Interest Lags, Half Recent Gains Lost But Move is Deemed Technical

NEW YORK, June 7-(AP)-Interest in stocks lagged today and the markets sold off, closing on a base that represented cancellation of not quite half last week's advance.

It was a leisurely decline and Wall street still labeled it technical, finding more significant the strong undertone of bonds and the dollar's ability to improve in terms of foreign monies. American Tobacco "B" and Ligget & Myers "B" were down approximately 3 points. Drug,

American Telephone, Macy, General Foods, Delaware & Hudson, Norfolk & Western, First Nationa! stores and a few Preferreds lost about 2 or more, while in U. S. Steel, National Biscuit, Westinghouse, Union Carbide, Consolidated Gas, Public Service of New Jersey, American Can, Allied Chemical, New York Central and Southern Pacific losses ranged from 1011/2. Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit slumped 3 but the Preferred steadled. Auburn was rather active, losing 2 points at the worst. Announcement of a regular quarterly dividend came just at the close.

Regat Pacific poultry producers' sell- Butter Shortage Held Likely; Decrease Of Make Noted

PORTLAND, June 7 .- (AP)-With the decreasing make of butter, fear is now expressed that a real shortage of fresh churning will be shown within a short time. A survey suggests that while the grass appears green and of good quality, the ground is as hard as a bone, which means that grazing operations will soon be greatly curtailed. That usually means a further decrease in the output of butterfat, and butter.

There was no further change in the price of either for the day. More than passing weakness is reflected in the market for light weight hens with 8 to 9c lb, the general buying prices

Light broilers are also weak. Turkeys are in call but at the extreme low price.

Wholesalers cut the price of strawberries Tuesday to conform to the lower values forced on the primary market. Sales are not generally above 75c crate with the bulk below that.
