The Merry Bells of Romance Make Ready To Ring Long and Persistently For This June

Deluge of Weddings, Announcements of Engagements, Pre-Nuptial Affairs Makes the Month Unmistakably June

BRILLIANT indeed are the weddings and prenuptial affairs being made a part of the history of this June. Saturday afternoon had its share of prominence in this history.

Miss Hester Davis, popular member of the younger set in Salem, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis announced her wedding date to Robert S. Cosgrove of Pasadena, Cal., as June 29, at an attractive tea given Saturday afternoon at the home of Judge and Mrs. Percy Kelley, with Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Davis as joint hostesses.

The affair was brilliant both because of the large number of guests calling to welcome Miss Davis back after an absence of a year, and to hear the news of her coming marriage, and because of the charming background of soft lights from candles and many lamps, and the beauty of beautiful flower arrangements in blues and pinks. Great floor baskets, bowls, and graceful vases held these flowers which made a garden effect for the broad spreading living rooms of the Kelley residence.

Miss Dorothy Cornelius met the guests at the door and Mrs. Kelley, Miss Davis and Mrs. Davis received in line. Miss Davis was a lovely figure in a gown of flowered crepe.

Presiding at the tea urns in turn during the afternoon were Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. Harry Belt, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. L. G. Lewelling, Mrs. Walter Worrell, and Mrs. A. Stark, the latter three from Albany.

The table was a delight to the eye with its lace cloth, and center of crystal candelabra holding white tapers and a crystal bowl filled with a graceful arrangement of drooping pink and white blossoms.

Serving were Miss Vernon Perry, Mrs. Harris Lutz, Miss Betty Shipley, Miss Eloise Wright, Miss Eleanor Wright, Miss Leota Beall, Miss Dorothy Bell, and Miss Marjorie Connor.

Musical numbers were given in the course of the afternoon by Mrs. W. J. Minkiewicz, Mrs. Hazel Weing, Mrs. Fred Braley and Glenn Taylor.

The wedding of Miss Jean Middleton to William McCallister of Medford was one of the very large affairs of Saturday night. The service was read in the First Methodist church by Dr. Carl Gregg Doney with Rev. B. Earle Parker assisting.

Soft lights, shadowy forms of many colorful flowers, soft music played by Mrs. Frances DeHarrington, and the beauty of pretty gowns contrasted with the solemn black of the formal attire of the men made this wedding an outstandingly pretty one.

A brilliant reception at the Delta Phi sorority home followed the wedding service. After this Mr. and Mrs. McCallister left by motor for a trip into California. They will return to make their home in Medford by June 15.

Plans for the marriage of Miss Betty Shipley to Judge Donald Templeton of Hillsboro June 9, are also making a busy round of affairs.
