ETTERBURG CANNING IS STARTED
WHEAT BULLS JOCKEY FOR START

Oregon Packing Firm Starts, Length of Season Unknown

Canning of Etterberg strawberries started Wednesday at the Oregon Packing company plant on 12th street, and marks the first work on any scale this season for this plant. Berries were coming in fast enough yesterday that additional help was employed in the stemming end.

This year the plant is not registering all workers who apply, but simply as more are needed. Only a small portion of the crew usually employed at this time of year was at work yesterday. How long the Etterberg pack will last will depend entirely upon weather conditions. Berries received so far have been of excellent quality.

No Marshall strawberries are handled by this cannery. Whether or not loganberries and cherries, which come in at about the same time, will be handled this year at this plant has not been definitely determined.

Rapid One-Cent Bulge Soon Overcome by Profit Taking

CHICAGO, June 16.—(AP)—Fresh indications appeared today that bull leaders were jockeying for a start in wheat but showing extreme caution.

A rapid advance of a cent a bushel was scored at one time by the wheat market today in connection with unfavorable harvest reports from the southwest, but quick profit-taking sales led to a reaction later. Kansas advices said much wheat would be left standing because harvest cost would amount to more than the wheat would bring.

Wheat closed irregular, at ⅛ to ¼ advance, compared with yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to ⅜ down, oats ⅛ off to ¼ up.

Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: July (old), .50⅝-½, (new), .50⅛; September (old), .53-.53⅛, (new), .52¾-⅞; December, .56.

Corn: July, .30⅞-.31; September, .32⅛-⅝; December, .33-.33⅛.

Oats: July, .20⅝; September, .20⅞; December, .22⅞.

STREET EAR PHONE MAKES GOOD NEWS

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—Security markets today maintained the improved tone they have been holding against odds of unfavorable business news, stressing instead the change that has occurred in such fundamentals as the country's gold position and indications that inflationary measures were to receive the cold shoulder.

New York Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Norfolk & Western and Reading were up 1 to 2 points. Industrials and utilities were not particularly enthusiastic about following this rise, although a few chemicals and tobaccos outstripped the generally fractional recovery. Sugar stocks were stronger. Auburn made a new high at 77 1-8, up 4 points, but closed a point lower. Sales totaled 849,315 shares.

HOP MARKET HERE REMAINING STEADY

CORVALLIS, Ore., June 16 — (AP)—Oregon hop markets remained steady during the past week with prices unchanged from a week ago at 13 cents to growers for clusters and 11 cents for fuggles, according to the O. S. C. extension service cooperating with the U. S. D. A. bureau of ag. economics.

Demand is moderate and mostly for domestic consumption. The New York hop market was reported slow with prices barely steady at 18 to 19 cents for choice 1931 Pacific coast stuff.

Official June 1 estimates of the California prune crop places it at 219,000 tons compare with 208,000 tons last year and 274,000 tons in 1930. Trading in all sizes of prunes at London was moderate during the week. Supplies of small sizes were rather light and demand good. The Lierpool market was firm with prices slightly higher.
