state, told the jury the state's outline of how the murder took place and declared testimony would be offered to prove each point. Paul Burris, representing Poe, said his client had asked the jury either to find him guilty as charged or else acquit him. Thursday morning the jurors, the judge and the attorneys went to the scene of the crime as well as to the Wheatley farm where Manning, Ripley and Poe are said to have met before the murder, and to the Sims' house in Salem where the car was stolen which was used in the trip to Silverton where the Club pool hall was to be robbed.

SILVERTON, July 21—The murder of H. J. Iverson, night watchman at Silverton, who was shot early May 2, 1931, was vividly recalled here Thursday morning when Dupree Poe, on trial for the murder, handed out to Sergeant Dodele and accompanying 12 jurors two alternate jurors, Marion county's two bailiffs, Sheriff O. D. Bower, Deputy Sam Burkhardt, Judge Wilson, and the attorneys visited the scene of the crime.

The bullet holes, made by the shot that killed Iverson are still in the wall of the pool hall on Oak street. These were examined and the position which the murderer was said to have occupied when the crime was committed was commented upon.

Poe remained remarkably calm and indifferent during the ordeal.

Salem theatre-goers are all set and ready for a real treat, and are awaiting with much interest the first appearance here of the Durwin players, well-known all-star cast, which has been playing in Portland for the past few years.

The Durwin players will make their initial showing here, tonight only, at Warner Bros. Capitol, when they will present "Rough Women," popular New York comedy success.

This is the first tour of this company in the northwest after having played 1900 Portland performances. Seat reservations may be had by calling the Capitol theatre.

LAD CHARGED WITH RECKLESS DRIVING

Walter McDougall Jr. was arrested and held into justice court yesterday charged with reckless driving as result of an automobile mishap which occurred here June 25. McDougall was certified to the juvenile court, being only 16 years old, and released on his own recognizance until Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when he will appear before Judge J. C. Slegmund in the juvenile court.

The boy is accused of driving down North Cottage street in such a manner as to endanger the life of Mrs. Fred Barker and Virgil Carl. When McDougall met another car at an intersection, he swerved his car, it taking to the sidewalk for 100 feet, barely avoiding hitting the two mentioned, according to the complaint. The complaint was made by Mrs. Barker.

PRUSSIA QUIET AS VON PAPAN RULES

BERLIN, July 21—(AP)—Dictatorship gripped the state of Prussia with a hand of iron today and, although there were stirrings of opposition, it appeared the people would wait peacefully for the Reichstag elections July 31 to voice their opinions.

In Berlin and the province of Brandenburg, both under martial law, business went on as usual while Chancellor Franz Von Papan, self-appointed federal commissioner of the state, presided over the first session of the new Prussian cabinet.

The ousted members of the old cabinet held a meeting of their own to formulate a formal protest against their dismissal to be laid before President Von Hindenburg.

It was announced that on July 31 the supreme court at Leipzig will hear the charge by the deposed Prussian ministry that the federal government acted unconstitutionally in appointing Chancellor Von Papan federal commissioner in charge of the state with dictatorial powers.

Mickey Mouse NOTES

Sorry to say, but the Mickey Mouse breakfast party scheduled for tomorrow morning has been called off.

M. M. C.

Miss Zelma Luthy from Barbara Barnes School of Dance is going to present a small revue, and she promises that it's going to be good.

She doesn't have to promise, because we all know that whatever she puts out is good.

M. M. C.

To the first ten people that come to the show tomorrow I will give three whistles if they ask me for them.

M. M. C.

Maybe I'm letting myself into something, but I hope not.

M. M. C.

We're going to have a Mickey Mouse cartoon tomorrow.

M. M. C.

I guess we found a new star in Bonner Dickson (some step-children)—others on the program, which made it one of the best programs ever were, Orville Beardley, Ruth Fargo, Patty De-sart, Mildred Heckinger, Robert James, and of course Roy Mack with that tuncful ukelele of his.

M. M. C.

Well, let's take a look and see what Uncle Churchmouse has to say. Here we are. He says, "When you get into deep water, keep yer mouth shut"

M. M. C.

Warner Baxter and Janet Gaynor in "Amateur Daddy" is the feature for tomorrow.

M. M. C.

I want to see you all tomorrow at 12:45 o'clock!

So Long,
ZOLLIE.

PETITION THEFT IS LAID TO BROWNELL

"I believe the evidence justifies the serving of the complaint. The whole transaction will be revealed in the preliminary hearing of Mr. Brownell."

The preliminary hearing, authorities indicated, probably will be held next week.

For several years Brownell was a partner of S. H. Stocum, who was in charge of the school petition circulated in this district. Although the partnership was dissolved some time ago, the two men continued to occupy the same office. When informed of Brownell's arrest today Stocum said: "This certainly floors a fellow. The whole thing is a mess—a nasty mess."

The complaint against Brownell specifically charges that he "did take, steal and carry away two hundred sets of printed and signed initiative petitions for a bill moving university, normal and law schools of the state of Oregon, and establishing junior colleges, initiated by Taxpayers Equalization league of the state of Oregon, Marion county."

The petitions, the complaint said, were valued at more than 25 cents each and had an aggregate value of more than $35 and were the property of Henry Zorn, Willard H. Stevens and others.

IDAHO PEOPLE VISIT WALDO HILLS, July 21—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Purvis have as their guests, Mrs. Purvis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Crowley, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Crowley and their little son, Miss Gertrude, all of Weiser, Idaho, and Mrs. C. J. Swearington of Fruitland, Idaho. The senior Mr. and Mrs. Crowley will spend the rest of the summer here. G. B. Crowley who is an employee of the Montgomery Ward company in Weiser is on his vacation and with his family will leave Friday on the return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wallin and children are enjoying a family reunion this week. As an interesting part of the festivities, the group motored to Newport where they passed a pleasant weekend boating and deep-sea fishing.

Roy L. Wallin, who is a member of the staff of the Washington, D. C., motored to Salem to visit his parents and attend the reunion. Miss Tressa Wallin arrived recently from Los Angeles to be with the family during the week.
