Large Weddings Will Keep Interest High In Realm of Society for Last Week of June

Miss Hester Davis, Popular Bride-Elect, Will be Married Wednesday In Large Church Wedding

THE last days of June will find even more weddings and pre-nuptial affairs than in the past weeks. One of the most brilliant weddings of the year will be that of Miss Hester Davis to Robert Cosgrove of Pasadena, which will be an event of Wednesday night at the First Presbyterian church.

Over 225 invitations have been extended for this wedding, which has been preceded by many charming social affairs. Rev. Grover Birtchet will read the service at 8 o'clock

Miss Davis has chosen for her attendants Mrs. Jack Porter of Medford, Miss Esther Wood and Miss Mildred Collins of Albany. Mr. Cosgrove will have as his best man Cyrus Gates of Bellingham, Wash. Mrs. Percy Ke-lly will be soloist and Mrs. J. Fred Braly of Albany will play the wedding marches.
