

OLSON REINSTATED AS CITY FIREMAN

Service Dating to 1924 is Recognized by Civil Service Board

When hearing on the matter was held Wednesday night, commissioners indicated there would be no decision until both sides had submitted their cases, so in view of this the decision so early was unexpected.

Under the order of the commission entered yesterday, Olson's pay is retroactive to July 6, when he was removed by Chief Hutton who considered Olson was the newest man in the force and therefore automatically went out when a number had to be dismissed in keeping with the economy program. The chief held that Olson had been a member of the department since June, 1924, but Olson held that he had been in the force since 1924, and returned in June, 1931, after a six-months leave of absence.

Fact that Olson, when he returned a year ago, was put back upon the same salary basis which he held when he left six months before, is said to have weighed heavily with the commission in determining its order, which holds that Olson was also automatically placed into the service by the civil service act of June 7. With Olson reinstated, there already confers as to who will have nothing to do with that matter, and Chairman W. H. Dancy of the council's fire committee indicated last night that hiring and dismissing is almost entirely in the hands of Chief Hutton.

Under the Dome

THE secret is out, as well as the explanation why newspaper men were not invited. The picnic Sunday "under the shade of spreading oaks" near Mealla is to be given by State Treasurer and Mrs. Rufus G. Holman for members of the treasurer's office, certain state officials and others around the capitol.

Naturally since members of the press gallery write for different papers over the state, and these papers have been named respectively the "un-sidled press," they couldn't be invited. No-not sour grapes—just a simple statement of interesting news. Holman is reputed good host and the invited guests will have a good time.

But thanks just the same, Rufus, the newspaperman couldn't go anyhow, since another big event, staged annually, and long in the making likewise takes place Sunday. The picnic of the women's press club at Riverdale, from past experience, these affairs are really the real stuff.

All this surely must make opponents of the merger feel just a little more cheerful. The quickest way to lose a battle is to have dissension breaking out within the ranks. But the state is still waiting for the truth behind the hour, and until it gets further "publicity" will be of no avail for the proponents of the college consolidation. "You can't fool all the people all the time," Lincoln once said.

News dispatches state Senator McNary was presented with a fine tray as a gift from his colleagues. What a timely gift, with the repeal of the 18th amendment a probability. Trays now appear to be a favorite bridge prize—we won a beauty once—which must be some kind of an omen.

FREE GARDEN SEED FOUND PRODUCTIVE

Reports of the check-up on garden seeds given away early this spring are excellent, according to Miss Thora Boser, local secretary of the Red Cross. With a very few exceptions the gardens have been productive, the produce being used both for immediate use and canning. Altogether 208 packages containing seeds of most common vegetables were distributed. Each package provided seed for a good sized garden.

Power applications for work and aid have been received at the Red Cross during June and July, in the report. May was one of the heaviest months ever experienced. It is believed that if the present weather conditions continue and with the coming full in fruit work, more applications will be received.

CLUB TO PICNIC

KINGWOOD, July 14—Members of the Book and Thimble club are reminded that the annual picnic will be held Friday night, July 15 at the home of Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre. All members are expected to bring contributions to a covered dish supper.

HOSS SENDS BILLS FOR LICENSE FEES

Bills will be sent out by the secretary of state in an effort to collect at least a part of $73,000 said to be due the state from contract haulers in unpaid license fees. This was announced at the state department Thursday.

The amount due the state was determined recently by Secretary Hoss following an audit of the contract hauler's accounts. The audit was referred to the attorney general.

The unpaid license fees were declared to have resulted from a suit filed in July 1930, by the Portland Van & Storage company and others, attacking the constitutionality of the law imposing additional license fees on motor vehicles operating as contract haulers. A temporary restraining order was issued March 17, 1930. The state later demurred to the complaint with the result that the demurrer was sustained. In the meantime the license fees were not collected.

Hoss declared Thursday that some of the contract haulers had alleged that they had not operated during the time in which the restraining order was in effect, while others had expressed a willingness to pay the amount of the claims.

The audit was made by the state department under Hoss' supervision.

Brigadier-General Thomas E. Riley is back in Washington, D. C. in attendance at some National Guard affair. With Riley gone east and General George A. White and Colonel Ray Olson at Fort Lewis, the National Guard offices here are more quiet. But those in command say everything is under control.

Being "only a newspaperman" may come in for a lot of wisecracks at the state editorial association gridiron banquet tonight. All the newspapermen in the state who can possibly get there will be at the big dinner starting at 6:30 in the Multnomah hotel. The remark was made officially in the Oregon capitol several weeks ago, as all rec.

Newspapermen and guests will long remember the gridiron banquet at Salem last year when the state editorial association met here. Hal E. Hoss was chairman of that event, and it was a real party. Walter May of the Oregonian will be chairman of the dinner tonight, and a lively program has been announced.

Boy Scout Camp Getting Started

From 35 to 45 boys are now in camp near Mealla at the annual summer camp conducted by the local Boy Scout organization and an enrollment of 60 boys is expected by next week. O. P. West, Cascade Area scout executive, reported while in the city for a short time this week. The boys are having a great time in a diversified program of recreational activities. The camp is being conducted in three one-week periods, some of the boys planning to stay through the entire three-week period which will end July 31. The charge for the camp is $6 a week a boy, two weeks being charged at $11.

LIONS HEAR ABOUT G.O.P. CONVENTION

First hand description of the republican national convention was given to the Salem Lions club Thursday noon by Miss Allene Phillips, secretary to Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state.

Miss Phillips described interestingly the trip with the delegation to Chicago, the convention hall which seated 10,000 giving the members a very good idea how the delegates were seated and what transpired. She also mentioned Floyd Gibbons, Will Rogers and other men nationally known. Miss Phillips stated that the convention opened on Flag day and she described the tribute to the flag by the 10,000 present. She stated that the convention was a Hoover convention from the very start there being no doubt at any time but that President Hoover would be nominated. Miss Phillips was strong in her praise for the Chicago citizens' committee which handled the convention. While in Chicago Miss Phillips attended the National convention of the Zonta club.

George Hossman furnished several number on his accordion for the Lions during their luncheon. O. D. Olson, first vice president of the club presided in the absence of the president, W. B. Newmyer, who is attending the state Lions' convention at Klamath Falls.

CALL MORE JURORS FOR MURDER CASES

Two additional jurors were drawn yesterday by County Clerk Eger and Sheriff Oscar Bower. The added names being needed on the panel to handle the four murder cases set for the July term of court. There are now 35 men and women in the county drawn for this term of court. The trial of Durooa Poe, first of the alleged slayers of Night Watchman Irwin of Silverton, starts next Wednesday. Jurors drawn yesterday were:

John H. Lauterman, Salem No. 18, hotel; Martin Martin, Astoria, housewife; Laura W. Holder, Rosedale, housewife; William T. Hogg, Scotts Mills, farmer; Rita Wolfe, Salem, No. 5, housewife; Mary E. Wells, Salem, No. 22, housewife; Joseph Bort, West Mt. Angel, farmer; C. B. Cooper, Salem, No. 13, machanic; Clarence W. Stacey, Brandt, fur breeder; Lewis C. Brandt, North Silverton, farmer.

200 Working on Road Jobs for Marion County

Road construction work for Marion county is now employing about 200 men a day, Frank Johnson, roadmaster, estimates. Four main jobs are now under way and the crews will be kept busy on the present projects and others until well into September. Grading work will probably be finished then while rocking of the roads will continue throughout October.

Johnson said 120 men and teams were employed at $1 daily while 80 to 90 day laborers were being employed at $1 a day. The majority of the workers are farmers who supplement their farm income by the road work. The four projects now under construction are: Market road eight near Donald, two miles on the Silverton-Silver Creek road near the North Falls, three miles on the Richey market road, slightly more than one mile from the bottom of Ankeny hill to the end of the nine-foot county pavement.

Puts aeroplane performance in your car!—

"FLYING A" aero-type gasoline, with road-proven anti-knock performance, equal to finest aviation gasolines in octane stability

THERE'S a new gasoline. It is Associated "FLYING A", the result of 4 exclusive developments in refining. You'll notice the difference. That smooth, zooming response which you feel with "FLYING A" in the tank is a new sensation. It is aeroplane performance in your car. Something new. Something you'll like!

Aeroplane performance in your car. Only the vital "heart-cut" from selected gasoline crudes could produce this gasoline. In every gallon there's a full gallon of vital value. No waste. Only fractions that work for you.

"FLYING A" works quietly. It has identically the same octane stability required in aviation gasolines. Sustained anti-knock performance no matter how hard or fast you drive! It's octane stability that counts! Not only high octane numbers. Hours and hours of driving in cars like yours proved the superiority of "FLYING A." Actual road performance—not alone laboratory tests. Try it, as we did, on the road. Your smiling Associated Service-man has a tank-full awaiting you at the red, green and cream "FLYING A" pump. 4 Exclusive Developments 1. Octane stability—sustained anti-knock performance no matter how hard or fast you drive. 2. Heart-cut of the crude, only vital gasoline fractions retained. 3. Equal-fractionating process, to assure Starting, Pick-up, Power, Speed and Mileage; not just one alone. 4. Climatically correct, in accord with weather temperatures where and when you buy it.

Mickey Mouse NOTES

Everything is all set—next Saturday July 23, we're going to have the breakfast party on the courthouse lawn.

We'll have a broadcasting outfit, so that you'll be able to hear the program that is being arranged.

M.M.C. But this Saturday there's also the regular weekly good time in store for you. Swell program, with a show suitable for Mickey Mice—"Million Dollar Legs"—a story of an Olympic runner whose legs are valued at one million dollars.

M.M.C. The pictures that were taken at the playgrounds will be on display tomorrow in front of the theatre, and if there's a ring around your picture you get in the show free.

M.M.C. The bicycle in the contest was won by Steven Kerber. Congratulations Steven.

M.M.C. Uncle Churchmouse says, "Most fellows don't wake up 't find themselves famous; they usually dream they are famous—an' wake up."

M.M.C. Corn Edgell has just returned from a week's vacation at the beach.

M.M.C. Please let Chief Minnie Mouse Ella know when you change your address, because you never know when she might send you something of interest.

M.M.C. Isn't the new serial swell. Chapter two tomorrow.

M.M.C. There surely was some crowd last Saturday, and the way they clapped for Van Frigard, and Lyle Heckinger—I thought the house was going to fall down. They were encored twice and had to take a half dozen bows before they could quiet the Mice. It seemed everybody was a big hit Saturday. The others were "Dob" Anderson—(and wotta tap dancer), Bobby Krechter—(and can be sing), Evangeline Millard, (took the house like a storm), and Phyllis Selander, from Barbara Barnes School of dance, (who showed something new in the way of acrobatics), and the Mickey Mouse orchestra.

M.M.C. So Long ZOLLIE.
