Few Pezozees Will be Paid For Title Fight; Gate May Not Total Above $300,000

NEW YORK, June 16.—(AP)—The drive for perfect condition already won by the fighters, Madison Square Garden turned its efforts today toward luring paying customers into its new bowl on Long Island, for Jack Sharkey's heavyweight title attack on Max Schmeling Tuesday night.

"You can say," announced Jimmy Johnson, manager of the Garden's title affairs, "that there is about $100,000 in the till right now and you can also say for me that it will be one of the greatest fights ever staged by heavyweights, one of the most magnificent, one of the most important, one of the most important to resurrect from the tistic junk pile a championship battle that threatens to set a new financial low for the depression era. While there has not been, and will not be, any change in the $23 price tag on the best ringside seats in the past week, during which both Sharkey and Schmeling have fought themselves into as perfect condition as any two heavyweights ever attained for a title match.

JONES MEETS JACKSON NEXT

Bulldog Signed; Robin Reed Asks big Guarantee but Title Bout Likely

Henry Jones and Robin Reed may clash here for the world welterweight wrestling title, despite a wire received by the boxing and wrestling commission Thursday from Reed to the effect that he would require a $500 guarantee to risk his title against Jones here on the Fourth of July.

The commission wired back a counter proposal which was rather attractive, and up to Thursday night had not received a reply.

Evidence of Reed's respect for Jones' ability was contained in the telegram from the champion, who is at Columbus Ohio. He stated he would meet somebody else for a smaller guarantee.

Meanwhile the commission has lined up Jones and Bulldog Jackson for next Tuesday night's card. After this week's fiasco in which Jackson was disqualified for slugging and engaged in fistcliffs with the referee, this choice may seem strange. However, members of the commission saw him when Jones and Jackson engaged in a three-round draw at Portland, and report they also wrestled five rounds to a draw in Seattle.

Incidentally the card next Tuesday will be one of the first occasions on which sport fans here will meet up with the new luxury tax law. The 10 per cent tax on admissions to sport events will be in effect and will be added to the prices posted on the advertising matter. In fact, to make it come out even and avoid handling a truck load of pennies, the commission has raised its own price two cents.

Women's tickets will not be affected by this law, but passes will. All persons admitted by pass, if their regular ticket cost over 50 cents, will be required to pay the luxury tax.

CALL SCHOOL MEETING
SWEIGLE, June 16.—The annual school meeting will be held at 8 o'clock at Swegle school Monday, June 20, for the purpose of approving the budget and electing officers.

CURT COMMENTS

The boys out at the Salem Golf club are putting in some extra ticks this week, being all steamed up over the annual competition with the Eugene Country club team. This will be a 25-man event so several of the players who have fallen just short of making the 20-man team will get their chance Sunday.

A lot of the Salem club players have been improving their scores this spring, and some new players of marked ability have joined the club, so the prospects of a victory over Eugene are brighter than ever before. Harold Olinger is one new man placed high on the Salem club's ranking list.

Northwest collegiate conference athletes aside from those who do their training at Walla Walla, will cheer at this news: Buddy Applegate drew his diploma the other day and won't be back in the fall.

Whitman wasn't shy of championships before Applegate arrived on the scene, and in three football titles in the four years Buddy participated and he was a big factor in winning all of them. This last year he came awfully close to being the only factor; witness Whitman's poor showing in the games he didn't play.

But at that, Buddy was a good fellow and even his opponents in all those games will miss him and regret his departure. Whitman's basketball and track teams will also feel his loss.

Lauderback, halfback, and Asher, guard, are the only other football lettermen graduated at Walla Walla this week, but the basketball squad loses Robbins, Robb, Fix, Jones and Kenny. Howe, Jones and Breum are gone from the baseball team. The track team loses six men.

Walla Walla is still strong for Whitman and its sports.

Monday, June 20, for the purpose of approving the budget and electing officers.

SILVER FALLS ROAD WORK AGREED UPON

The county and state finally filed an agreement with the county court Thursday concerning improvement of the North Silver Falls road, with signatures affixed of the state highway commission, county court members, State Engineers Baldock, Chandler and Cutler and County Engineer Swartz.

The agreement on this road, which is known as the Winters-North Silver Falls road, calls for 30,600 yards of common excavation, 10,600 yards of rock excavation, 61,500 yards of overhaul, 20,600 yards of top m & r, 315 yards of base and 1415 yards of filler; also seven acres of grubbing and clearing work.

Extent of the improvement will be 2.68 miles with an estimated cost agreed upon of $30,300.24. J. F. McGee was picked as surveying engineer.

The swimming pool at the 14th street playground will be dredged today, according to present plans.

About 200 youngsters were at the playground Thursday, but with the improved swimming pool and a m & r weather, much larger crowds are expected, states Vivian Bartholomew.

The swimming pool is now quite shallow.

A large real estate deal was transacted recently when F. Ralph DuRette of Fairfield purchased the large John H. Miley farm near Aurora. DuRette has already moved onto the place. Miley has in turn moved onto the DuRette farm, having taken over 12 acres of it in part payment.

American War Mothers from the four chapters of the state will hold their annual reunion at Champeog this Sunday. The group will meet for a basket picnic dinner at 1 o'clock, and this will be followed with a program at 2 o'clock.

The program will open with patriotic songs sung by the group and led by G. W. Quigley of Salem. Mrs. Mabel Lockwood of Salem will then be introduced as state president and will give a brief talk.

R. J. Hendricks of Salem will give the main address of the afternoon on the general subject of "The Fathers and Their Affiliations with the War Mothers and World War Veterans." Captain George Koehn of Portland will also be a special speaker.

Other program numbers will be vocal numbers by Harold Moore and T. F. Haley of Portland. Mr. Moore and Mr. Haley will also sing a duet group. The program will close with group singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

It is expected that a large representation of the state war mothers will attend this gathering.

GOLDSTEIN SALARY ATTACKED IN SUIT

Announcement of legal action to prevent further payment of attorney fees to Barnett H. Goldstein and his assistants, who acted as special prosecutors in a series of cases launched by James W. Mott, state corporation commission, against various financial concerns, was made here yesterday by Lars R. Bergsvik, local attorney, who will be the plaintiff and the attorney in the cases.

Defendants in the action, which while not filed yesterday here was expected to be at the courthouse today, include Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, and Rufus C. Holman, state treasurer. The suit also applies to all investigators who assisted Goldstein in his investigations. These include R. E. Smith, James Cosgrove, Alan Brown and Albert R. Roberts.

Bergsvik said he was filing the suit as a citizen and taxpayer.

The complainant charges that traveling expenses incurred by the investigators in interviewing the witnesses were not legal, and that Mott had no authority to sanction such expenditures from the state corporation department's account or the general fund of the state. It was further alleged that Goldstein acted as an assistant attorney general, and should look to the attorney general for any compensation he might claim is due him in a legal capacity.

Three suits in which Goldstein was employed as special prosecutor included those involving the former officials and directors of the Empire Holding company, the state against Johnston and DeGrace, president and secretary of the Prudential Savings & Loan Association, and the state against Chadwick and Welcome in Deschutes county.

State Fund Use By Alumni Said Good Investment

The $5,400 fund appropriated by the state board of higher education for the University of Oregon Alumni association is regarded as a good investment, board members here yesterday in answering complaint made to Governor Julius L. Meier by Henry Zorn.

"The money was placed at disposal of the alumni secretary for purposes of maintaining contact with graduates of the university," explained Lindsay. "Maintenance of this service was asked by the university as one condition to be fulfilled that it be eligible to a number of foundation funds amounting to figures making the alumni expenditures insignificant. Data on actual use made of the $5,400 is not available in records at Salem."
