

THE PRICE SHOE CO.

Sells Out Hamilton Shoe Store

For over a week the Hamilton Shoe store has been closed by the creditors. This store has held a prominent place in retailing of shoes in Salem for a number of years, carrying popular priced women's shoes and hose, but competition became too strong and they were forced to close their doors.

FRIDAY, JULY 8th this stock will be opened to public and placed on sale at prices that can only be made possible by a forced sale.

This stock consists of practically all new seasonable merchandise. Some of the lines are broken in sizes. The shoes are all good styles and the lasts have been well selected so they will fit well. Although we are going to price these shoes ridiculously low on account of our fortunate purchase we do not hesitate in recommending this stock to our friends and old customers, and anyone that is not here to participate in this carnival of bargains will miss a rare opportunity. We are going to segregate this stock along with some of our Liberty street stock into four groups and four prices for quick selling

We want to force the entire stock out just as quickly as possible and if we can make prices so low that every shoe will be sold in a week we will be better pleased than if it drags along, so come early as it can not last long.
