NEW YORK, July 6-(AP)-Ignoring a new low for steel ingot production, stocks took their cue from the strong foreign bond list today and indulged in a rally which, for the present market, was fairly active, especially during the late trading.

American Telephone, with break of nearly 2 points to 7, a new record low, made the market uneasy early but resistance of that leader at the quotation mentioned found other prominent shares hardening and the tone thereafter was firm. Telephone closed 3-4 point net higher.

U. S. Steel, American Can, Westinghouse, Eastman, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, National Biscuit, Bethlehem, Allied Chemical and Du Pont rose from a major fraction to more than a point net. American Tobacco shares were stronger coincident with appearance of a bullish earnings estimate for the first half. International Shoe was run down half a dozen points. Poctor and Gamble Preferred broke 9. Preference issues were erratic. Total busness amounted
