

Local News Briefs

Accidents Numerous—Reports of accidents were filed with the city police yesterday as follows: Mrs. L. L. Pearson, 845 Market street, and D. R. Schlerman, 1890 North Church, at Church and Market streets; George Meyer, Mt. Angel, and A. C. Haight, 2282 Simpson street, at Mill and 12th streets; Carleton L. Roth, 1113 North Cottage, and Glenn Burright, 230 N. Liberty which happened July 13 as Roth's truck was backing in an alley; Cecil E. Rice, route nine, and R. Alzman, 1790 South Capitol, and Joe King, Jr., Y. M. C. A., and E. L. Coffey, 1205 Leslie street, at Leslie and 12th.

Brake Talkie Here—The only talking moving picture about automobile brakes will be shown at the chamber of commerce auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock by the Colyear Motor Sales company and the B. and P. Paris store here, in conjunction with the Thermold Rubber company which is releasing the film. Anyone interested in the subject is invited to attend, says Ray W. Taylor, Colyear manager, and especially are garagemen, service station attendants and particularly brakemen urged to see the film, showing of which takes about an hour and 15 minutes. The show particularly displays a new type brake being brought out on 1932 cars, the Bendix-Lockheed.

Three Building Permits—Three building permits, including one for construction of a new residence, were issued yesterday by the city building inspector, as follows: Ludwick Mickelson, to erect an $1800 house at 1215 North 15th; L. Miller, to repair dwelling at 260 Marion at estimated cost of $500; and G. W. Moore, 711 North 16th, alterations at $45 estimate.

Suspended—License of Eugene Byland, arrested for speeding, was suspended for five days when defendant appeared before Police Judge Poulsen yesterday.

Released—Ted Bradshaw, alias Dick Murphy, was released from the city jail yesterday. He was arrested several days ago on a check charge.

Not Guilty—G. A. Allen was found not guilty on a reckless driving charge after trial in justice court yesterday.

MIKE SMITH DENIES BURGLARY CHARGE

Mike Smith, one of a trio held in the county jail for burglary of the Harry Thomas house at Donald last December 1, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in justice court yesterday morning, and preliminary hearing was set for this morning at 10 o'clock. Bail, set at $3000, was not raised and he is in the county jail.

Smith, with Leo Smith and Bill McCaffrey who have not yet been brought into justice court, have been held in the jail here for several days. The charge is burglary in a dwelling in the night time. The trio are alleged to have entered the Thomas house while the owners were in the east, and to have stolen a large quantity of articles, ranging from small items to bed clothes.

Leo Smith was picked up in Oregon City, held for the sheriff's office here, and the other two men were arrested by Deputy Walt Barber of the sheriff's office.

The three, with Don Ramey, were arrested for larceny last March 5. As a outcome of that, the two Smiths were sentenced to a year each and paroled by Judge L. H. McMahan of circuit court, and McCaffrey was given a two-year sentence and paroled. Action was dropped against Ramey.

Probe of Copco Rates Started; Hearing not Set

Investigation of the rates, charges and practices of the California & Oregon Power company in southern Oregon is now under way, it was announced at the offices of the public utilities commission Thursday. The date for the formal hearing will be set later.

Engineers are now at work investigating the records, books and accounts of the company at Medford. Other engineers will be assigned to field operations at Klamath Falls. Officials said it would require several weeks to complete the preliminary investigations.

Fix Premium to Protect Firemen

A premium calculated on a wage of $20 per month, in addition to that received by volunteer firemen operating exclusively within municipal boundaries, has been fixed by the state industrial accident commission for volunteer firemen operating outside of cities who are under protection of the workmen's compensation law. The new order becomes effective August 1.

Predicts Special Session—Prediction of a special session of the legislature before the end of the year was made by Frank Andrews, representative from Multnomah county who was in the city yesterday on business. Andrews thinks license fees must be cut and he believes now is the time to effect a quarterly license payment plan. He was ranking member of the highway committee in the house in the 1932 session.

Spot dance Friday Hazel Green.

In Union Service—The Salem Reformed church, of which Rev. W. G. Lienkaemper is pastor, will join the fifth annual union services of the Portland Reformed church Sunday. The meeting will be held at Roesche's woods, near Wilsonville. In event of rain, the usual services will be held at the local church instead of the union session at Wilsonville.

On Institute Faculty—Miss Margaret Stephenson, director of religious education at the First M. E. church here, will return Sunday from the Epworth league institute at Little River, near Roseburg, which has been in session this week. Miss Stephenson has been one of the institute instructors.

Holt Managing Hotel—Archie Holt, former manager of the Capital theatre here, has recently assumed the management of the New Salem hotel. Improvements to the front of the building and a general overhauling of the lobby are planned.

John Kelly Visitor—John W. Kelly, chief of the Oregonian news bureau at Washington, spent part of Thursday in Salem where he paid his respects to Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, and other officials. Kelly covered each successive session of the legislature here for many years, and is well known to state officials. He is now enjoying a two weeks' vacation in the west.

Gas Stealing—Willie Stalke and Kenneth Hoogerhyde, arrested for stealing gas, were yesterday certified to the juvenile court from the city police department.

Wants Mortgage Paid—Suit to foreclose a mortgage for $1900 was begun in circuit court yesterday by Henry Rablke against John Williamson and others. Interest and costs are asked in addition to the face of the note.

Picnic Cancelled—Weather conditions called a halt to the Fraternal club picnic, scheduled for Riverside park last night, and instead the regular meeting was held at the Spa, with no major business coming up and no speaker on hand.

Settlement of $2600—Settlement of $2600 for a claim of the estate of Babette Ronner, deceased, was made known yesterday in probate court when Emil Ronner, administrator, filed his report there. The funds were received from the Bekins Moving, Storage and Household Shipping company as full payment for a claim held by the deceased's estate.

At White Home—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson and daughter of Klamath Falls are visiting at the home of their uncle, B. F. White, 457 South 16th.

Deer Untagged—Chris LaChelle, arrested for possession of an untagged deer hide, pleaded not guilty in justice court yesterday and his case was tentatively set for July 22. He is out on his own recognizance.

Suit Filed—The Travellers insurance company filed suit yesterday in circuit court here, asking foreclosure of a mortgage of $11,000 along with interest and costs. Defendants are Walter L. Fuller and others.

Final Account in—Final account of the estate of the late Clarissa E. Miller was filed yesterday in probate court by Paul W. Miller, administrator. Income in cash has been $1368 and outgo $768. The sum of $571 is on hand to distribute to three sons and two daughters.
