

PASTORS HERE NOT SLATED FOR SHIFT

Two Mentioned for District Chief but no Definite Indications Seen

Pulpits in the four Salem Methodist churches will apparently be unaffected by appointments at the 18th Oregon annual conference, which convenes in Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church in Portland this morning.

Names of two Salem pastors, Rev. B. Earle Parker of the First church and Rev. Hugh B. Fouke, Jr. of Jason Lee church have been mentioned in connection with the Portland district superintendency, which Dr. W. W. Jounsgon had filled until illness in recent months forced him to turn the work to Dr. Laird Mills, acting superintendent.

The Salem ministers are among six or seven others also mentioned for the Portland district post, including leading pastors from all over the state. No name, so far as can be gathered here, is mentioned with greater strength than others, and it is probable that Bishop Lowe, who makes the appointments, has not yet picked the man.

Others mentioned include Dr. Dawson and Dr. Harrison of Portland churches, the Newburg pastor, the Ashland pastor and others from various parts of the state. Dr. Mills, acting in that capacity, will not likely succeed to the job, as he is planning to go to California to continue editorship of the Pacific Advocate.

While conference appointments will not be announced until closing next Sunday night, it is considered probable Rev. Fouke will be returned to Jason Lee here; Rev. Parker to First church; Rev. S. Darlow Johnson to Leslie Memorial; and Rev. A. L. Dark to the West Salem and Summit pulpits.

Yarnes and Marcy
Expected to stay
Dr. Marcy, superintendent of the Salem district, and Dr. T. D. Yarnes, superintendent of the Cascade district, both of whom live in Salem, will likely be returned to their respective posts. The two were in Portland yesterday morning in conference relation.

LAUNCHING NEW GRACE LINER

A good job well done, and the new $5,000,000 Grace liner, Santa Paula, slides down the ways and into the water at Kearney, N. J., to the cheers of the workmen who built her and officials of the line. Lower photo shows Mrs. Edward J. Ford, wife of the president of the Panama Mail Service of the Grace Line, as she broke a bottle of California orange juice on the bow of the new vessel during the christening ceremonies.

tive to the Wesley hospital at Marshfield, and will return there this morning to remain the rest of the week.

Dr. Marcy, queried last night, indicated that there are several possible changes in the Salem district, including Dallas, Lebanon, Silverton, Dayton, Turner and Stayton, which have been guided the past year by student pastors, and Harrisburg, Wendling, Marcola, Lyons and Jefferson.

Clark Wood, who has been serving at Lyons the past year, was Sunday appointed by the Washington conference to a charge near Tacoma.

FATHER IS HONORED AT PICNIC SUNDAY

MEHAMA, June 20—A father's day picnic was given Sunday by the Mehama Sunday school. Strawberry short cake, coffee, sandwiches and ice cream were enjoyed by a large crowd at the Mehama grove.

The Marshall strawberry yield per acre has been very good in this locality with the berries going to the Starton cannery. This week is expected to finish the pack and there will still be an abundance of berries left in the fields. The prune crop on the Kubla place, contrary to the reports in the valley is quite heavy; this is thought due to the fact that the orchard being located nearer the mountains bloomed much later, thus escaped the frost.

Groom Will Return To Looted Gas Station

ROCKY POINT, June 20—Sunday morning, G. Shamberger went down to open up the Rocky Point service station and found it had been robbed during the night, he found missing, 35 gallons of gasoline, a drum of oil, tools, and confections. The operator, Marion Robinson is away on his wedding trip.

days before returning to his home in Canada.

SUICIDE

New Jersey State Police have come in for much criticism as a result of the suicide of Violet Sharpe (above), maid at the Englewood, N. J., home of Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow. Ernest Brinkert, White Plains, N. Y., taxi driver, arrested following Miss Sharpe's death has been cleared of any complicity in the Lindbergh kidnaping and the theory now is that the girl took poison rather than face the ordeal of further questioning—innocent of any wrong-doing though she was.

PEA PICKING UNDER WAY FOR ISLANDERS

GRAND ISLAND, June 20—The picking of many acres of peas in the community was begun this week. J. H. Tompkins has six acres which are being picked and delivered to the Ray-Malling Canning company at Hillsboro. Practically all of the large acreages of peas in the district were planted under contract for the cannery at Hillsboro.

Most of the farmers of the community are rejoicing over the two weeks of summer weather we have had which has enabled them to get most of the hay cut and in the barns without serious damage.

The large melon fields, which have been set out are growing rapidly and a bountiful crop is anticipated by the growers. Mrs. Mercy Tompkins and Mrs.

Clare Tompkins entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mercy Tompkins with a shower in compliment to Mrs. Gles Rockhill. About 25 were present to enjoy the afternoon which was spent in sewing for the honored guest.

Lucinda Anderson Is Called Beyond; Lived Near Turner

CLOVERDALE, June 20—Mrs. J. Lucinda Anderson died at her home three miles southwest of Turner Saturday. She was the wife of William Anderson, Turner; and mother of Charles and W. Anderson, Taft, Calif., Mrs. Birdwell Lee and Mrs. Joseph Arnett, Ventura, Calif., Mrs. William Bennett, Hoskins, Mrs. Edward Huessing, Portland, Mrs. Alfred Easter, Oceanlake and Mrs. Louis Hennies, Turner. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Fisher mortuary at Albany and will be announced later.

Early Conflagration Destroys Loy Home

SWEIGLE, June 20—The home of S. S. Loy was completely destroyed by fire this morning at about 6:30. The neighbors made an effort to control the fire but it was impossible. The city fire department responded quickly to a call. Some of the household goods were saved.

HALLS ON VISIT
SILVERTON, June 20.—Rev. and Mrs. Sidney Hall, formerly of Silverton and McMinnville, but now of Ashland, arrived at Silverton Monday for a brief visit with old-time friends. While here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Day, Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Day entertained for the Halls. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock, Mrs. S. J. Comstock. Rev. and Mrs. Hall will leave Tuesday for the conference at Portland.
