

VETERAN GETS STAYTON VOTE

Murphy Wins in School Election; Other Districts Report Results

STAYTON, June 22—The annual school election Monday brought out the largest attendance in the history of the school. As compared with the dozen or two usually present there were more than 125 present. Grant Murphy won out for school director over George F. Korinek, the only other nominated. Mr. Murphy has been on the board for the past 12 years.

There were four nominations for clerk: George Duncan, J. C. Mayo, Paul Stayton and Mrs. Nora Taylor. Stayton and Duncan were high men, the former securing the position by one vote.

The budget will not be voted upon until a later date.

GERVAIS, June 22—The annual school meeting was held at the school Monday night when the report of the clerk was read and accepted and an election held. Robert Harper was elected a member of the board to succeed G. J. Moisan, whose term expired. Mr. Moisan was elected clerk, taking the place of F. Mangold, who has served in this capacity for more than 40 years. Falling health caused him to relinquish the office. John S. Harper, senior member of the board becomes chairman for this year. Ross Cutsforth is the other member.

TURNER, June 22—At the annual school election of district No. 79, Monday afternoon, S. A. Riches was elected director for three years, and Mrs. Mabel Martin was re-elected clerk for one year. Riches was elected last fall to fill a vacancy till the annual meeting. The chairman explained the lowered cost of school operation for the past year. The special levy for the running expenses is the lowest in the county and the per capita cost of the high school has been lowered materially.

HOPEWELL, June 22—The general election of the board of directors for the Fairview school was held Monday. Howard Stephens will fill his term and act as chairman; Virgil Heider and Mrs. Ross Rogers are the newly elected officers.

NORTH HOWELL, June 22—The annual school meeting Monday night resulted in the election of Sherman Rickard as director for three years and Frank Hynes as clerk for one year.

WEST STAYTON, June 22—At the annual school election Mr. Lewis was elected director and Leonard Walker was re-elected clerk.

Holds Post 30 Years
WALDO HILLS, June 22—Evegreen annual school meeting and election Monday afternoon was attended by 17 persons. Johnny Brunner, outgoing director, declined reelection, and S. Harmon was elected to the position. Mrs. Fred Knight was re-elected clerk. Controversy held its election Monday evening. The four officers were the only ones present. Edson Comstock was re-elected clerk and Charles R. Riches re-elected director. Mr. Riches is entering on his 31st year in this position and in this length of time he has missed but one meeting.

PIONEER, June 22—The annual school meeting was held at the schoolhouse Monday afternoon with a good turnout. Orie Harrington was re-elected as school clerk. He has been clerk for over 30 years. Roy Black was re-elected as director. The board made out a budget that will be voted on later. Miss Eugina Shanks of Dallas will be the teacher again next year.

VALSETZ, June 22—F. H. Thomas was elected director for three years and Frank Heydon as clerk at the annual school election. George March is retiring clerk.

VICTOR POINT, June 22—At the annual school meeting held Monday night, J. O. Darby was elected director for a term of three years, and Elmer Lorenze, clerk for one year. The expense budget prepared by the school board was rejected by a vote of those present.

GRAND ISLAND, June 22—The annual school meeting was held at the schoolhouse Monday night. The clerk's annual report was read and accepted. J. H. Tompkins was elected as the new director for a term of three years to fill the position vacated by E. A. Lefley. Mrs. Arka Lawrence was re-elected clerk for a period of one year.

AURORA, June 22—At the school meeting called for Monday afternoon, June 20, Mrs. Logan Snyder was re-elected as a member of the school board for a term of three years. The budget as presented was accepted.

NORTH SANTIAM, June 22—At the school meeting held Monday night, George B. Howard was re-elected as director for a term of three years and Glenn E. McClellan was elected clerk.

ROBERTS, June 22—The school meeting was held last night and James Fry was put in as director to take the place of Louis Salchenburg, and Mrs. George Higgins was re-elected clerk.

ROCKY POINT, June 22—The annual school board meeting was held Monday night at the local school. John Shamberger was re-elected director for the term of three years. G. A. Shamberger was elected clerk.

SCOTT'S MILLS, June 22—At the school meeting of Noble district Monday night Mrs. Almond Rich was elected director for three years, and Louie Shepherd reelected clerk for one year. Albert Heitwer was re-elected director and John Plaz re-elected clerk of the Crooked Finger school district.

AMITY, June 22—At the annual election the Amity grade school named John Lorenzen as director for the three year term, and Fred Mauser for one year to finish the unexpired term of W. Yarnes, who resigned. Mrs. Mary Broeding was re-elected as clerk.

BETHEL, June 22—The annual meeting of Bethel school district was held Monday night, when the school patrons voted to have a new well drilled on the school property and to have the school fenced. A. L. Schulz was elected, by a narrow margin, to the position of school director, against W. L. Creech, retiring member. Mrs. Marchand was re-elected clerk.

The last of the debt incurred in building the schoolhouse, was paid recently, and the district is in good financial condition.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, June 22—The annual school meeting at Popcorn school resulted in the reelection of Adrian Withers for the three year term as director and the election of L. E. Reed as clerk to succeed John Simmons who has served continuously in that capacity for 16 years.

At the Mountain View school Ammon Grice was elected to serve as director for the next three years, succeeding himself. Glenn Southwick was re-elected clerk.

AT CONVENTION
STAYTON, June 22—Mrs. Emma S. Brown, local postmistress has been at The Dalles this week, attending the postmaster's convention. Mrs. O. E. Gardner is assisting in the office during her absence. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feilen and daughter are here from San Francisco, visiting at the Paul Feilen home and with other relatives. They made the trip by auto.
