BERR PARTY COSTS PAIR $50 IN FINE

SILVERTON, July 7—In justice court at Silverton Wednesday Judge Brown placed fines of $50 apiece on H. F. Roth and William Robins, both of whom pleaded guilty Tuesday to possession of beer. Judge Brown suspended sentence during good behavior.

The sentence was the outgrowth of arrests made Saturday night when state and local officers took a hand in a noisy beer party held at the Robins home on McClains street.

This has been a busy week for Justice Brown. Three trials were held before him Tuesday afternoon. Among these was the case of Elmer Dick who was also arrested Saturday night in connection with the Robins "home brew party." Dick was cleared by Judge Brown with a severe warning that the next time he should not be so leniently dealt with. Dick admitted to the judge that this wasn't his first appearance in court but promised to try to make it his last.
