The morning worship service at Grand Assembly the Jason Lee Memorial church will be given to a review of the recent Methodist Episcopal General Conference held at Atlantic City during May, and to which the pastor, Rev. Hugh B. Fouke, Jr., was a delegate. The theme announced is "A World Church Faces Its Grand Assembly June 24 and 25. Kingdom Task."

THEME FOR SUNDAY

Graduation Program

One of the most enjoyable and colorful traditions of the young people's group at the Jason Lee church is the annual graduation banquet. Those completing the Intermediate and high school departments are guests of the other young people, the occasion marking the conclusion of the church year. This year the theme will be "Climbing" and Miss Margaret Stevenson, director of religious Education at First Church, Salem, will be the speaker. The presidents of the two Leagues will speak briefly in greeting the graduates. The pastor will act as Attractive Luncheon chairman, and the affair will be followed at the evening service Dr. Emery W. Petticord, new paswith a candle-light installation

Large Reception Greets New Pastor

A large reception was given Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Petticord Friday night at the First Evangelical church. The affair was the first to greet the new pastor and his family. Rev. Petticord will take his place for the first time. in the local pulpit Sunday morning.

A banquet was served at 6:30' o'clock in the church dining room. Speeches of welcome and introduction were extended at this time.

Following the banquet hour a program of special music and addresses was given. Department heads including representatives of the executive board and trustees, and from L. L. Thornton, superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. G. N. Thompson, Lawrence Maves, and Mrs. August Hilficker gave brief wecoming talks and to these Rev. Petticord responded. Special music was given by a girls' trio, a solo by Miss Kathleen Phelps and an organ prelude by Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps. An informal social evening folowed the program hour.

This was the second reception to have been sponsored by the Evangelical church within the week. The first was in compliment to Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Poling, retiring pastor of the church.

About 150 members of the church and many friends called to bid farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Poling, who left this week for Portland where they will make their home.

A banquet was served and a program of eulogics to the retiring pastor and his wife and appreciative summaries of work accomplished were given by prominent members of the church and friends Miss Alice Detlefs, Miss Helen of long standing.

Dancing Party Is Jolly Evening

A jolly affair for a group of the younger set was the garden dancing party given Thursday night st the W. G. Morehouse home with Miss Edith Morehouse as hostess.

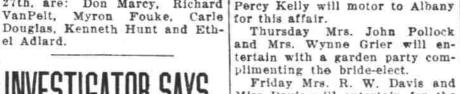

The tennis court in the Morehouse gardens had been arranged for a dance floor. The back steps had been decked with roses and mock orange and Japanese lanterns strung over the court completed a delightful decorative note as well as give light for dancing. Refreshments were served at a late hour and at this time the young hostess was assisted by her mother and Mrs. Charles Kauf-
