Beta Chi Honored Wednesday Evening

The home of Dr. and Mrs. B. H. White on North Capitol street was the scene of an attractive affair Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Eloise White assisted by Miss Lila Carter entertained members of the Beta Chi sorority with a delightful evening of bridge.

Gladioli in vivid hues were arranged in lovely bouquets about the spacious rooms of the White home where markers at bridge were arranged for Miss Faye Cornutt, Miss Ethel Adams, Miss Carolyn Braden, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Ruth Fick, Miss Savilla Phelps, Miss Margaret Purvine, Miss Gaynelle Beckett, Miss Florence Power, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle and Miss Rosemary. Miss Ethel Adams presided as hostess. The afternoon was spent informally with sewing and conversation, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. Those in the group included, Mrs. Oliver Huston, Mrs. Edwin Viesko, Mrs. Mike Pasek, Mrs. Knight Pearey, Mrs. E. H. White, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Carl Emmons, and the hostess, Mrs. David Bennett Hill.

Mrs. Merrill Oiling is convalescing at her home on South High street after having undergone a major operation recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding and daughter Leone, left a few days ago for Newport where they will pass the next two weeks.

Mrs. Elsie Bolt Bridge Hostess

Independence—Mrs. Elsie Bolt of the training school faculty entertained Friday at a delightful formal 7 o'clock dinner party and "apartment shower" in honor of Mrs. Mona D. Sheldon who will live in an apartment in Eugene while attending university during a year's leave of absence from her position as seventh grade critic of the Independence training school.

The evening was spent at bridge with four tables of cards in play. Miss Henrietta Woller held high score cards and Mrs. Clara Thompson, low score.

Invited guests were Misses Helen Martin, Oma Belle Emmons, Mary Donaldson, Vera Johnson, Fay Johnson, Mesdames Helen Nelson, Clara Thompson, Della Keener, Mona Sheidin, Sophia Barnum, all of Independence; Misses Migonne Goddard, Henrietta Woolfer, Florence Beardsley, Hazel Kirk, and Hilda Topp of Monmouth; Leila Howe of Estacada, and Mrs. F. M. Martin of Santa Monica, Cal.

The Hi Pats of Jason Lee church will meet Thursday evening

The Hi Pats of Jason Lee church will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the fireplace room of the church. Miss Catha Bressler, chief Pat, will preside and Miss Hallie Chamberlain, social pat, has planned a surprise for the group's play hour. All members are urged to be there since there will not be an assembly the first Thursday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Trauger of Lindsay, Cal., who have been house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delaney on North Summer street for the past few days, left Salem Wednesday by motor for their home in California. Mr. Trauger made the trip to Oregon especially to enjoy the fishing which the Oregon streams afford.

Mrs. Claude Wright and son Richard of Portman, were guests Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ed Wright in the Fisher Apartments. They returned to their home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. M. LeFurgy Dinner Hostess Tuesday

One of the smart social affairs of the week was the dinner party given Tuesday evening with Mrs. Margaret LeFurgy as hostess in her attractive suburban home "Monmouth Orchards." The affair was in compliment to a group of intimate friends of the honor guest.

A mixed bouquet of summer flowers centered the dinner table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith and son Ervin Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Homer Smith Jr., Miss Margaret Cooley, Miss Frances Mott and the hostess, Miss Margaret LeFurgy.

Salem Couple Celebrate Anniversary

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson and Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of West Salem, accompanied by a big picnic and family reunion recently to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wilkinson of Mill City, who had been married 50 years July 4.

This date was also the birthday of four of the relatives present at the celebration, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of West Salem, Miss Carmen Decker of Pocatello, Idaho, Miss Hope Wilkinson of Turner, and Mrs. Alice Chance of Mill City.

The picnic and family get-together was held near Gates and all seven of the living children were present as well as over 40 grand and great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson and small son Stephen, accompanied by their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and young son Richard of Seattle, returned home Sunday evening from Nelscott Beach where they have been vacationing for the past fortnight. Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Hockett joined the group and they were additional guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's for the past week.

Aurora—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Glibreath and daughter Joan, who joined Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Horn and child of Portland in a motor trip to DeLake, have returned after a few days outing.

They were guests of William C. Hern and family who have a summer cottage at the resort.

Turner.—The women of the Christian Church Missionary society will hold their July meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. S. Riches. Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap will present the subject and there will be special music. The annual picnic of the society will be held the third Thursday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. George Friday of Hood River were the weekend house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson.

Jason Lee Group Present Play

A three-act comedy which promises unusual opportunity for laughs is "Skyriders," which is being presented by the Jason Lee Young People's council at Jason Lee church, Friday evening, July 22, at 8 o'clock. Miss Beulah Graham, member of the national fraternity of drama, Theta Alpha Phi, and member of the June '32 class of Willamette university is directing the production. A group who are especially interested in drama are taking part in the comedy. The institute fund is to be benefitted by proceeds from the play.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferens Steiner of Portland are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter, born Sunday, July 17, at the Portland Sanitarium. The little lady has been named Diana Regina. Mrs. Steiner will be remembered to Salem friends as Miss Elizabeth Levy, prominent and accomplished violinist.

Mrs. Ed Schreiber and infant daughter arrived Thursday afternoon from Portland, to make their new home in Salem. They will be "at home" to their friends at 453 South High street. Mr. Schreiber is manager of the new Pay and Take It store in South Salem.

Mrs. Miles McKey and children Mercedes and Bobby are planning to leave Monday by motor for San Francisco, where they will visit relatives for the remainder of the summer season.

Suver—Sam Murrer and Loveta McLean were married Tuesday. They are making their home in Corvallis.

NEAT, WHAT?

Looking for all the world like split sections of a langurine, this neat little turban, worn by lovely Babe Shanton, is the newest chapeau for all round use. It is fashioned of orange velvet stripes on a foundation of black net. Smart and comfortable, it can be worn for afternoon tea, dinner, or to the theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Briggs and daughter Barbara of Yakima, Washington, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. Briggs' sister, Mrs. Russell Bonesteel, left Wednesday by motor for a vacation at the Oregon beaches. They plan to return to their Washington home during the latter part of July.

Mrs. Frederick K. Conover of Madison, Wisconsin, is expected to arrive in Salem Friday morning from California where she has been sojourning recently, to visit at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. Wells Baum.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mott motored to Portland Thursday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Amicitian Club At Hill Home

Members of the Amicitian Club were joyfully entertained Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. David Bennett Hill was hostess in her attractive home on South Church street.

The afternoon was spent informally with sewing and conversation, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. Those in the group included, Mrs. Oliver Huston, Mrs. Edwin Viesko, Mrs. Mike Pasek, Mrs. Knight Pearey, Mrs. E. H. White, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Carl Emmons, and the hostess, Mrs. David Bennett Hill.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

This delightful home frock that is so becoming to the larger figure affords excellent opportunity to use one of the gay cotton prints in Vogue. The scalloped details and stitched pleats are so designed to disguise one's contour. The vestee of contrasting color has a smart treatment of lapels and tie ends. It is such a practical frock and so inexpensive to make.

Pattern 2377. Mrs. B. ordered only in sizes 36 to 48. Size 38 requires 3 7/8 yards of 36-inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrasting.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. Your summer wardrobe can be planned easily and inexpensively with the assistance of our current 22-page fashion catalog. The best of the season's afternoon, sports and evening frocks, lingerie, house dresses and kiddies' models all personally chosen by Anne Adams, are made available through this beautiful book. Send for your copy today. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West Fifth Street, New York City.
