Moore Case Up—Argument on the appeal case of the alleged slayer of George J. Moore will come before the state supreme court here Friday. When Moore, an electrician, was shot in Clackamas county, he left a large estate. At first one Barry, an insurance salesman, was granted the bulk of the property under a will admitted to probate in Clackamas county. Subsequently Moore's niece who resides in the east, contested the will, got it thrown out of probate court, and then brought suit in Marion county to recover the property as legal heirs. The late Judge Gale E. Hill granted them a $50,000 claim. Attorneys for Barry appealed.

Wheel Chair is Need, Salvation Army Man Says

That summer and warm weather have brought very little decrease in the demand for old clothes among the needy families in Salem was the statement made by Adjutant Parsons of the Salvation Army last night.

Parsons also mentioned one case where a man has been ill in bed for the past three months and is just now able to be up and around. However, he has not regained the use of his legs and without the aid of a wheelchair will be forced to spend most of the summer time indoors.

If any persons having or knowing of a wheelchair that could be given or loaned to this individual, and also cast-off clothes, would get in touch with the army headquarters the act would be greatly appreciated.

CUTLER HEAD OF MISSOURI GROUP

J. L. Cutler of Salem was chosen new head of the state Missouri association at the third annual reunion held Sunday at the city auto park here. Three hundred Missourians and their families attended. R. V. Stockton of Sheridan is vice-president and H. H. Stockton of Sheridan is secretary-treasurer.

Lieut. Walter Lansing was the main speaker. The earliest settler in Oregon and Missouri native present was Mrs. Lolina Ann Coe, who came to Oregon in 1848 from St. Charles county, Missouri, and who settled and still resides in Polk county. The oldest Missourian present was Col. J. C. Cooper of McMinnville, 87 years and six months old, who came west from Mt. Vernon, Lawrence county, in 1866.

Missouri's latest settler to Oregon present was Mrs. Helen Dickerson, 1765 S. Capitol street, Salem, who came from Joplin June 10. P. C. Harland of Salem was the champion horsehoe pitcher and the largest Missouri family present was that of F. E. Kelso of Salem, whose seven children were at the picnic. Prizes were awarded these five persons with the "best" records. William McGilchrist, Sr., and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist entertained with music during the afternoon.

MRS. G. B. TERHUNE SUMMONED BEYOND

JEFFERSON, June 28 — Mrs. George B. Terhune, long time resident of near Jefferson, died at 6 p. m. Monday at her farm home three miles north of here at the age of 71 years.

Mrs. Terhune was born in Butler county, Pennsylvania, on January 30, 1861, moving with her parents at the age of 24 to the farm here where she had resided since. Her marriage to George B. Terhune occurred on January 29, 1888. She was a member of the Lutheran church.

Surviving her besides her husband are three sons, William and John of Jefferson and David of Albany; three grandchildren, Bobbie, Betty and Ruth Terhune; three sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Doty of Albany, Mrs. H. B. Haight and Mrs. Paul Buckner of Jefferson; two brothers, Charles Zimmerman of Albany and W. A. Zimmerman of Beaver Mines, Canada.

Funeral services will be held from the Fortmiller chapel in Albany, Thursday, June 30, at 1:30 p. m., with interment following in Belcrest memorial park in Salem.

ARMY RECRUITING IS REOPENED HERE

For the first time since last March, vacancies exist in this area for recruits to the United States army, Sergeant Harry P. Ender, local recruiting officer with headquarters on the second floor of the post office building, announced Monday. Recruiting was opened that day for the Walla Walla department and will be open after July 10 for domestic service.

A limited number of men will be enlisted for the field artillery and infantry services in the Hawaiian Islands. Requirements are that the recruit be between the ages of 18 and 25, and able to pass a rigid physical examination.

Recruiting opening one week from next Monday will be for service on the Pacific coast and in the Rocky mountains, comprising the Ninth Corps area. Branches of service available will include coast and field artillery, infantry and quartermaster corps.

Although Sergeant Ender now has a waiting list of 30 men, he may be able to recruit others, he says.
