Farewell to Pastor—The membership of the Evangelical church here and as many other friends as care to join, will gather at the church parlors tonight at 8 o'clock to extend a farewell to Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Poling. Dr. Poling has been pastor here the past year, and at the general conference in Portland last week was given the position of evangelist. They will move to Portland next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Hard Times' Not—"Talk about hard times here! They are nothing to the oil fields in California," declared W. O. Edwards, former Salem traffic officer, who is visiting friends and his brother, Walter D. Edwards, of the fire department, and other relatives. The visitor has been working in the oil fields around Long Beach, Calif. He left his position as state penitentiary guard here nine months ago.

Low Rent—Small shops—Suitable barber, she-repair, meat, confectionery, etc. Rents $10 to $20 month. Also car lot with office. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High Street.

Flophouse Patronized—Many transients again are going to the city hall flophouse for night's lodging and meals. Chief of Police Minto accounts for the number of "panhandlers" on the streets by the fact that the wanderers have not learned that this service has been resumed, because the "hotel" was closed down for several days last month.

Quick work, reasonable prices on berry tickets at The Statesman printing office, 215 South Commercial.

Accidents Scarce—Automobile accidents were scarce in the city yesterday. Only a minor mishap occurred, when a car operated by George E. Brant, 370 East Lincoln street, struck an open door on a car driven by B. M. Donaldson, 475 North Front, on North Commercial.

Spa ice cream made the old fashioned way and from pure cream.

Says Not Guilty—Fred W. Dixon, charged with non-support, was returned here yesterday from Portland where he was arrested Monday. He entered plea of not guilty in justice court, and asked for preliminary hearing this morning at 10 o'clock. He is in jail in lieu of raising $500 bail.

Births
To Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ruse, 290 North 18th street, a boy, Fritz John, born May 18 at Salem general hospital.

Will Upheld—An order sustaining the will of the late J. A. White, and overruling the claim of Roy White, Charles White and Alberta White, contestants, was entered yesterday in probate court here. Charles G. Miller, executor of the will, upheld it in probate court. The document originally was admitted to probate June 4, 1930, but carrying out of the executor's work has been delayed by the litigation. Personal property valued at $600 and real property valued at $1800 is involved in the will.

Husband Failed to Provide—Mrs. Grayce Bracken, in a suit for divorce filed here yesterday, declared that her husband provided her with a pass to come to Oregon to visit her mother in 1931, then did not arrange to have the pass extended so she could go back to their home in Waterloo, Iowa. Instead he wrote to her to inform her he no longer cared for her. Mrs. Bracken charges in her complaint. She now asks a divorce from him and the custody of their child. Bracken is a railroad man.

Wants Divorce—Suit for divorce was filed here yesterday by Sarah A. Martin who seeks a decree from O. F. Martin to whom she was married October 5, 1925, in Astoria. She claims that he has on several occasions struck her and that on May 3, 1932, he pointed a gun at her. She asks that land she owned prior to her marriage be declared to be hers and that she be paid $10 a month alimony.

Estate Valued—The estate of the late Elizabeth G. Loughbridge was appraised at $3875 yesterday in a valuation filed in probate court here. Appraisers included R. J. Simpson, William Pennington and E. J. Roth. Executors of the estate are E. A. Miller and D. D. Socolofsky.

West Files Costs—Ben F. West, candidate for the office of county assessor, spent $17.39 in his campaign for the republican nomination. His expenditure list filed yesterday shows. West did not include his $20 filing fee.

Berry tickets; printed at The Statesman plant.

Asks Dismissal—An answer to the complaint of David W. Corbin was filed in court here yesterday by Esther G. Corbin, who asks that the case be dismissed for lack of cause.

Riggs Pays City $4—E. H. Riggs of Salem paid Municipal Judge Poulson $4 yesterday for time for having parked his car overtime. No other fines were assessed during the day.

ALASKA LADS SEND NEWSPAPER COPIES

The three Alaska lads with journalistic inclinations who were mentioned in a Statesman article several months ago have written to this paper, thanking for the publicity and enclosing two issues of their mimeographed newspaper, The Weekly Herald, which they publish at Chitina, Alaska.

"We inclose a few recent issues which we hope will help educate you on Alaska, which is what so many people in the States seem to like," the young publishers wrote. The three boys, grade school age, are: Adrian C. Nelson, editor; William A. Moore, circulation manager, and Philip C. Nelson, reporter.

WINSLOW TO TALK FOR CREDIT GROUP

Walter C. Winslow, local attorney, will tell the Salem Credit association this noon something of his experiences in 1912 when he was in charge of the credit reorganized through the Business Men's League, of which he was secretary.

He will tell how the present credit reporting bureau, with over 53,000 names in the files and an office force of five persons, compares with the credit department he had 20 years ago. Oscar Steelhammer, county assessor, and who was secretary of the league during 1919 and 1920, will also be a guest, as will Henry W. Meyers, who was one of the originators of the Salem Business Men's league.

The Credit association meets each Wednesday noon at the Gray Belle.

McGrew Brutal Spouse Alleges
William McGrew of Silverton was haled into justice court here yesterday upon complaint of his wife, who charges that he hits and chokes her. McGrew pleaded not guilty to assault and battery, and preliminary hearing was set for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. He is in the county jail. Bail is $100.

PRECINCT CHIEFS SELECTED BY LOT

Tie Elections of Committee Members are Decided Here Monday

Seven precinct committeemen and three democratic precinct committeemen were picked Monday by deputies of the county clerk, acting under the election laws which provide that in case of a tie, the winning candidate for an office shall be determined by lot.

The contests arose in this county in precincts where all names were written in for a precinct office and consequently only a few votes were cast for each person. Under the law the candidates are supposed to draw but only one appeared yesterday so Ethel N. Niles and Henry Mattison, deputy county clerks, determined by their drawings who the winners would be.

The winners: Horeb: George Spencer won over George A. McCurdy, republican.

Shaw: L. Keene won over G. I. Putnam, republican.

Turner: H. Barber won over Waldo Riches and Ed Powers, democratic.

Salem No. 2: Carl Armprest won over L. J. Simeral, republican.

Silver Falls: J. C. Strom won over Alford Peterson, republican.

Salem No. 3: W. W. Chadwick won over John Hunt, republican.

Salem No. 22: William McGilchrist, over A. S. Campbell, George H. Riches and W. C. Winslow, republican.

West Stayton: P. A. Stevens won over Paul T. McClellan, democratic.

Fairgrounds: C. H. Talmage won over F. O. Johnson and W. G. Pearline, republican.

South Silverton: Charles Meyer won over J. D. Davenport, democratic.

MELVIN UNRUH DIES RESULT OF INJURY

Melvin Linn Unruh, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Unruh, 148 East Miller street, died at Salem general hospital yesterday morning from complications resulting from a broken leg which he suffered last Friday. Death came before the parents could arrive at his bedside.

While playing in a tree near his home Friday, the lad fell 20 feet to the ground. He suffered a compound fracture of one leg. The bone splinters pierced the skin in three places and severed an artery. It is believed that a blood clot formed from this injury and passed to the heart.

Surviving are the parents, one brother, Robert, and sister, Donna, of Salem.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Evangelical church, Marion and Summer street, with Dr. C. C. Poling officiating. Arrangements are in charge of the Terwilliger Funeral home.

Library Session To Open June 30 At Rainier Park

Copies of the program of the Pacific Northwest Library association which will hold its 23rd annual conference at Mt. Rainier on June 30, July 1 and 2, have been received here. Miss Harriet C. Long, state librarian, is chairman of the section for Oregon which will review the work of last year and forecast this year's work. She also is chairman of the county libraries section.

On the program are librarians from public and college libraries. E. B. MacNaughton of Portland will discuss the problem of library finances under current conditions.

Cherrians Will Meet at Dinner On Friday Night

Cherrians will meet for dinner at the Gray Belle restaurant at 6:15 o'clock Friday night, King Bing Gus Hixson announced yesterday. At this time, final plans will be made for the Cherrian drill team's participation in the Rose Festival parade at Portland on June 17.

The team practiced at the armory last night and will do so again after the Friday night meeting.

WHAT'S IN STORE FOR POPEYE?

MANY STRANGE THINGS HAPPEN ABOARD THE "BLUE SQUID"—HERE IS JUST ONE OF THE PECULIAR SITUATIONS—IMPOSSIBLE? HA! NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE ABOARD THIS OLD SAILING VESSEL—GET THIS—THERE IS ONLY ONE POPEYE IN THE WHOLE WORLD—YOU THINK YOU SEE TWO POPEYES BUT YOU ONLY SEE ONE—ALL WILL BE SATISFACTORILY EXPLAINED IF YOU FOLLOW "THE EIGHTH SEA"—FEAR

There can't be two POPEYES... any one who has followed the adventures of the grand old sailor knows that he defies imitation or duplication. Yet there are two POPEYES here before you? How come? That's one of the secrets that E. C. Segar will reveal in the side-splitting picture-story that gets under way June 12 in the world-famous comic, THIMBLE THEATRE STARRING POPEYE. Watch for it in The Oregon Statesman.

Under the Dome...

JUST as we feared, as soon as we heard there was an earthquake in California we knew somehow that Wayne Pettit was there. First it was reported it was at San Francisco, then the report was that it was at Eureka. Then yesterday comes a story with a Pettit by-line telling of his experiences in the quake. Some newshounds have all the luck.

Lester Adams, candidate for mayor in Portland, and prior to his campaign for this office a member of the newspaper profession, was a visitor at the capitol yesterday. Adams was accompanied by Mrs. Adams and Morton J. Donoghue of the Pacific Greyhound lines.

Some good looking lady called up Ed Rosten yesterday and informed him she read in this column of some of his activities, and thereupon congratulated him. Ed says he was unable to learn her name, but knew she was good looking by her voice. Some people, like some newshounds, also have all the luck.

And just as we were leaving the press room last night in comes Max Gehlhar, director of agriculture, with a copy of a letter he wrote to W. W. Ridehalgh, supervisor of transportation, or in other words expense account sleuth, telling him how his department travels. The state maximum of the daily average.

Max's letter to Ridehalgh reported that during the past four months the expense account of his employees who travel totaled $2.87 per day. That is considerably lower than the $3.65 limit placed by the board of control. The next move of Ridehalgh, working through Rufus Holman, state treasurer, would no doubt be to bring the maximum down to $3.00 or less.

Reports are current that Roy Byrd, superintendent of the state feeble minded institution, has taken up golf, and taken it up so seriously that he had neglected his old fishing haunts. Yesterday it was further reported he beat a veteran of several years of the links, and Roy has been playing but a few months. For further verification ask Joseph Adolph of the firm of Rostein & Adolph.

But getting back to Gehlhar's report on expense items. After he removed himself from the statehouse, others interested in his letter tried to explain how it could be possible. But first, let's give a resume of his report. He states that his four daily items average up as follows: breakfast 41 1-2 cents, lunch 49 1-4 cents, dinner 56 cents and rooms $1.41 a night.

ISAAC LYNCH DIES OF HEART TROUBLE

Isaac Lynch, 73, well known here where he resided until moving to Pacific City four or five years ago, died suddenly at his coast home yesterday morning. It was learned here when three daughters who reside here were summoned.

Mr. Lynch, apparently in best of health, had gone outdoors to feed the chickens, and when he failed to return searchers found him dead. Heart failure was the cause.

Mr. Lynch had spent much of his life in Salem. Mrs. Lynch, who survives, was formerly police matron here. He owned considerable property in Salem.

Besides the widow, he leaves four daughters, Mrs. John Graber, Mrs. A. B. Browning and Mrs. Frank Mapes, all of Salem, and Mrs. Lester Stiffler, now of San Francisco.

Remains will be brought to the Rigdon funeral home here, from which announcement will be made later.

Firemen Going To Convention At Corvallis

A number of Salem firemen are expected to attend sessions of the Oregon Fire Chiefs' association convention which began at Corvallis yesterday and will end Friday. Chief Harry R. Hutton attended yesterday. A maximum of six men on the off shift are permitted to leave the city for this purpose.

Coming Events

June 11-13—Commencement exercises at Willamette university.
June 14-17—State grange convention, Silverton.
June 19—Salem Old Times picnic, Willson park.
June 26—Missouri state picnic.
July 4—Independence day celebration sponsored by American Legion, state fairgrounds.
August 7—Ohio "Buckeye" picnic.
August 7-21—Annual Chequameconic outing at Spirit Lake.
August 14—Dakota picnic.

Phillip Parsons To Talk Before Club Federation

While enroute to Portland Tuesday, Dr. Phillip A. Parsons of the University of Oregon stopped in Salem to confer with officials of the Marion County Federation of Community clubs with reference to his appearance at a meeting of representatives of all the clubs in the county to be held in the Salem chamber of commerce Friday night, June 17.

The meeting on this date takes the place of one announced for June 9, but postponed because Dr. Parsons found it conflicted with another arrangement. Representatives of all community clubs in the county are asked to be present on the 17th to discuss plans for the big picnic to be held on Labor Day and also hear the plans outlined by Dr. Parsons for a survey of all the clubs in the county during the summer months.

WHITEHOUSE WILL GO BOHEMIAN NOW

The old Whitehouse restaurant, recently a victim of ill fortune, soon will be opened as the Salem Bohemian restaurant under ownership and management of Edward W. O'Neil and Fred E. Scheel from the noted Bohemian restaurant of Portland. The Whitehouse is being thoroughly renovated, the downstairs partition removed and rows of tables substituted for the center booths, in preparation for the opening late this week or early next.

The two owners, bakers of repute over the Pacific coast, will bring with them a chef from Henry Thiele's, Portland, who for a number of years previously was employed at the Bohemian. In order to provide a fine assortment of pastries and breads, O'Neil and Scheel plan to install their own bakery in the restaurant.

Fountain service will be offered under supervision of an experienced fountain man.

R. E. "Ray" Price, graduate of Oregon State college and former restaurant operator there, has come here to take over the duties of service manager. Opening date of the Salem Bohemian will be announced soon.
