Younger Set Has Gay Dancing Party

A brilliant affair was the very large dancing party given Monday night at the Haunted Mill and which was attended by over 400 of the younger sets of Salem.

The Haunted Mill lent just the proper background for the decorative and the enchanted forest. Entrance to the hall was made through a long lane of green boughs and ferns. At one corner of the hall was a small bridge in a forest background. The orchestra pit was arranged with a background of an old castle and forest. The punch bowl at which presided Miss Dorothy Engel and Alice Ann Wirtz looking forest gnomes, was arranged to represent a well in a forest. Another youthful helper, Donald Blaisdell, assisted in the check room.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Engel, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wirtz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baldock, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yokum.

Those in charge of arrangements were Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Betty-Mae Hartung, Miss Frances Park, Miss Jeanette Park, Miss Velma May, Miss Rosalie Nusbbaum, Miss Doris McCallister, Miss Wilma Wirtz, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Marie Stutesman, Miss Jeanne Lunsford, Miss Louise Cramer, Miss Betty Vaughn, and Miss Fern Harris.

New York Visitor Expected Soon

After an absence of four years Miss Naomi Phelps is expected to return this weekend from New York city where she has been studying and acting as head of the artists bureau for the federation of churches in New York city. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps and the granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Poling.

In addition to her studies in voice Miss Phelps has been appearing over the radio twice a week and has been giving television broadcasts. For the past six months she has also been active in the little theatre circles of New York city.

Miss Phelps is being accompanied west by Miss Imogene Gardner, advertising manager for the church federation paper. The travelers are making the trip by automobile and have been visiting enroute.

Miss Elizabeth Waters Leaves Soon For East

Miss Elizabeth Waters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Waters, who has been visiting her from New York city and Boston, will leave soon than she expected in order to take work at the Perry Mansfield camp in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, where summer school work is being given.

Miss Waters, talented young dancer who has won much favorable mention in the east, was to have presented a program of dance here before her departure but this will not be possible now. She has vague plans of returning to Salem following her work in Colorado and before returning to her study and teaching in New York and Boston. If this is possible she may give the much anticipated program at that time.

The last meeting of the year for their card club was planned to be a picnic Saturday night at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise, when members of the club meet at the home of Mrs. Charles G. Robertson, Jr., Monday afternoon. The Monday meeting was an attractive luncheon followed with an afternoon of cards. Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry held the winning score for the afternoon.

Members of Willamette Aerle and Auxiliary No. 2081 Fraternal Order of Eagles are anticipating an exceptionally interesting meeting tonight at Fraternal temple at which time officers for the year will be installed. Officers of Portland aerle and Auxiliary will be in attendance as well as their drill teams.

The members of Knight Memorial church and those of the First Christian church are interested in the play "Listen Ladies" which is being presented tonight at the Knight Memorial church and tomorrow night at the First Christian church. Members of the missionary committee of the Memorial church and of the Mary and Martha circle of the Christian church have cooperated in the production of the play.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Poling and family of Bloomfield, New Jersey, are expected to arrive in Salem the last of June for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Poling, and other relatives. Mr. Poling will visit with her parents, also. Mrs. Poling will be accompanied by Mabel Grant. Both attended Willamette University.

It is requested that anyone wanting to go by bus to attend the Corvallis G. A. R. convention to be held there June 21, 22, 23, will please make reservations with Mrs. Mary Wirtz. If 18 people sign up for the bus one will be chartered.

W. C. T. U. Makes Plans For Future

A report of the executive committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union showed that plans had been made to place Mrs. Neola Buck into the field as a campaign worker before the fall elections. Plans were also discussed for greeting Miss Helen Byrne, national field worker in Young People's work who is expected to arrive in Salem in August.

Reports were also made from various other committees. Rev. G. W. Payne appeared on the program as a speaker on "Prohibition," and Miss Jessie Martin presented two readings, "What-Parade" and "Beer will Balance the Budget" as an amusing feature of the afternoon program. Mrs. J. W. Beackley had charge of the devotions.

Group singing of campaign songs was enjoyed as a conclusion to the program. It was announced that the next meeting would be "flower mission" day and at the time flowers will be sent to the hospitals. Mrs. Rachel Reader has charge of this.

Young Student Home For Summer Months

Miss Thelma Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis, arrived in Salem Tuesday from Philadelphia, where she has been studying voice for the past year.

Miss Davis attended the graduation exercises at her Alma Mater, Oregon State college, from which she graduated last year. She was affiliated with the Sigma Kappa sorority and was president of the Euterpe, woman's honorary musical sorority as well as a member of the Madrigal Club. With these various connections in the college Miss Davis enjoyed a happy reunion day.

Miss Davis has been making her home with Dr. and Mrs. Monroe Everett in Philadelphia. She has been studying privately with Horatio Connell, instructor in Curtis Institute of Music.

Miss Davis and Dr. and Mrs. Everett motored west in six days. Dr. and Mrs. Everett will spend most of the summer in Portland. The trio plan to return to Philadelphia in August. Miss Davis will resume her work with Mr. Connell upon her return to Philadelphia.

P. E. O. Chapters Have Picnic Luncheon

A charming meeting for P. E. O. chapters was the joint meeting of Chapter Y of McMinnville and Chapter G of Salem at the home of Mrs. C. K. Logan, Chapter G president, Tuesday afternoon.

A 12:30 picnic luncheon was enjoyed in the living rooms of the Logan home and the afternoon was spent in informal visiting and conversation.

Luncheon was served at small tables over which were spread organdie cloths in pastel shades. Spring flowers and harmonizing tapers completed a pretty decorative effect. Covers were placed for 36 guests.

Mrs. Harold Hughes had charge of the arrangements and was assisted by a large number of Chapter G members.

Mrs. Carson Hostess To Gamma Phi Beta

Mrs. John Carson was hostess to members of the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae association at her home Monday afternoon. Bridge was in play for several hours with Mrs. Hollis Huntington winning high score.

Present were Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Maragot Sims, Miss Betty Shipley and Mrs. Carson.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

With its suave simplicity of line and individuality of detail, this frock is decidedly stunning. The raglan sleeves are new, chic and by the way, very easy to handle. Then, too, the diagonal bodice closing so daintily trimmed with lace is most attractive. Skirt flares join their yokes quite high and create a most becoming line. This model is equally smart in silk or cotton print.

Pattern 2287 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39-inch fabric, 1/2 yard of lace.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. Your summer wardrobe can be planned easily and inexpensively with the assistance of our current 22-page fashion catalog. The best of the season's afternoon, sports and evening frocks, lingerie, blouse dresses and kiddie's models all personally chosen by Anne Adams, are made available through this beautiful book. Send for copy today. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern sent free on receipt of five cents. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Patterns Department, 221 West 17th Street, New York City.

Miss Rhea Huber Is Married

Monmouth—Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the marriage at 3 o'clock this afternoon of Miss Rhea Mae Huber, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Huber, to Elvyn Hill of Rickreall, which event took place at the home of the bride's parents in Monmouth.

Miss Huber was lovely in white organdy and carried a shower of pink and orchid sweet peas, white carnations and pink rosebuds. Miss Ila Huber, sister of the bride was her bridesmaid, and wore cream lace and carried saffron color and pink rosebuds. Delbert Price of Rickreall was best man. The bridal party stood before an altar of mock orange and columbine in pastel shades.

Dr. C. H. Dunsmore of Independence read the service before members of the two families and a small group of friends.

Miss Huber is a native of Monmouth, and was graduated Friday night from the local high school. Mr. Hill is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill of Rickreall. After a trip to the coast the young couple will be at home at Rickreall where Mr. Hill is engaged in the contracting business with his father.

War Mothers Make Annual Meeting Plans

Plans for the annual gathering of the four Oregon War Mothers' chapters, Waverly Heights, Portland chapter, Albany chapter and chapter No. 1 of Salem, were made at the regular meeting of the Salem chapter at the American Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. A. Lee, state first vice president, is in charge of the program which will be ready for announcement soon.

The meeting will be held in Champego, June 19. It is an annual social get-together for the organizations.

In addition to this reports were made by the various committees, and two new members were initiated. Mrs. Mudd and Mrs. Remington.

This was the last meeting of the season for the chapter.
