

McKINNEY-DARBY CLAN HAS REUNION

Salem man Elected President of Group, Which Meets at old Home

TURNER, July 14—The 11th annual reunion of the McKinney-Darby families was held Sunday at the usual picnic ground on the old William W. McKinney farm four miles southeast of Turner. Relatives were present from Seattle, Portland, Vancouver, from Linn county and nearby points. Over 100 partook of the bountiful dinner in the shade of large fir trees. A short program was enjoyed.

J. W. McKinney expressed appreciation of the lives of four members who passed away during the year. They were E. J. Bower, J. D. Darby, Hon. C. A. Johns, and Clinton Tracy. It was noted that the Darby members outnumbered those of the McKinney families for the first time on the annual picnic.

The officers for the next year are: president, W. W. McKinney of Salem, and Mrs. Mary McKinney, secretary-treasurer. Children of the original family present were: John and Mayro McKinney, Mrs. Fanny Ball, Mrs. Alice Tracy and Mrs. Onie Longworth. Mrs. Martha Adams of Portland, the eldest living child, and Miss Ann McKinney of Turner, were unable to be present. Mr. and Mrs. William W. McKin-

Woodburn News

WOODBURN, July 14—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hall attended a meeting of the Rolofson clan Sunday in Portland. The meeting was to have been in Laurelhurst park but the rain made it necessary to hold it in the Washington Masonic hall. There were about 70 in attendance.

Arthur Johnson succeeded W. W. Hall as president of the clan. The secretary-treasurer is Camille Hall White. There were a number of impromptu speeches and a banquet. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hall and their daughter Mary Jo, of St. Louis, were the persons from the farthest distant point to attend.

Garden Club Elects
Mrs. Richard Yates was elected president of the Woodburn Garden Club Tuesday night when the regular business meeting was held in the social rooms of the city library. Mrs. Walter Schooler is vice president and secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Guy Engle. Retiring president is Mrs. Ida Parr. There was a lengthy discussion concerning the advisability of cleaning up a number of unsightly lots in the city. Mrs. J. J. Hall was appointed press correspondent. Other officers and committees will be appointed later. Next month's meeting will be held in the yards belonging to Mrs. Richard Yates and Mrs. Guy Engle.

Last Logans Received
Wednesday was the last day that uncontracted loganberries were received at the Ray-Brown cannery. Whether or not the amount of contracted berries received will warrant the local plant's operation is not known. Some believe that the contracted berries will be shipped to Hillsboro for canning.

Henry Alhier, who lives about three miles east of Woodburn, is in a Salem hospital in a critical condition. He is suffering with a malady of the brain.

Ladies Aid Meets
Mrs. Stanley Adams was hostess to the Ladies Aid society of the Woodburn Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. A special feature of the meeting was a musical program, which was under the direction of Mrs. Elburn T. Sims.

The program was: two piano duets, by Marybelle and Alice May Adams; a group of songs, sung by Patty Sims, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Proctor; two selections by the Woodburn lyric trio, made up of Mrs. Paul Pemberton, Helen and Joyce Woodfin; a group of duets, played on two pianos, by Joyce and Helen Woodfin; and a song by Burton Williford.

The meeting was, of course, opened by the president, Mrs. Layman. Devotional services were led by Mrs. O. R. Duncan. Special visitors for the meeting were Mrs. Rox Red, Mrs. G. W.

Knotts, Mrs. Raymond Kramer, Mrs. Frank MacCama, and Mrs. Frank Proctor, all of Woodburn; Mrs. Cecil Ideo of San Francisco, and Miss Faye Foster of Bend.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Stanley Adams, Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. Clara Pike and Mrs. W. H. Bohn.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid society will be held Wednesday afternoon, August 10, in the beautiful garden of Mrs. O. W. Noyes. Additional hostesses will be Mrs. C. R. Duncan, Miss Mollie Voorhees and Mrs. M. J. Miller.
