TENDERFOOT' WILL BE ELSINORE SHOW

Wide-Mouthed Joe E. Brown Stars in Another big Comedy Success

Joe H. Brown, affectionately regarded as the current king of comedians, follows up his "Fireman, Save My Child" success with "The Tenderfoot," a First National picture coming today at Warner Bros. Elsinore.

In his latest, wide-mouthed Joe portrays a Texas rancher who comes to New York with the last of his money, which he intends to invest profitably so he can lift the mortgage on his ranch. Armed with his money and his sixshooters, Joe becomes involved with a theatrical producer, falls in love, buys a show which is a failure, miraculously and unwittingly turns the show into a howling success, gets mixed up with lawyers and ladies, eventually overcoming all obstacles, lifting the mortgage and winning the

The script of Brown's latest film funning story was written by Arthur Caesar, Monty Banks and Earl Baldwin, generally regarded as Hollywood's best concocters of comedy.

In "The Tenderfoot", Joe is supported by an especially selected cast, with Ginger Rogers in the feminine lead. Lew Cody and Robert Greig appear as theatrical producers. Vivian Oakland is seen as a temperamental star. Others are Wilfred Lucas, Spencer Charters, Ralph Ince, Mae Seymour, Jill Dennett and Alan Warner Bros. Elsinore.

The producers have given "The Tenderfoot" a more elaborate setting than any previous Joe E. Brown picture, with the result that the combination story, cast, direction and settings bring to the screen what has been hailed by metropolitan critics as among the funniest films.

'UNHOLY GARDEN'

Recklessly adventurous rather than romantic, Ronald Coleman comes to the Hollywood today in "The Unholy Garden," as Samuel Goldwyn's first screen presentation of the year.

For the first time in two years, Colman is no longer the suave polished English gentleman. Instead, he is an outcast and a renegade, hiding out with a dozen other refugees from the law in a strange outpost at the edge of the Sahara, Disheveled and unshaven, hair touseled and clothes mussed, he is a sharp contrast to the immaculately groomed hero of "The Devil to Pay," "Raffles" and "Bulldag Drummond," his earlier pictures for Mr. Goldwyn.

Estella Taylor and Fay Wray have the principal feminine roles. As the wanton voluptuary of the story, Miss Taylor has the biggest part since her memorable appearance in "Cimarron." Miss Wray is the protected daughter of the embezzling recluse, hiding at the

Constance Bennett Starred In Brilliant Story of Society Girl

Gay and brilliant, "Lady With Past", the new attraction today at the Grand theatre, is anothe Constance Bennett starring hit. For the first time in a considerable period, Miss Bennett is not east as a poor working girl or an erring sister who has fallen and been redeemed by love. She is cast as a wealthy member of a fashionable social set and is thoroughly convincing, as well as altogether lovely in the part.

Based upon Harriet Henry's latest novel, "Lady With a Past" tells the very human story of a love-hungry girl who cannot at-tract men. When she sees the most eligible males flock about an obvious siren she is about ready to give up.

A trick of circumstances puts her in Paris, and there, under the expert tutelage of a gay gigolo, she blossoms into a real charmer. Ben Lyon, as the gigolo, makes the most of a fine part. It is a lovable character and Lyon plays it for all that it is worth RIVERVIEW, June 25-Mrs. Frank Boss committed suicide Wednesday morning, by shooting herself through the heart while sitting on the side of her bed, at her home here. She was 48 years old. Her husband, who was milking at the barn, returned to find her dead.

Mrs. Boss had been in Wyoming during the winter, where she and her husband formerly lived before purchasing a farm here several years ago. She apparently never was contented here and never lived here any ength of time, just returned last week for a short visit with her
