

EARLY TIMES HERE RECALLED

By N. P. Williamson on his 80th Birthday, Celebrated Sunday

HAZEL GREEN, July 13—Relatives and friends gathered at the N. P. Williamson home Sunday afternoon to help Mr. Williamson celebrate his 80th birthday. Mr. Williamson has lived here 48 years.

Mr. Williamson was born in Denmark, coming to America at the age of 22. After a short time in Michigan he came to Oregon and settled in Waldo Hills near Stayton, where he engaged in sheep raising until 1884, when he bought a farm here of John Gilbert, father of R. Monroe and Ralph Gilbert.

Thirty-five of his 240-acre farm was called cleared. In the early days it was custom to kill trees by girdling and let them stand. A field had many dead stumps 150 to 200 feet tall to be plowed around. Mr. Williamson raised many large crops of potatoes, the new land producing 200 to 300 bushels to the acre. The heavy timber was cut and sold as cordwood, to state hospital and Che-wa-wa training school. During the hard times in the '90's many men were employed in cutting and hauling wood. The stump farm, by much hard work, has become one of the fine farms of the Willamette valley. The draining of Lake Labish gave a tract of valuable beaver dam land near Pudding river on the east end of the farm. Onions are raised here.

In addition to the numerous farming operations Mr. Williamson was engaged with Mr. Tilson of Salem, in shipping potatoes to California. He served on the school board at the time of building the new schoolhouse.

In 1884 Mr. Williamson was married to Miss Anna Johnson of Stayton. After her death in 1896, he married Miss Mattilda Peterson of Sublimity, who died three years ago. Since death of the wife Miss Carolyn has kept house for her father.

A modern home has replaced the house burned in February. The early buildings were erected by John Gilbert, a brother of Andrew Gilbert of Salem. A buffet supper was served Sunday by daughters Mrs. Henry Kobler, Mrs. Louis Bartruff, Mrs. Harold Burns, Misses Bertha and Carolyn Williamson. The birthday cake with its 80 candles was gift of daughter, Mrs. Kobler. Two of the eight children were absent, Mrs. J. Henderson of Stayton and youngest son Victor. The group enjoying the afternoon and evening were: honor guest, Mr. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kobler, West Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bartruff, Everett, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson and son Alois, Miss Bertha Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burns of Salem; Miss Carolyn are the children and their families; the friends; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garberino and son Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Iebam and children, Labish Center; Mr. and Mrs. Promise of Hubbard, Mrs. Boylals, Salem, Hanson Jensen, Scotts Mills, Julius Deering and sister Miss Linda Deering, Stephan Kaspar, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Garberino, Community. Mr. Jensen is a native of Denmark and an old acquaintance.

Herriot Backed On Finance Bill

PARIS, July 13.—(AP)—Premier Edouard Herriot, home from the difficult reparations negotiations at Lausanne, rode out a series of storms in the chamber of deputies Tuesday, coming out with an overwhelming vote of approval for the government finance bill, which is aimed at balancing the budget.

MOUNTGOMERY HOME ROCKY POINT, July 13.—Huston Montgomery, who has been at the U. S. Cavalry at Fort Bliss, Texas, for the past four years, has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Montgomery.

SKY QUEEN GETS HER BOW

Here's the scene inside the giant hangar at Akron, Ohio, as the nose of the new dirigible U. S. S. Macon, sister ship of the Akron, was set in place. Elaborate ceremonies marked the step towards the completion of the United States new sky queen, many distinguished visitors from the Georgia city for which the craft is named participating in the event. Inset: Miss Susan Myrick, of Macon, Ga., who blew the whistle which signaled the beginning of the placing of the bow in position.

RATIONS FOR THE B. E. F. BY AIR

Following his flight from Washington, D. C., Walter Waters, commander of the Bonus Expeditionary Forces, is shown as he supervised the loading of a plane with beef at Newark, N. J. The meat was flown to the capital for the hungry veterans. Conditions are said to be critical in the bonus camps in Washington, owing to lack of food or funds wherewith to purchase it.

More Water Talk Heard At Silverton as Second Petition is on Streets

SILVERTON, July 13.—Evidently the "water fight" begun two months ago did not finish with the recent decision of the water commission to go back on the old rates. An "answer" from the petitioners appeared on the streets here Tuesday night and has been receiving considerable attention.

The reply of the petitioners reads: "In view of the fact that a lengthy report of the proceedings of the Silverton water commission and the mayor's committee session recently held was given extensive publication, it seems no more than fair that the petitioners who asked for reduction of water rates may make known their viewpoint."

"The prayer of 715 interested patrons of the water system of Silverton should not be ignored."

Ask Another Hearing
"In view of the present depression and the fact that the wages of the workers and the profits of business have been reduced, the petitioners believe that the expense of procuring water and the expense of operating the plant should be reduced. Hence, the petition of a goodly number of the patrons of the Silverton water system asking, not demanding, a hearing."

"It is the belief of these petitioners that water can and should be furnished at lower rate than is now being charged. An examination of the books and accounts of the water commission bears out this contention. The books do not disclose very much economy in operation now being practiced. About the same expenses are kept up as prevailed during the flush and prosperous time. About the same as when the bonded indebtedness was $45,000 instead of $20,000."

Expenses Held too High
"There is no question but that the system is, and should be self-supporting. However, the petitioners believe, this does not require or justify the collection or the spending of the sum of $18,000 per year at this time. It may have been necessary when the bonds were $45,000 and interest on this whole amount had to be paid. Now that the bonds are only $20,000 and the interest is proportionately reduced it is deemed not necessary."

"A further examination of the books and accounts of the commission and their statement of June 30, 1932 discloses that the commission now has on hand and unused, the sum of $6,000 and over. If the rates charged during June 1932 were continued until next April, the time when the next $5,000 bond and interest is due, and all expenses paid as heretofore, there would be approximately $12,600 in the hands of the water commission. After paying the $5,000 bond and $900 interest April 1, 1933, there would remain $6,700 or about that sum $700 over or added to the present surplus.

Opposed to Reserve
"The petitioners, who are reasonable, honest, earnest workers and business people and our neighbors and friends, who have the best interest of the people of Silverton and community at heart, do not believe it advisable or wise or necessary at this time of shortage of money, to build up a large reserve or surplus or a large sinking fund far beyond the needs of the present and immediate future. On the other hand, they do believe that the strictest economy should be practiced. While others are taking a cut in salary and curtailing expense, the water commission should do the same."

"One of the contentions of the petitioners is they do not like the thought of being compelled to pay $1.00 minimum or a service charge which entitles them to no water. They would have been satisfied with a small amount of water for the first $1.00."

"Those petitioners who live outside of the city limits of Silverton are deserving of some consideration. They have built their own lines to connect with the Silverton system and have put in their own meters, all at their own expense. Their contributions to the Silverton system has helped to some extent to pay the expenses of operation and the payment of bonds. They should not be entirely ignored."

"The operation of the Silverton water system would run more smoothly with satisfied customers than it possibly can with even a few hundred who feel they have not been dealt with impartially and fairly."

SWIMMING TESTS FEATURED AT CAMP

CAMP SANTALY, July 13.—The girls have started working to earn Red Cross beginner's and swimmer's pins by passing certain tests which include swimming various strokes, simple diving, neck diving from the surface, floating, swimming on back and witnessing a demonstration of artificial respiration for reviving drowned persons.

Mrs. Ruth Versteeg is in charge of the swimming program. Assisting her are Dorothy Hutchason and Eileen Moore. All three are senior Red Cross life savers.

Recent visitors to camp are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyer. The camp was also visited by Mrs. Irma E. LeRiche, R. N., one of the county nurses, who came to check up on the sanitary conditions of the camp. She stated that the situation was very satisfactory.

OLDEST CHURCH TO HOLD HOMECOMING

WEST STATTON, July 13.—The Reverend J. Y. Stewart, Presbyterian minister of Albany and pastor of the Pleasant Grove church, has announced the annual homecoming to be held at the church Sunday, July 17.

The speaker at the morning service will be the Reverend W. J. Large, and in the afternoon, the Reverend G. H. Wilbur.

The church is the oldest church building in constant use west of the Rocky mountains. It was erected in 1858. The stove, which is still used to heat it was cast in 1855. The pulpit bible was presented to the church in 1857. The building is located about two miles northwest of West Statton. Basket lunch will be served.

CAPTURED

Sought for seven weeks in connection with the $104,000 Lindbergh hoax perpetrated by Gaston B. Means against Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean of Washington, D. C., Norman Whitaker (above), known as "The Fox," was arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he had been living. Whitaker is suspected of having been Means' accomplice in the ransom fraud.

for several more pickings. The West Statton team met and defeated the Yamato team of Labish Sunday afternoon by a score of 37 to 9. The game was played on the Yamato diamond.

HANSON-STEVENS REUNION SUNDAY

SILVERTON, July 13.—Plans are being completed for the Hanson Stevens reunion to be held at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Mount at Silverton Sunday. A basket dinner will be served at noon and the afternoon will be given over to reminiscing.

Mrs. Mount is one of the prominent pioneers of the Oregon country and has mothered 13 children, all of whom have been a credit to her. Her one son, Dr. Hugh Mount of Oregon City, died a year ago. Another, Wallace Mount, was supreme judge in the state of Washington at his death.

Mrs. Mount, who will be 91 at her birthday, August 15, crossed the plains with her parents in 1852. Two of her sisters are also living and are expected to attend the reunion Sunday. These are Mrs. Sarah McCubbins of Dayton, Washington, who also crossed the plains and Mrs. Fannie Cahill of Walla Walla who was born en route.

W. H. Stevens of Silverton is secretary for the family group. Mr. Stevens and his brother, Ellis Stevens are living on the old Stevens land donation claim on Howell Prairie. Mrs. Mount has been ill recently and while not fully recovered is sufficiently recovered to be looking forward to Sunday's affair.
