

NEW ELECTIONS ARE GOING OUT

Tax Leaguers Claim 40,000 Names Were Obtained Before Revision

(Continued from page 1) consolidation program in 33 counties in the state. Unless Burdette is muzzled he will not support the three-fold program of the governor.

Most of the money thus far obtained has been through volunteer workers and the largest amount paid for each signature has been five cents. Ramage stated he attacked the board of higher education for taking part in the fight, declared it had no authority to spend money on the issue. Ramage said he had facts to show that the traveling expenses and time of university professors had already been paid by the state when those men went out to speak against consolidation.

Compromise Offers To Have No Effect All offers of compromise are futile as far as the Marion County tax leaguers are concerned, he indicated. A shakeup in the personnel of the board of higher education would do no good now, Ramage indicated. Discontent with the board's policies is very widespread throughout the state, but the fundamental way to obviate it is to consolidate the two major schools on the campus at Corvallis.

HIGHER EDUCATION FUND-POLICY FIXED

(Continued from page 1) The recommendation was accepted that certain policies should be determined by the people through legislative action rather than by faculty and board of higher education decision as is now practiced. Policies mentioned included such as student body fees, professional schools which should be self supporting beyond undergraduate work.

The Call Board

By OLIVY M. DOAK Warner Bros. Elsinore Today—Joan Crawford in "Lety Lynton". The Grand Today—George O'Brien, Sally Eilers in "A Holy Terror". The Hollywood Today—Gary Cooper, Claudette Colbert in "His Woman".

"Lety Lynton," with Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery in the principal roles, is the attraction today at Warner Bros. Elsinore. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sensational filmization of Marie Belloc Lowndes novel is an intriguing drama of modern morals with a vivid climax in which the heroine is faced with the choice of loss of reputation or prison.

Once more George O'Brien rides his handsome black charger, "Mike," this time in "A Holy Terror," the Fox outdoor romance, directed by Irving Cummings, and showing today at the Grand theatre. O'Brien rode "Mike" in "Last of the Duanes," "Lone Star Ranger" and "Fair Warning," and the big black appears to enjoy the work.

Mickey Mouse NOTES

Well, it's almost all settled that we're going to have a Mickey Mouse breakfast party—with donuts, oranges and milk. The date has not been set, but it will be soon. M. M. C. Did you hear the public address broadcast last Saturday?—If you were asking me, little Joan Frigard stole the show, although every entertainer did exceedingly well.

PROSPERITY IS LIKE PARKIN' SPACE

There is always plenty of it for the feller that gets there first... That's what Uncle Churchmouse says, and he is right.

Remember the Mickey Mouse Club is your club, and what you say goes, so let's hear some suggestions.

Those tricks the Hildiny did last Saturday were something! I still don't know how he made those things disappear. We'll have him perform for us again soon.

Alice Ann Wirt, and the Haywire Symphony, furnished the rest of the program.

Missouri Picnic Plans Talked at Conference Here

Holt Stockton of Sheridan, secretary of the state Missouri association, was in Salem Thursday in conference with E. W. Harland, president of the association, concerning the annual state picnic which is being planned for June 26 at the municipal auto park.

CHICHESTERS PILLS

PINCH OF NEW TAX LEVIES IS LOOMING

Manufacturers' Excise Will Become Effective in Next Three Days

(Continued from page 1) The new manufacturers' taxes will be felt locally although in less obvious manner than the direct stamp taxes. For example, gasoline will probably go up one cent as a new one-cent federal tax goes into effect June 21. The tax, however, will be paid by the refiners and passed along to the retailer as is already done in the case of cigarettes.

Soft drinks—Cereal beverages, 1 1/2 cents a gallon; unfermented grape juice, 5 cents a gallon; unfermented fruit juices, 2 cents a gallon; still drinks, 2 cents a gallon; mineral waters, 2 cents a gallon when price over 12 1/2 cents a gallon; fountain syrups, 6 cents a gallon; carbonated gas, 4 cents a pound.

Electrical energy—3 per cent, paid by the buyers of energy. Furs—10 per cent (house laundry).

Jewelry—10 per cent (articles selling for less than $3 exempted). Automobiles—Passenger chassis 3 per cent; trucks 2 per cent; parts and accessories, 3 per cent. Automobile tires—2 1/2 cents a pound.

Inner tubes—4 cents a pound. Radios and phonographs—5 per cent. Mechanical refrigerators—5 per cent. Sporting goods and cameras—5 per cent (aerial cameras exempted).

Firearms and shells—10 per cent. Matches—Wooden, 2 cents per 1,000; paper, 1/2 cent a thousand. Candy—2 per cent.

Chewing gum—2 per cent. For the very wealthy, wherever found, new estate and gift taxes went into effect June 6, the day the bill was passed. The inheritance levies reach as high as 45 per cent and the new gift taxes reach to 33 1-3 per cent.

The new schedules for personal and corporation income taxes go into effect January 1, 1932, but will apply to returns made for the tax year of 1932. They follow:

Normal Surtax

The new schedule begins at 1 per cent on income over $1,000 and graduates up to a maximum rate of 5 per cent on income in excess of $1,000,000.

The present surtax schedule begins at 1 per cent on income in excess of $10,000 and graduates to a maximum of 20 per cent on income over 100,000.

Exemptions

Married persons ... $3,500 $2,500 Single persons ... 1,500 1,000 Earned income allowance: Present—25 per cent. New—None.

Corporation Income Rates Present—12 per cent. New—13 1/4 per cent; 14 per cent for consolidated returns.

BENT SPEAKER AT FRATERNIS MEET

Chief George Bent, student advisor of Chemawa Indian school, spoke before the Fraternis club weekly meeting at The Spa Thursday night, describing the work being done at the Chemawa Indian school and outlining some of the work the U. S. government is doing for the Western Indians. Salem should be proud of the work being done at the Chemawa Indian school, states Bent, for this plant is the oldest and recognized as the best of its kind in the United States.

FACTS ON UTILITY BUSINESS RECITED

Public utilities are entitled to make fair profits on their working investments but are not guaranteed profits by the government, as many erroneously believe, stated L. E. Inman, statistical engineer of the Portland General Electric company, in his talk at the Lions club Thursday noon. In his talk, "Facts vs. Fancies," Inman quoted government figures which showed that since 1913 the cost of living has increased as much as 215 per cent and government costs have risen steadily until they are now 240 per cent greater than in 1913, while the cost of residence electricity has been lowered steadily since that time.

GAIN IN BUILDING IS NOTED IN EAST

Building and construction work in cities of the eastern United States has shown a marked increase during March and April over the same months for a year ago, states Building Inspector C. Bushnell. In the mid-Atlantic section building has increased 209.6 per cent over a year ago for those two months and in the South-Atlantic section it has increased 195 percent for 1932. No increase has been noted in the western states, though most of those movements which begin in the east are manifest in the west about 50 days later, states Bushnell.

Horse Returning To Replace Gas As Farm Power

Oregon is returning to the horse era, Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, declared Thursday. Lytle said the gas power farm machinery age has left the Oregon ranch, with a resultant implement cemetery. "Any farm occupation that is revolutionary as gas power compared to horse power is bound to work havoc," Dr. Lytle said. He declared that many ranch owners who two years ago operated gasoline propelled implements have returned to the horse.

Ruling Made on Fund Given for Vet Burial Lot

When definite assurance is furnished the state board of control that water will be furnished without charge, the board may authorize expenditure of funds appropriated for the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines Cemetery association in Portland in repairing the concrete pressure reservoir for the veterans burial lot in Lincoln Memorial park, Attorney General VanWinkle held Wednesday. The opinion was requested by the state board of control.

Lease on Union Hall Discussed
