Pattern

This model interprets in a charming way the use of two colors and harmonizing prints, and at the same time effects the new high waist line. The bodice is gracefully draped at the front neckline, and held with clips; chic sleeve ruffles cover the upper arm in a feminine manner. The front and back skirt seaming is the last word in chic. Equally smart of print and plain color.

Pattern 2341 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 42. Size 16 requires 2 3/8 yards of 35-inch fabric, 7-8 yard contrasting.

D.A.R. Convention Held Here Thursday

Plans to sponsor the largest social event of the national American Legion convention in September at Portland, an all-states dinner for 3000 guests and 500 members of the hostess group, were made Thursday by the Daughters of the American Revolution state executive board meeting in session here. The state society of the Daughters also will entertain visiting Daughters brought to the coast by the Legion convention at the D. A. R. cabin at Champeog sometime during the convention period.

The final indebtedness of $600 for the Champeog cabin will be paid off this year, according to financial reports made during the executive session. All records of the state society are being cataloged and filed at the Champeog cabin.

Projects were outlined for a group of study classes to be held in Portland by the state society for four weeks, on subjects pertaining to national defense, conservation and thrift, immigration and Americanization—problems and citizenship as relating to measures to be brought before state and national legislative bodies in subjects in which the Daughters are interested.

One new chapter, Waukena chapter of Park Rose, was welcomed into the state society during the executive session and Mrs. Charles E. Wells was appointed organizing regent to establish a new chapter at Hillsboro. At present, including the Park Rose chapter, there are 23 chapters in the state society.

An interesting feature of the session was the dedicatory ceremonies for the Washington bicentennial elm planting, which was held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the statehouse grounds. Willard Marks, president of the Oregon senate, was the principal speaker. Mrs. William Dieckmeier, state chaplain of the D. A. R. read a poem by James Russell Lowell, "Under the Old Elm," written and read by him at the centennial celebration of Washington's command. Mrs. Mark Weatherford of Albany, first vice-regent, and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson of The Dalles, unveiled the new chapter of the D. A. R. at Hillsboro. Miss Mary Agnes Kelly, state historian, led the salute to the flag and Mrs. B. Harding, state registrar, led the devotions.

The elm tree dedicated here was a graft from the historic Washington elm at Cambridge, Mass., under the branches of which General Washington took command of the American army July 3, 1775, and was sent to the Oregon society by Mrs. Alice P. Dorsey of Maryland.

Approximately 50 members of the Daughters state executive board attended the morning board meeting in the public library, which was followed by the no-hostess luncheon at the Marion hotel. Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state regent of the Daughters, presided at the board meeting and during the dedicatory services of the elm tree.

A feature of the forenoon board meeting were talks by various officers, committee chairmen and reports by chapter regents. Salem chapter was represented by Mrs. William F. Fargo, who introduced regent, Harry T. Love, the incoming regent, who will be installed as regent of Chemeketa chapter at its next meeting of the organization, which will be held in a week at the home of Mrs. Seymour Jones on the River road.

Members of the University league of the First Methodist church will give a Farewell Tea to the graduating seniors of the league Sunday afternoon from 6 to 7:30 p. m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, 225 N. 20th street. Miss Harriet Sanders is in charge of the feature program for the afternoon. Nova Hedlin, Mildred Kester, and Garfield Barnett are in charge of the arrangements. During the afternoon the new officers of the league will be installed. They are as follows: President, Ralph Knott; secretary-treasurer, Betty Moffatt; music chairman, Nova Hedlin; recreational leader, Frank Haley; membership chairman, Eugene Smith. They will set up the program for the coming year before commencement.

L. Ladina" vocal trio composed of the Misses, Gwen Gallaher, Agnes Moore and Marie Littold; a talk "Summer Programs" by Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher and recitations by Mrs. W. J. Culver and Mrs. Oletta Weisser. Tea will be served informally by the hostess, Miss Savage at the close of the afternoon.

NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT EXTRA RICH IN VITAL FOOD ELEMENTS

Laboratory Certifies the Improved Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit

Before the new Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit was introduced, the Kellogg company submitted it to the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia, which found it so rich in food value that every package could be certified.

This means that mothers can now know definitely that their children are getting a well-balanced food whenever they serve the new Kellogg biscuits and milk—rich in minerals, vitamins, proteins—nourishing and healthful.

And Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits offer many other features. The biscuits are "pressure-cooked" by a special process that bakes in the delicious flavor. At the same time, it retains all the valuable food elements of the whole wheat. Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are much crispier and tastier because they are toasted a tempting brown on both top and bottom—not just one side. They are baked in a more convenient, economical size. Two biscuits just fit the cereal bowl—and you get 15 to the package. Naturally, this tasty new biscuit will welcome for breakfast, lunch, children's suppers—any meal, in fact. Ready to serve with milk or cream. Sold by grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
