Club Reunion is Compliment to Visitors

The return of Miss Naomi Phelps and Miss Imogene Gardner from New York City where they have been for some time was the inspiration for a jolly reunion of the "Graz" club, a high school group formed from Girl Reserves who had enjoyed camp life and school life together and so made the club to continue regular meetings.

When members became separated the club meetings were given up but the reunion Thursday night at the home of Miss Loreta Varley proved an especially delightful affair.

An informal evening part of which was occupied with a program and which concluded with refreshments made up the evening hours.

Mrs. C. W. O'Flynn, sister of Mrs. Varley and a guest from California gave a group of readings; Miss Margaret Hogg gave piano numbers; Miss Evelyn Hebel presented a group of French horn solos; and Miss Naomi Phelps sang. An old camp stunt concluded the program.

The invited guest list included Miss Phelps and Miss Gardner, and Miss Irene Breithaupt, Miss Velleda Ohmart, Mrs. Merwin Fidler, Mrs. Harmon Garrett, Mrs. C. G. Howell, Mrs. Alfred Coote, Silvertown; Miss Pauline Welch, Miss Evelyn Hebel, Miss Margaret Hogg, Miss Lavinia Burley, Miss Ruth Stover, Miss Rosalie Buren, Miss Mary Erickson, and Miss Irma Mevks.

Miss Welch, Miss Hebel and Miss Varley were joint hostesses for the evening.

Miss Deana Shepherd Is Complimented

Mrs. E. O. Shepherd entertained Wednesday evening complimenting the birthday of her daughter, Miss Deana Shepherd with a pretty dinner party. Covers were placed for Miss Shepherd, and Mrs. Judson Beardsley, Mrs. Cleland Fish, Miss Beattie Tucker, Miss Ruth Draper, Miss Gertrude Chamberlain, Miss Betty Beardsley and for Mrs. Shepherd.

There will be a special meeting of the Zonta club tonight at the home of Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre at which time Miss Alene Phillips will give her report of the national Zonta convention in St. Louis from which she has just returned. An informal social evening will follow the report of Miss Phillips.

Dr. and Mrs. David Bennet Hill will spend the next week in Seattle accompanied by their daughter Charlotte and Miss Barbara Pierce. Dr. Hill will attend the National Dental convention meeting there for the week.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Shirt pleats back and front, give distinction and a great deal of comfort to this stunning sports frock so simply styled. The square neckline is mighty becoming, especially when accented with binding of contrasting color. The center panels are so very slim and flattering! Printed or plain shantung, linen, pique, broadcloth or wash silk will prove delightful.

Pattern 2359 is obtainable only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16 requires three yards of 36-inch fabric, 3 1/2 yards of binding.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. Your summer wardrobe can be planned easily and luxuriously with the assistance of our current 22-page fashion catalog. The best of the season's afternoon, sports and evening frocks, lingerie, house dresses and kidie models all personally shown by Anne Adams, are made available through this beautiful book. Send for your copy today. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and patterns together, twenty-five cents. 4 sizes all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Miss Alene Phillips Returns From East

Miss Alene Phillips is again at her desk in the secretary of state's office, having returned this week end from St. Louis, where she attended the national Zonta convention as a delegate from the local Zonta club.

Miss Phillips was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. D. Phillips. They visited Chicago for the first day of the republican convention, which they enjoyed thoroughly. The Zonta convention was an excellent one, according to Miss Phillips. Miss Caroline Davis of Portland was elected third vice-president of the national club and will thereby be a member of the international board, a fact which will bring some distinction to the west.

A "show boat" trip on the Mississippi river proved of much interest, as did the outdoor opera for which St. Louis is known throughout the nation. Visits to the Lindbergh memorial where trophies of his accomplishments are on exhibition were also enjoyed.

About 200 delegates from all over the United States were in attendance. Miss Phillips and her mother returned by way of San Francisco, where they visited for several days.

In a pretty nuptial mass read by Father J. R. Buck in St. Joseph's Catholic church Miss Helen Hill, daughter of Mrs. Walter Hill, became the bride of Harry Ziegler, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ziegler of Seio, Thursday morning. The bride wore a frock of embroidered dimity, tip-toe length and with fitted bodice. She was attended by Miss Marcelle Malkmus in a frock of soft blue voile. Gene Lebold acted as best man for Mr. Ziegler. Lawrence Alley was soloist and Bernard Kropp was accompanist and played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler will be at home to their friends at their new home on North 17th street after July 15.
