Efforts of city police yesterday brought to light more articles stolen from the A. J. Burnside house, 725 1/2 North Church street, the night of July 1. The additional articles, which with those already found comprise the bulk of the missing property, were found in a Portland shop, where the State Hospital robbers had sold them.

Carroll Wright and Clarence Turner are held for the job, and have pleaded guilty. They will come up for sentence before Judge McMahan Monday. Turner was charged with burglary and Wright with receiving and concealing stolen property. Wright was arrested here the Saturday night fol- hospital here, escaped from the lowing the theft, and Turner in McMinnville July 5.

The same night Burnside's house was ransacked while he was 1931, while Fisher was commitaway, goods were also stolen from Episcopal rector. Both jobs were credited to Wright and Turner. Portland.

Britain, Ireland Cannot Agree on Economic Accord

LONDON, July 15 .- (AP) -All efforts by Prime Minister Ramsey MacDonald and President de Valera of the Irish Free State to avert an Anglo-Irish economic war, with tariffs as the weapons, failed tonight, and tomorrow Mr. MacDonald will fly to Lossiemouth, Scotland, while Mr. de Valera will return to Dublin.

The Irish reprisal duties bill, drawn up by the De Valera government in retaliation against the 20 per cent tariffs imposed against the principal imports from reland into Britain, goes to the Irish senate Monday. It cannot be blocked there and early next week It may become effective.
