COSTUME PARTY IS HELD BY RESERVES

CAMP SANTALY, July 21.—The girls at camp had another very delightful costume party Tuesday evening about the camp fire. They represented characters in books for the most part. There was Chief Multnomah, an Old Fashioned Girl, Amy in "Little Women", Dixie in "Cimarron", Scherazade in the "Arabian Nights", Pear Blossom in "Sons" a recent book by Pearl Buck, the Milk Maid who counted her chickens before they were hatched, the Italian Lily, Kathie Brown, Fiesche, the Health Girl, and the Dancing Girl. There were groups also: the Gymnasium Girl of the gay 90's compared with the two modern athletic girls of 1932; the Paul Bunyan family, the giant logger himself, the wife, and the baby who frequently let out a wail; the nine members of the Paget family in "Mother" by Kathleen Norris, who acted out a scene showing the family getting ready for Julia's wedding.

Utterback and family, who owned a 20 acre ranch near the Big Chief store, and until two years ago resided there, recently traded for 154 acres about seven miles out on the Wallace road, and will take possession October 1. Mr. Utterback is well known through the district where he has been field manager for the Associated Seed company of Salinas, California. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Collins, parents of Mrs. Charles Andersen are moving from their home on the Fairgrounds road, to the Andrews place across from the school. Olmstead's, who formerly occupied the place have moved to Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Becroft of Minnesota, were visitors at the Lytel home Tuesday. They have also been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isahel Becroft of Salem, where ten of the 12 living children gathered last week for a family reunion.

GRANGE OPPOSES $3 SCALE ON HIGHWAY

SILVERTON, July 21.—J. L. Stalker of Silvertton, R. Titus of Stayton and J. A. VanCleave of Monitor formed a committee which drew up a resolution passed at Pomona grange Wednesday opposing Governor Meier's recent recommendation to pay $3 for a 6-hour day for highway workers. The resolution as passed reads: "Resolved that Marion Pomona grange in regular session with Red Hills, July 20, regard with great disfavor the recent action of Gov. Julius L. Meier in recommending that the highway department pay $3 a day for a six-hour day emergency work. At a time when the farmer is not able to earn 50 cents a day labor income, we feel it is an imposition for him to be compelled to pay taxes to support a laborer scale so much above what he is able to earn." Attending from the Silvertton community granges were Gid Bowen and Mr. Stalker from the Silvertton grange and Mrs. L. O. Hadley from the Silvertton Hills grange.

Parasited Earwig Colonies Released As Dallas Benefit

DALLAS, July 21.—Two colonies of parasited earwigs were released in Dallas this week by local business men and others interested in ridding the city of the earwig horde. The colonies were divided into eight groups of approximately 500 each and two such groups were released in each precinct. Authorities on the extermination of earwigs recommended one colony for a town the size of Dallas but two colonies were secured in order to deal a real blow to the pests while it was possible to get the parasites. Those in charge of the work stated that they did not expect great results from the parasites this fall but feel sure that the results will be noticeable next spring.
