

Reed vs. Finnegan, Jones vs. Salisbury, Armory Tonight

DOUBLE BILL IS PROMISING ONE

Champion out to Settle up Accounts; Newcomer to Meet Provo vet

Lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place, or so it is claimed; and local wrestling fans have no particular reason to hope that it will be the fourth of July all over again tonight. Mat shows such as the one that 8000 fans witnessed at the fairgrounds on that date happen only once in a blue moon.

Nevertheless a lot of those same fans are expected to crowd into the armory tonight to see Robin Reed and Henry Jones perform again—not on each other, but upon men who are in the same class as wrestlers.

Reed will meet Pat Finnegan, who has done a lot of hard, clean wrestling for the edification of local fans. Finnegan has lost several matches to Jones here, but those who saw some of them couldn't understand how Jones managed to win, as the Ohio Beau Brummel seemed to have the upper hand a good deal more than half the time.

Reed Would Settle Up Accounts, Hint

Although this match bears some of the aspects of a grudge affair, since Reed was reported as being a bit "peevish" over Finnegan's actions as a substitute referee in the title match with Jones last week, there is little to indicate that it will be rough in the sense that borderline tactics will be used.

Both Reed and Finnegan like their wrestling "clean" but that doesn't bar the sonnenberg and shoulder butting, that added spice—and fireworks—to the Reed-Jones meeting. There probably will be no gouging and slugging, but Reed will be in there to make life miserable for the Irishman and Finnegan, considering his ancestry, can hardly be expected to turn the other cheek.

Jones, in this double main event program, is scheduled to meet Jack Salisbury of Salt Lake City, a stranger to Salem fans. Coming from the same state, these fellows know what to expect of each other and if Salisbury lives up to the reputation that has preceded him here, this affair will also be a lively one.

INTERMEDIATES OF OLINGER WIN 10-5

The Olinger intermediates defeated the Lincoln playground ball team Monday by a 10-5 score. Glacier and Hoffert of the winners knocked home runs, and Maddy and Kane did the same for the losers. Glacier got his in the eighth inning with the bases loaded, with the score tied 4-4 up to that time.

Roseanna Kruger of Portland received the Entertainers' club emblem, which is given one taking part in four entertainments. She was popular as a tap dancer, making her four appearances in one week. Louise and Eloise Bayale, twins, sang a duet.

The horseshoe and croquet tournaments are progressing rapidly, the first round having been played off. Croquet for girls will be started soon.

Swimming classes for beginners were to be started Tuesday morning by Miss Esther Arnold. Lineups for the baseball game follow:

First Round Singles Play Completed in City Tennis Tournery; Interest is High

Participants in the city championship tennis tournament demonstrated their keen interest in the event when they wound up the first round of singles play Monday although they were given until tonight to play their first matches; and there were no defaults.

The second round is not scheduled to start until Wednesday but there is, presumably, no law against proceeding. Pairings for the second round are:
Melvin Goode vs. John Creech.
Ivan White vs. Ray Stayer.
Deryl Myers vs. Jim Nutter.
Tom Goynes vs. Fred Hagemann.
Only one of the first round matches went to three sets but there were no walkaways and the competition is certain to become more intense as the eliminations continue. In fact it is difficult to pick any favorites to win matches in the second round.

Scores in the singles matches played Monday were:
Goode defeated Don Sanders 6-4, 6-2.
Creech defeated John Minto 8-6, 6-3.
Stayer defeated Harold Beall 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.
Myers defeated Parker Gies 6-2, 6-0.
Hagemann defeated James Beall 6-4, 6-0.
Goynes defeated Don Vestal 6-4, 6-0.

First round of the doubles need not be completed until Wednesday night and no doubles matches were played Monday. In the one match played Sunday, Fred Hagemann and Stayer defeated Myers and Goode 2-6, 6-0, 6-4.
Telephone numbers of the players are on file at Parker's sport goods store and any who are unable to get in contact with their opponents may obtain that information there. Matches are to be reported at Parker's immediately after they are completed.

Silverton is Winner Over Illahee Club

Illahee Country club's 22-man golf team was defeated at Silverton, 43 to 23, by the Silverton Golf club team Sunday. The outstanding matches of the day were those between Frank Shafer of Illahee and N. Eastman of Silverton, and Ivan Kafoury of Illahee and L. C. Eastman, in one foursome. Shafer and Kafoury finally won but had to shoot par golf to do it.

In another foursome Dewey Scarbrough and W. E. Chandler of Illahee, paired against W. L. McGinnis and C. L. Bonney respectively, lost out after both matches were all square on the 17th, but nevertheless won points for their team.

The following players made up the Illahee team:
Frank Shafer, Ivan Kafoury, Dr. Woodmansee, Max Flannery, Robin Day, Cliff Parker, William Stacey, B. Thomason, Gordon Wilson, Brazier Small, Dewey Scarbrough, W. E. Chandler, Fred Williams, Fred Bernardi, Cecil Gardner, Ivan Merchant, Sephus Starr, V. E. Kuhn, Ted Eggleston, A. A. Gueffroy, Charles Low and C. N. Needham.
The following wives of the Illahee players, accompanied their husbands and played the Silverton course after luncheon:
Mrs. W. E. Chandler, Mrs. W. Stacey, Mrs. B. Thomason, Mrs. Fred Bernardi, Mrs. Sephus Starr, Mrs. Robin Day, Mrs. Charles Low, Mrs. Frank Shafer and Mrs. C. N. Needham.

After the luncheon, players from both teams indulged in an exciting putting contest, with Brazier Small winning, and Cliff Parker scoring a close second.

WOODBURN IS IN STATE FINAL

Beats Hillsboro 4 to 2 and Seizes District Title; Game Hard Fought

Woodburn's American Legion Junior baseball team clinched a place in the state finals at Portland next Monday, when it defeated Hillsboro 4 to 2 Sunday, thereby winning the district No. 2 championship. A game will be played with Newberg at Woodburn Wednesday but it will have no bearing on the district title.

Hillsboro put up much stronger competition in this game than in its home contest with Woodburn, and the outcome was in doubt up to the last inning, the Washington county boys making an especially strong threat in the eighth when they filled the bases.

"Hank" Lefrier struck out 12 men and went the route on the mound for Woodburn while Holsher of Hillsboro fanned nine but lacked control, issuing 11 free passes.

Woodburn got the jump with a run in the second inning in which Evans, Lefrier and Gorbett figured, and another in the fourth which Nicholson drove in even though he went out on the play. Evans nicked the plate for both of these tallies. Lefrier hit a two bagger to bring him in the first time.

The advantage was wiped out quickly, however, Hillsboro getting its two runs in the fifth. Barron and Edwards singled and both came in on an error.

Nicholson started the winning rally in the seventh with a triple, staying on third base until two were out and then coming in on Asboe's single. Schwab tripled to bring Asboe in.

"Sneak" Wilson, nonchalant Salem Senator moundman, just missed the baseball hall of fame Sunday when Bill Wilkinson of Albany smacked the only hit, and the only thing that even resembled a hit, after two were out in the eighth inning of the Senator-Alco State league game here. As it was, Wilson got a shutout without any trouble and the Senators won 3 to 0.

Pete Schmitz, spindie-legged Alco shucker, was also in top form Sunday and he allowed the Senators no hits except in the sixth inning when three were clicked by Scales, Erickson and Bashor in rapid succession. These coupled with an error and a neat double steal engineered by Gribble and Bashor, accounted for the Solons' three runs before Schmitz settled back into his no-hit stride. Spectacular fielding on both sides helped keep the hits down.

Wilson, his fast ball working as it never had before, breezed it past the Alcos in great style, fanning five of the first six men who faced him. Only three men faced him in each of the first five innings, but then Schmitz did just as well for three innings. Only Three Alcos Reached First Base

Just three Alcos reached the plate in the northern division by Brooks; one on a walk, one on a strikeout that got away from "Frisco" Edwards, and Wilkinson who got the safe hit. Wilson fanned nine and Schmitz five.

WOODBURN WINNER IN NORTH DIVISION

Woodburn clinched the northern division Cascade league championship and qualified for the playoff with Turner, southern division winner, Sunday when it defeated Amity 12 to 9 at Amity. The first game of the playoff will be next Sunday at Woodburn.

Johnny Beck found the going rather tough for the first four innings and Amity was ahead 9 to 4, but he tightened and shut the Yamhill county boys out for the remainder of the route.

Brooks wound up in second place in the northern division by beating Newberg 3 to 2 Sunday at Brooks. It was two-all up to the last half of the ninth when the Brooks boys punched over the winning run.
