WOODBURN, June 3- Woodburn people will have plenty of chances to become basehall-minded this weekend, weather permitting. Three games will be played on the Legion diamond. The junior American Legion team will play its first league game Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with

The juniors also play the next day, Sunday, when the well-publicized team from Stayton will furnish the competition. Woodburn's lineup for the games will probably be Evans, third base; Pinett, left field; Landsem, right field; Schwab, shortstop; Oberst. center field; Leffler, pitcher: Saalfeld, first base; Coleman, second base, and Voget, catcher. Landsem may take the mound Sunday instead of Leffler. De-Guire, the boys' coach, has indicated that he has several good pitchers available.

As the Juniors are using the field Sunday afternoon, the local Cascade league team will play in the morning, the game to start probably at 11:30. The team will play Brooks, which is at present leading the league, with Woodburn in second place. If Woodburn wins this game it will probably mean that it also wins the pennant. If Woodburn wins Sunday it will displace Brooks at the head of the column; the only question then will be whether Woodburn can maintain the lead.

Teams Harder hit Than in Past From That Cause: Outlook Uncertain

Willamette university will los 12 lettermen in the various sports by graduation this June. Football will be hit harder than any of the other sports with 10 lettermen passing on and leaving vacancies which will be hard to fill.

Basketball will lose two men, baseball three, track one and tennis two.

With the large number of football men who have completed their college competition, next year's gridiron machine will be composed largely of sophomores. Coach "Spec" Keene stated Friday that it will be another full year before he can hope to have a veteran team. Keith Jones, Walt Erickson, Bob Houck, Wenzel Kaiser and Fred Paul are the only men returning who have been here two or three seasons and the other players are still in line for much seasoning before looming as nament: championship fodder.

who will graduate. In most sports next season the Bearcats will run up against veteran teams in the northwest conference schools. College of Puget Sound will probably have as tough a football team as any in the circuit and in basketball Whitman college will be as strong or stronger than last year. Whitman will also be strong in baseball, having three or four first class pitchers who will return next season.

The Salem Tennis association team will meet the strong Vancouver, Wash., aggregation on the state hospital courts Sunday starting at 10 a. m. This will be the revival of competition between these cities which flourished up to about three years ago.

Vancouver will bring five or six men and possibly seve il women players. Local men who will oppose them will be selected from the top ranking members of the association, who are now rated as follows in the ladder tour-

Mel Goode, French Hagemann, Fred Hagemann, Deryl Myers, Norris Kemp, Ed Raffety and Herbert Hobson. If women's matches are played Edith Starrett, Mrs. Eggleston, Mrs. Eggstaff and Leota Jones will see

When the Salem Senators face the Eugene Townles Sunday, it will be a team under new management which greets the Solons. Chappie King, former Oregon Normal athlete and now University of Oregon luminary and coach of University high, is the new magnate for the Townies. King is thoroughly schooled in the game of baseball, being an infielder and having a wide knowledge of the game. Chapple intends to carry on under the same policy that has been followed there before and with largely the same lineup of players.

Wednesday night the Senators had a practice on Olinger field despite the wet weather. The infield was too mushy for a workout around the bases, but Bashor gave the outfielders a lengthy session of fly-chasing.

The Senators will have Walt Erickson in left field, Scales in center field and Moore and Rogers in right field. Rogers is a good utility infielder and will also be groomed for the outfield as his portsided hitting will doubtless come in handy against southpaw pitchers. Manager Bashor is having the grass in the outfield of Olinger field mowed and plans on having the complete outfield graded before the next home game,
