding of interest to be announced Wednesday was that of Miss Helen Pettijohn, daughter of Mrs. Winifred Pettijohn to Lewis Lamb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Lamb of Chicago, Ill. The marriage took place in September in Los Angeles, but the fact remained a secret until this week when Mr. and Mrs. Lamb announced their marriage in Chicago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lamb attended Willamette university where the romance began. Mrs. Lamb graduated from Reed college in 1930 getting her degree in psychology. Later she took post graduate work at the University of Southern California and then at the University of Oregon. While in Los Angeles this past summer she was doing clinic work in child psychology.

Mr. Lamb graduated from the University of Oregon school of architecture. While in Willamette he was affiliated with Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity. He is a nephew of Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university.

At the present time Mr. and Mrs. Lamb are making their home in Chicago.

International House to Receive Visitors

An event which will attract the attention of a large number of Salem people will be the "open house" to townspeople and university people which the "International house" of Willamette university will sponsor Friday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

Each college is developing its own "international house" and the result is proving an interesting one. University students find the contact with the foreign students a splendid addition to their university life and that foreign students find this contact valuable is shown by the increasing numbers which come each year to attend schools here.

Miss Josephine Albert has the rare opportunity of making her home in the "international house" of Columbia university while attending school there.

Willamette university "international house" at 690 South Winter street, is in its infancy but it has much of interest for visitors Friday.

Encinitis Club Elects Officers

Officers were elected by the Encinitis club at its regular dinner meeting held Tuesday night in the social rooms of the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Helen Richardson will head the group as president; Miss Lulu Eastridge, vice president; Miss Muriel Rowe, secretary; Miss Anna Peters, treasurer;

Miss Jane Harland, song leader; Miss Dorothy Franks, pianist, and Mrs. Helen Hamilton, advisor.

Women's Club Will Hold Important Meet Today

One of the outstanding meetings of the year will be held by the Salem Women's club this afternoon at the club house on North Cottage street.

It will be the last meeting of the year for the club and final business will be presented. At this time Mrs. J. M. Devera, retiring president of the club, and who through illness has been unable to attend many sessions this spring, will be present to give her recommendations and farewell address to the club at 3 o'clock. She will also install the incoming president, Mrs. Hannah Martin.

An executive board meeting is called for 1 o'clock and at 2 o'clock the regular business meeting will be held. Important reports will be given by the various committee and department heads as well as from those attending the recent state convention of the club federation in Portland.

Mrs. Martin will also announce the year book committee which is headed by Mrs. W. I. Staley and assisting her will be Mrs. W. E. Feldman, Mrs. T. C. Wood, Miss Eula McCully, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. J. A. Bronson, and Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo.

Art Exhibit at Studio Is Intriguing

Today one of the most interesting exhibits to be shown in Salem for many months will be open to the public at the Gilbert Art and Craft studio beginning at 2:30 o'clock when works of art from the art department of the University of Oregon will go on display. Maurice Hudkins is in charge of the exhibit.

Most of the exhibit is sculpturing done in Oregon sandstone and worked out by senior students of the university and also a few pieces by Oliver Lawrence Bartlett, head of the department and Victoria Avakian and Nellie Best, instructors.

Those exhibiting include in addition to the above, Louise Breuer, Don Byers, Pauline Conrad, Edna Dunbar, Fannie Evans, Fred Hillman, Edith Jackson, Walter Pritchard, Margaret Reynolds, Velda Rose, Mary Vincent, Margaret Wetterstrom, and a number of exhibitors of beautiful and original pottery pieces.

This afternoon a group of prominent matrons will greet the guests and Prof. Edward Tillson will play a group of piano numbers. Those who will receive include Mrs. D. A. Young, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. Edward Tillson, Mrs. H. V. Collins, and Miss Florence Cartwright.

Friday afternoon Robert Reed, pianist, will present a program sometime during the receiving hours of 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock. Saturday Miss Margaret Sims will be piano soloist, and it is expected that Prof. R. W. Hans Setz will furnish the musical

Week-End Parties Call Attention

One of the brilliant parties of the spring will be observed this weekend at which time Mrs. Perry Kelley and Mrs. R. W. Davis will entertain with a smart tea at the Kelley home complementing Miss Heister Davis, recently returned from a year spent in California. A large invitation list and the pretty background of the Kelley home promise a colorful and charming affair for this popular maid.

A second affair will be the tea Friday afternoon at the Marion hotel with which Mrs. Gurnee numbers for the special Sunday afternoon exhibit from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock. This exhibit is open to the public.

Another Interesting Announcement Made

June, blessed month of romance and wedding bells, certainly begins auspiciously this year with weddings and betrothal announcements in number.

Among the more than ordinarily interesting engagements to be announced and one which was much of a surprise, was that of Miss Irene Kauffman of McMinnville to Andrew Peterson, prominent in athletics in Willamette university, president of his fraternity, Alpha Psi Delta fraternity, and president of the junior class.

Mr. Peterson is now on route to Japan and Honolulu where he will play ball during the summer, and from where he will return this fall to attend Willamette again. No date or wedding plans were made known.
