STAYTON, June 11-Allen S. Davie, age 58, died Thursday morning at the Veterans hospital in Portland, where he had been for the past two weeks. His death was due to a complication of allments.

He was born in Stayton March 24, 1874, the son of Jim and Sarah Davie. He was named for his grandfather, one of the real pioneers of Oregon. He enlisted during the Spanish-American war and was thereby entitled to the services of the veterans hospital.

For several years he and his family resided in Astoria, returning to Stayton about ten years ago, where he has since conducted a pool hall.

He is survived by his widow, Addie, a son Fred; his mother, Mrs. Sarah Davie, a brother, George of this place; two brothers. Victor and Norman and a sister, Mrs. Candace Gilbert all of Portland and another sister, Mrs. Alice Pressler of Los Angeles.
