

Henry Jones Faces Hardest Test in Bout With Smertz

UTAH FEUD IS REVIVED HERE

Strong, Tough Matman who Has Beaten Provo King Twice Tries Again

Cranium-cracking Art Smertz of Salt Lake City, Utah will square off with Henry Jones of Provo, Utah tonight at the armory in what promises to be one of the best matched bouts of the wrestling season.

Henry Jones has held the world's welterweight wrestling championship belt in the past and his performances here during the past few years have been enough to convince any skeptic that he is as good as any welterweight who has ever stepped into the local ring.

Art Smertz has never held any world's championship belts, but he has defeated Jones on two occasions and believes that he can do it again.

Plant scoured the country for a grappler who had won from Henry Jones and finally found one in Jones' back yard, or perhaps it is better to say that Jones lives in Smertz' back yard because Salt Lake City is of more prominence than Provo.

It was in Utah that the two first met and now they are carrying their feud over here. In their last meeting there Smertz won the championship of the inter-mountain district.

From all reports he wrestles on the same style as does Jones, but is slightly heavier and stronger. He employs wristlocks and arm bars to perfection and also uses his legs to good advantage, frequently applying head and body scissors.

In the preliminary bout Pete Axman, curly haired matman from Walla Walla, will return in a match with Roughneck Edwards of Salt Lake City. Roughneck Edwards has apparently earned his monicker, but they don't come too tough for Pete Axman and a great preliminary bout is expected. Edwards comes from a good wrestling section and is a veteran ringman.

Time in County Jail Won't Cut Term in Prison

The time spent by prisoners in a county jail prior to their sentence to the state penitentiary can not be deducted from their sentence, Attorney General Van Winkle held in an opinion handed down Monday.

The only authority which the prison officers have to release the prisoner is the expiration of his term, after giving him the good time allowances provided for in the statute, or parole or pardon by the governor, the attorney general stated.

Any consideration of time spent in the county jail must be given at the time of the sentence by the circuit court, Van Winkle concluded.

W. U. Harmonists Please Chamber Luncheon Crowd

If the applause which Willamette University's Philharmonic choir received at the chamber of commerce luncheon yesterday is indicative, that group will have an extra-satisfied feeling when it completes its summer tour through Washington, Idaho and Montana.

The choir is composed of 20 Willamette students, and is directed by Professor Cameron Marshall of the university school of music. The program closed with a "sample" of the repertoire of the school of professional dancing advertising the revue to be given this week.

Greater Oregon Meetings Ended Until Next Fall

The meeting of the Women's Greater Oregon association scheduled for the chamber of commerce for Monday night, June 13, will not be held, announces Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, president.

Mrs. Smith announces no further meeting will be held until early fall, when the association will take up active work in continuing the progressive policies which have characterized the labors of the past year.

HE'LL HAVE LOTS OF FRIENDS

There are a good many fans who would like to see Henry Jones topped, and they will all be at the armory tonight to see if Art Smertz, who appears above, and who also hails from Utah, is the lad who can turn the trick.

DOLLAR CAR GETS IN BERRY FIELDS

WOODBURN, June 6. — A local farmer, a new comer in the district profited considerably, it is generally stated, by an automobile accident which occurred on the highway by his farm late Sunday, when a car owned by Robert Dollar, Jr., San Francisco shipping millionaire.

Dollar, his wife, his secretary, H. E. Thompson and two others were traveling to San Francisco in two automobiles after attending the funeral at Vancouver, B. C., of Melville Dollar, brother of Robert Dollar. The second Dollar car, driven by Thompson, skidded on the wet pavement when a third car, between the two, slowed without signaling.

The skidding car rolled over twice and landed through the fence and into a patch of strawberries on the newcomer's place. Dollar, when he came back to investigate, gave the farmer a substantial sum those who were about say, which sum leads them to declare the farmer made high above market figures on his strawberries.

Thompson was hurt but little. Dollar stopped in Salem to confer with state police who investigated the accident.

Salem, Woodburn Legion Juniors are on Top

Serdotsz and Mates Humble Silverton 9-5; North End Boys Trounce Stayton 31-4

Salem and Woodburn American Legion Junior baseball teams emerged on top after the first skirmish in the county series, each with two games won and none lost. One of these teams will have fallen by next Sunday night, as they meet on Ollinger field that afternoon.

Timely hitting, the top-grade job of hurling turned in by Nick Serdotsz and—yes, a few breaks—gave Salem a 9-to-5 victory over the capable Silverton team here Sunday afternoon. The aforementioned breaks were not all one way, however, and discounting them, Salem would still have won about 4 to 2.

Serdotsz' choice assortment of fast ones and sinkers set down 11 of the Silverton boys on strikes and he allowed no earned runs. However, the fact that one hard-hit drive landed in the pit of Milo Harris' stomach instead of somewhere else, in the first inning, probably robbed Silverton of a couple of earned runs.

On that occasion the bases had been loaded by two hits and a hit batsman, and Scott smacked a terrific one that Harris caught in the bread-basket with his arms folded over it. Neither he nor the base-runner on third knew for a moment where the ball was, but Harris recovered first and trotted to the bag for an unassisted double play, retiring the side.

Silverton didn't score until the sixth when Gorbet was safe on error and Scott tripled to bring the catcher in. Four more, all unearned, came in the seventh. With two on an two down, an error filled the bases and hits by Asboe and Gorbet brought in the runs.

With but a one-run lead, it looked bad for Salem, but a walk, an error and hits by Nicholson and Miller brought in three more runs in the eighth. Serdotsz fanned three men in succession in the eighth and stopped the visitors after Fluke had gotten around to third in the ninth.

Score for Salem vs Silverton: Salem 9, Silverton 5. Pitchers: Serdotsz (S), Mates (S), Silverton (S).

SENATORS LOSE LEAGUE OPENER

Wiltshire, Eugene Pitcher, Has Them Handcuffed; Final Score 5-2

In a mud marred game at Eugene Sunday the Salem Senators grabbed a two run lead over the Townies in the first inning, but went down to a 5 to 2 defeat when they failed to decipher Wiltshire's wrists and curves. This was the opening day of the new state league.

Wiltshire was a bit wild on the mound and allowed four walks. Harvey was sent in to pitch the last innings, but also failed to stem the Eugene batmen.

In spite of mud, the Eugene outfielders had a great day and turned in a number of disheartening circus catches, while several of the Solon outfielders had off days.

Next Sunday the Senators will meet the West Side team of Portland, which won from the Bend Elk at Bend Sunday by a 7 to 5 count. Coach Ray Brooks' West Siders touched two pitchers up for 16 hits in the Bend game, while Fouk held the Lava Bears to only eight safeties.

Manager Frank Bashor did not complain about Sunday's game at Eugene, but stated that hard work was ahead for all and particularly the pitchers.

Score for Senators vs Eugene: Senators 2, Eugene 5. Pitchers: Wiltshire (S), Eugene (S).

BROOKS LOSES TO WOODBURN

Cascade Leadership Seized By North Enders With 9 to 1 Victory

WOODBURN, June 6. — By winning over the Brooks Cascade league team by a score of 9 to 1 Sunday morning, Woodburn's team jumped to the first place in the league standing. Johnny Beck hurled a beautiful game for Woodburn. Woodburn took the lead in the fourth inning, when three runs were scored. Two more were scored in the sixth and four in the eighth.

T. Gird, Brooks' shortstop, who made three of his team's errors, vindicated himself in the ninth inning when he poked a long one over the left field fence for a home run. Outstanding performers Sunday for Woodburn were Beck, Norton and K. Manning. Woodburn made six hits and Brooks five.

The lineups were: Woodburn: Bomhoff, cf; Nehl, 3b; K. Manning, 1b; Brassell, rf; L. Gairin, 2b; D. Manning, ss; H. Gairin, lf; Beck, p; Whitman, 2b; Sims, cf; Hunt, if. Brooks: T. Gird, ss; P. Gird, 2b; L. Gird, 3b; Steiger, 1b; Kalama, if; Adolph, rf; Ramp, cf; Bachelor, c; Sleeple, p; Meacham, c.

NEWBERG — The Newberg Cascade league baseball team got 16 hits to eight by Mt. Angel, but won only 8 to 7 here Sunday, Walton kept the locals' hits well scattered.

TURNER — Lebanon's star hurler Schmitz, struck out 16 men and allowed only seven hits, but errors and the elements brought a win for Turner here Sunday.

The locals were outthit by Lebanon, but timely hitting brought a one point margin. Each team committed three errors.

FALLS CITY, June 6. — Woodburn got club's 20-man team lost its second home-and-home match in four years Sunday at McMinnville, when their hosts beat them 4 to 2 on their home course.

CURT COMMENTS

Out at the Legion Junior game Sunday we sat near some Silverton fans and learned that Silverton really had a better team than Woodburn, only the breaks went the wrong way Saturday in the opening game. No kidding, it might very well be. Silverton has a nice, smooth-working infield and a pretty good hitting club, even if Serdotsz did mow a few of them down. He's done that to older fellows.

However, we haven't a doubt that those same people went home fully convinced that their team was also better than Salem's—and once again we won't quarrel with them. It may be. But Silverton didn't deserve to win Sunday's game, either on the basis of "breaks" or earned runs, or giving it the benefit of both those considerations.

Silverton didn't earn any runs off Serdotsz, but "breaks" perhaps robbed it of two. However, the breaks were all the other way later on, as they have a habit of being.

There's one play that has to be explained, because we don't believe many fans got the idea. Salstrom of Salem sacrificed, was thrown out at first without a chance of making it, but the umpire waved him to take the base. That was because the Silverton catcher had run into Salstrom and pushed him with his hands, and it was the only possible ruling even though he wouldn't have been safe even though there had been no interference.

We heard some fans saying the junior ball wasn't so high class this year. Before you say that, stop and consider that the last junior ball you saw was played by all-star county teams, not local teams perhaps only one-fourth as strong. With three strong teams in the county, a high class team will result from the consolidation after the county race is decided.

"Wild Men" of the Big Leagues

By HARDIN BURNLEY

"WILD MEN" OF THE PITCHING MOUND! "WILD WILL" HALLAHAN-- WHO EQUALLED THE BIG LEAGUE RECORD OF 3 WILD PITCHES IN ONE INNING RECENTLY!

WASHINGTON PITCHERS GAVE OUT 16 WALKS IN A RECENT GAME--THE WILDEST PITCHING SEEN IN YEARS. AT LEAST THEY AIN'T GETTIN' HITS!!

SOUTHPAWS ARE SUPPOSED TO BE WILDER THAN RIGHTEANDERS--YET PENNOCK--AN SOUTHPAW--IS THE GREATEST MASTER OF CONTROL! LEFTY GROVE-- LIKE MANY SOUTHPAWS GROVE WAS VERY WILD WHEN HE FIRST CAME UP!

When someone says "Wild Man," scholars think of Borneo. But baseball bugs react to stimuli much nearer home. The wild men of baseball have long had their proper part in the seasonal game. But not in a long time have they grabbed off the spotlight as they did in the early weeks of this current baseball season.

In one game, between the Senators and Yankees recently, the Washington pitchers handed out sixteen bases on balls. This was dismissed by the fans as smart strategy, since the big guns of the Yank attack, Ruth, Gehrig, Dickey, Lazzari and the others had been hitting everything that had been served up to them. This was one way to make sure that they got no more than one base at a time, anyway.

But in St. Louis, the famous "Wild Bill" Hallahan, 1931 World Series luminary, earned the down's cap and a place in the books by equaling the record for wild pitches in one inning. No less than three times Binghamton Bill heaved the pellet far out of reach of Jimmy Wilson, the Cardinal catcher.
