Best Rally in Months for Stocks. Gains Quite Well Distributed

NEW YORK, July 13 .- (AP) well-sustained recovery todale a well-sustaied recovery today, getting helpful cooperation from number of commodities. For stocks, it was the best rally in about a month and also the most active session in the same period. Net gains of 1 to 3 points were generously distributed over a list which had been wandering in a narrow range while stubbornly refusing to break through average low of early June. For domestic bonds the improvement was general, utility and rail loans joining another rise by U. S. Treasuries. Cotton closed $1 to $1.15 a bale higher and cattle crowded hogs from leadership in the livestock market. The supposition that the technical position of shares had been caponized rabbits. This should strengthened since July 1 was borne out by rather spirited advances in a few recently weak stocks, notably utilities. American Telephone, Peoples Gas and reflect a general lack of change Public Service of New Jersey jumped 2 to 3 giving that group somewhat the better of the movement. However, Case, American Can, Corn Products, American Tobacco "B," Santa Fe, Union Pacmarket are without change for ific and Allied Chemical were equally strong. U. S. Steel prethe day. Both local private and cooperative marketing interests ferred rose 3 7-8, although there are holding former prices but were even better gains in a few some undernales by outsiders are other senior equities. Transactions amounted to 977,619 shares, the largest turnover since June Higher prices are noted in the market for country killed meats | 15.

Speculators for the rise receivwhile an early advance in lambs ed encouragement from several sources. Adjournment of congress it appeared, would not be much longer delayed and the market was in a mood to anticipate that event. "Iron Age" estimated a rise of 4 points in steel produc-

wholesale way with decreasing stocks of loganbzerries, raspberries and blackcaps. Cherries are also showing a better call and Congral Markete

The third annual irrigation tour of the Willamette valley has been arranged by the Oregon Reclaration congress in cooperation with the state college extension service and will be held August 18 and 19. A year ago such a tour attracted wide attention and stimulated interest in this type of farm improvement. Wheat Open High Low Close
