Three Runs Behind in 8th; Infield Pop-up Puts Climax on Battle

COAST LEAGUE... Portland 4, Seattle 3...

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—Fred Berger's little infield pop-up that fell safe of Fred Muller because the Seattle infield was drawn in with one out and the bases full in the eleventh inning, gave Portland the winning run in a wild see-saw game here today.

Portland managed to pull out 7 to 6, but used four pitchers to do it. On the other hand, Seattle went down to defeat with only one pitcher, Hal Hald, occupying the mound, although he was wobbly in the closing innings.

The Ducks overcame a 5 to 2 Seattle lead with a four-run rally in the eighth, forging a run into the lead, but Seattle rallied with a tying tally in the ninth.

Washington county took first place with 127 students qualifying while Clackamas came second with 292 votes.

Sarazen With Spectacular Rally Leads British Open Field; Four Close Behind

By FRANK H. KING SANDWICH, England, June 8.

The spectacular spurt of Britain's youth faded today before the grand golf of a chunky New York professional, Gene Sarazen, and the United States once more took command of the British open championship.

Leaving the shooting of 69s to such youngsters as Don Curtis and Eric McRivie in the qualifying rounds, Sarazen opened the throttle wide in the first round of the championship proper today, hammered out a brilliant 70, four strokes under par for Prince's long and difficult layout, and led the field of 109 by a single stroke.

Playing as if every stroke meant the title, Sarazen went out in 35 strokes, one under par, and then came back with another 35, three under par, finishing with two birdies to lead the perennial Scotch-American contender, MacDonald Smith, and three British pros, Percy Alliss, W. H. "Willie" Davies and Charles Whitcombe, by a stroke.

There were six 73s in the first round of the 72-hole medal play, sixteen 74s and sixteen 75s, and among the latter was Tommy Armour, defending champion and third of America's major hopes.

Apparently beaten off in his chance to lead the field, Sarazen came down to the finish four holes, the last and most difficult, needing two birdies and as many pars to get his 70. Par for the stretch is 4-4-5-5 and Sarazen scored 4-4-4-4.

Hubert Ashby, who has been playing infield positions for the Salem Senators in recent games, will be moved to the outfield for Sunday's State League game against the West Side team from Portland, Manager Frank Bashor announced Wednesday.

Ashby has been hitting like a house afire and shifting him to the garden will enhance the team's power at bat, while Gribble, Hibbard, Kitcher and Adams will compose a speedy infield combination. Ashby and Kitcher probably tie, but Kitcher probably ousted by the new arrangement.

The Senators will play the penitentiary team Saturday afternoon to wind up a strenuous week of practice. They are "all hopped up" over the coming game which is expected to be one of the hardest of the season.

"Squeak" Wilson will probably be called upon to start on the mound against West Side, as a number of the ex-Legion Juniors whom Ray Brooks has collected are portable swingers.

A benefit dance for the ball club will be given at the Mellow Moon next Wednesday night through an arrangement offered by Ciel Thomas, manager of the dance pavilion.

Several of the men who appeared here with the Albany-Jefferson Cascade league team a couple of Sundays ago will join the Alcos, among them Wilkinson, Hecker, McClain, Lansing, Dowling, Patterson and Blackwell.

A further threat contained in the Albany roster is the pitching staff which will include, it's said, Al Brown who engaged Andy Peterson in several super-mound duels two summers ago but didn't quite make the Coast League grade this spring; Lefty Woodard from Oregon last year, and Johnny Beck. Beck has a habit of being reported as signed up with half a dozen clubs at a time, but he may be with the Alcos at that.

Johnny Steelhammer, who played first base for Willamette at one time and later for Oregon Normal, will get a tryout in that position with the Alcos. He played with The Dalles early this season.

CURT COMMENTS

Mrs. [Name] is suffering from a nervous breakdown... and under the care of a physician... from an item in Capital Journal.

Eugene papers report that Dave Eyre, Salem's leading banker-golfer, won one of the prizes in the Oregon Bankers' association tournament, but neglected to tell what the prize was or what contest he won.

Frank M. Beer of Hubbard has been selected to coach athletics in Grants Pass high school, succeeding Leonard B. Mayfield who has been signed up for a similar job at Oregon City high. Beer, who gained his education and athletic acumen partly at Willamette university but also at Oregon State, University of Oregon and Oregon Normal, was selected from among 85 candidates because of his excellent record at Aberdeen, Idaho, and Castle Rock, Wash.

The Albany Alcos didn't get started in State league play last Sunday, but will make their bow next Sunday, entertaining the Eugene Townies at Albany. Red Ruppert will boss the Alcos again, and will have the same team that, according to the Albany paper, won the independent championship of Oregon last year. That's an item we don't recall, but anyway Ruppert's "home guards" will be strong as usual.

Several of the men who appeared here with the Albany-Jefferson Cascade league team a couple of Sundays ago will join the Alcos, among them Wilkinson, Hecker, McClain, Lansing, Dowling, Patterson and Blackwell.

FURTHER INROADS MADE ON ADVANCE

NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—Stocks made heavier drafts on last week's gains today and when the market closed little more than a point of that advance remained.

Trading was quiet, but failure of support to appear during the third successive day of declining prices somewhat disconcerted promoters who watch for technical break-throughs. Bonds eased, yet maintained a relatively steady undertone.

Trade news was on the debit side. Foreign exchanges were firmer for a time but tended to favor dollars in the latter dealings.

Weakness of Brooklyn-Manhattan stocks imposed a drag on the market from the start. Common shares slumped 4 points and the preferred issue flopped 10. American Telephone softened appreciably in the last hour when it broke through the old low, closing 3 1/2 down. Pacific Telephone lost 5. Western Union 2 5-8, Peoples Gas 5 and Consolidated Gas of New York 3.

Elsewhere, Santa Fe sagged 2. Union Pacific 2 3-4, New York Central 1 1-4 and Norfolk & Western 5. U. S. Steel duplicated its low at 25 1-4 but cut its loss moderately, finishing 1 3-4 down. American Can, Bethlehem, Case, Allied Chemical, Woolworth, Westinghouse, American Tobacco "B," National Biscuit, General Foods, and Du Pont were off 5 to slightly more than 2. Volume totaled 975,200 shares, the largest this week.
