Attention of Large Groups Drawn Toward Jolly Fascination of Benefits This Fortnight

Summer Society Stirs to Step Forth and in Large Numbers Assist Club and Church Alike

BENEFITS seem almost too strenuous for languid days of summer but the weather man this year conspired with ambitious matrons and the result that July will have to its credit two very large bridge benefits, one for church and one for club assistance.

The benefit planned for this week is that to be given Wednesday by the members of Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The affair is planned for the beautiful gardens of the rural home of Mrs. Homer Goulet.

Bridge will be in play during the early afternoon hours, Mrs. Wallace Carson is taking care of the reservations. Guests will bring their own card and table accessories.

At the tea hour which will follow bridge Mrs. Margaret LeFurgy and Mrs. George Swift will preside at the tea urns and Mrs. V. R. Griggs, and Mrs. U. G. Shipley will cut ices.

Mrs. John Caughell, Jr., Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Richard Stoltz, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Rosevena Eyre, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Kay Goulet, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Emyln Griggs, Miss Eleanor Swift, Miss Alice Swift, and Miss Bertha Babcock will assist in serving.

The second benefit of the fortnight was that sponsored by the women of Ilahee Golf club in the spacious and picturesque clubhouse Friday afternoon. Cards were in play at 25 tables arranged on the wide-sweeping veranda and in the club lounge.

Gladioli in regal bouquets made effective flower arrangements about the veranda and lounge and low baskets of sweet peas added dainty beauty.

The tea table was centered with a pretty combination of sweet peas and larkspur and this flanked with green tapers.

Mrs. E. A. Skelley and Mrs. Tom Wolgamott presided at the tea table and Mrs. Earl Burch, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. Robin Day and Mrs. S. W. Starr assisted in serving.

Winning scores for auction bridge were held by Mrs. Max Rodgers and Mrs. D. D. Blatford. In contract Mrs. H. G. Smith and Mrs. R. H. Baldock held high scores.

Guests for the bridge and tea included:

Mrs. Fred Duncan, Mrs. H. D. Leininger, Mrs. C. Battle, Mrs. Fred Bernard, Mrs. Marvin Roth, Mrs. Gordon Thompson, Mrs. L. E. ### Mrs. Barbara Arnold Hal Hibbard Hostess

A delightful afternoon was enjoyed by member of Hal Hibbard Auxiliary Friday afternoon when Mrs. Barbara Arnold entertained the group at a garden party at her home on North 21st street.

The lovely garden of the Arnold home made a perfect place for the informal afternoon of conversation and later added an attractive setting for the tea hour at which time Mrs. Arnold was assisted by Mrs. Susa Litchfield and Mrs. Lula Humphry.

Especially enjoyed were two guests, Mrs. Percy Pugh, a guest here from Washington and who has not visited here for five years, and Mrs. C. O. Wilson of Springfield, Oregon, who had not met with the group for the past ten years.

Other guests included Mrs. Ada Hull, Mrs. Adline Lamtrec, Mrs. Ida Seymour, Mrs. Ella Woodard, Mrs. Ethel Welsh, Mrs. Edith Woolpert, Mrs. Ellen Thompson, Mrs. Ruth Brant, Mrs. Jennie Bertelson, Mrs. Grace Mickelson, Mrs. Catherine Hewlett, Mrs. Lucy Newcomb, Mrs. Susa Litchfield, Mrs. Grace Carter, Mrs. Anna Alley, Mrs. Lulu Humphrey, Mrs. Bessie Baker, Mrs. Iris Arnold, Miss Ruth Arnold, and Mrs. Arnold.

Engagement of Miss Sather Announced

Silverton — The engagement of Miss Margaret Gwendolyn Sather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nilson of Silverton, Oregon, was announced at charming little party given by Mrs. Sather at the Sather home Saturday night. A color scheme of yellow and white with a daisy motif was used and the tally cards at the bridge tables informed the guests of the engagement.

The wedding date has been set for August 10 at Trinity church at Silverton.

Miss Sather is a former student at Oregon State college where she is affiliated with the Kappa Delta sorority. During the past winter she has been studying vocal music under Prof. E. W. Hobson of Salem and she is a member of the Madrigal club at Salem.

Dr. Johnson is a graduate of the Northwest dental college of Portland and a member of the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity. He has been practicing at Silverton for the past two years. The young couple will make their home here.

Assisting Mrs. Sather at the announcement party were Mrs. Alvin Legard and Mrs. Otto Legard. Other guests included Virginia West, Maxine Allen, Jane Opsund, Verda Oeder, all of Portland; Eloise Wright of Salem and Mable Digerence, Betty Kleinsorge, Doris Turrell, Eleanor Jane Ballentyne, Della Ballentyne and Cora Goplerud of Silverton.

The descendants of Simon and Mary Ann Doerfler gathered for their third annual reunion at Hagler's grove near Stayton Sunday. Leo Doerfler was elected president; J. M. Doerfler, vice president; Mrs. Hal Russel, secretary; Margaret Doerfler, historian. The next meeting will be held in the J. A. Doerfler grove at Marion on the third Sunday in July, the date for the annual reunion.

Silverton — It has become known here that Miss Violet Ramsby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ramsby and Henry Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dick, were married at Vancouver, Wash., July 16, by the Rev. W. Lawrence Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Dick left at once for a short wedding trip into Canada and upon their return will make their home near Silverton.

Brush College — Mr. and Mrs. H. M. ## Saturday's Child is "Fair of Face" in Social Affairs This Weekend

SATURDAY proved a brilliant ending to a week that has been full with all manner of social activities.

One of the charming affairs for the weekend was the luncheon for which Mrs. George R. Moorehead was hostess at her home in compliment to Mrs. L. C. Kimsey, a visitor here from Burns. Mrs. Kimsey, daughter of Mrs. George Moorehead and sister-in-law of Mrs. George R. Moorehead, plans on leaving soon for her home.

Mrs. H. B. Reilly assisted Mrs. Moorehead. Following the luncheon hour bridge was in play.

Guests in compliment to Mrs. Kimsey bidden by Mrs. Moorehead included Mrs. Kimsey and Mrs. Phil Pittman, both of Burns; Mrs. Donald Mars, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. Max Rodgers, Mrs. H. B. Reilly, Mrs. Horace J. Thomas, Mrs. George Rhoton, Mrs. Kenneth Waters, and for the hostess Mrs. George R. K. Moorehead.

Miss Phyllis Day, whose return from the east has been an immediate event, was the inspiration for an attractive lawn bridge tea at the home of Miss Frances Sande Saturday afternoon, a group of the younger set acting as hostesses with Miss Sande.

Miss Sande, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Fae Driscoll, Miss Claudia Buntin, and Miss Margaret Engel served at the tea hour. Cards were in play for several hours during the afternoon.

Hostesses and guests who greeted Miss Day at this party included Mrs. Frances Burgy, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Esther Wood, Miss Margaret Engel, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Fae Driscoll, Miss Isabel George, Miss Jean Wilson, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Flavia Downs, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Lucy Fisher, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Maxine McKillop, Miss Jean Eastridge, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Frances Marie Kupper, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Bula Bailey, Miss Anita Wagner, Miss Marie Patton, Miss Jeanne Henderson, Miss Barbara MacDonald, Miss Laneta Belling, Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Edith Moorhouse, Miss Lorraine Kinsler, Miss Ruth Cullen, Miss Barbara Cannon, Miss Helen Wiedmer, Miss Cleo Rittner, Miss Betty Stewart, Miss Rorena Eyre, Miss Ruth Briedwell of Portland, and Miss Kathryn Hayward of Eugene.

Picnics also had their share in the entertainment of Saturday. Swimming and food made a pleasant ending to a warm day. One such gala affair was a picnic at Riverdale park in which participated a large group of the young married set.

Included among those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, Mr. and Mrs. George Weller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stols, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mr. and Mrs. John Caughell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hadley, Miss Rorena Eyre and Miss Marie Churchill of Portland.

Mrs. Charles M. Greene has as her house guests for the summer, her sister, Mrs. Lucille Whitaker and Miss Pieta Hamman of San Bernardino, Cal.

will leave the middle of August for San Francisco where annual convention is in session and where they will meet eminent writers from over the world.

MR. AND MRS. M. H. C. DICK have achieved the individual in announcing the birth July 18, of wee Geraldine Lee Dick. Mr. Dick, interested in automobiles, carried out the idea of the announcement of a new model car in telling his and Mrs. Dick's friends of the wee maid. For instance—"Lightning equipment—blue head lamps; automatic dimmers. Finish—shell pink. Free squealing."

Each of the three women have been admitted on the strength of their literary efforts to the League of Western Writers, Inc., and

College Circles Busy With "Rushing" Parties for Maids Entering School This Coming Fall

Maids are Enjoying Busy Days With Parties of all Kind Being Planned for Their Happiness

CHARMING additions to the summer social events are the "rushing parties" sponsored by various sorority groups of the city and by those in adjoining cities.

Groups of Salem maids are motoring to Portland to attend luncheons and teas given there by sorority groups, and not a few maids of Salem are being entertained with a round of teas, suppers, luncheons, swimming parties, and picnics, formal and informal affairs that delight and make the summer a gay memory.

The largest affair of such kind to be planned for this week in Salem will be the buffet supper planned for Tuesday night at the Delta Phi sorority home on Court street.

Miss Gwendoly Hunt is in charge of the general arrangements and assisting with program and supper plans is Miss Elizabeth Clement, Miss Sarah Dark, Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Marion Bretz, and Miss Edith Findley.

The Beta Chi sorority have already been hostesses for a very large formal tea and the same group has entertained through its Portland resident members with other affairs.

The coming weeks will see the culmination of "rushing" plans of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority.

All in all a large part of the summer social hours will be spent with parties for the young maids entering college this year. And who the happiest will be, the entertainer, or the "entertained"?

Mrs. C. M. Green Compliments Guests

A very pretty afternoon bridge party in honor of her guests, Mrs. Lucille Whitaker and Miss Pieta Hamman of San Bernardino, California, was given by Mrs. Charles M. Green Thursday afternoon. Seasonal flowers in varied shades were used in decorating the rooms. At the conclusion of cards, high score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Whitaker and Mrs. Mickelson. Mrs. Grabenhorst received the cut prize favor. Dainty gifts were presented to the honorees.

An unusually pretty tea was served. Guests included Mrs. Lucille Whitaker, Miss Pieta Hamman, Mrs. Walter Zosel, Mrs. Gene Grabenhorst, Mrs. Walter Miner, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. L. Mickelson, Mrs. Henry Krappe, Mrs. Nellie Harris, Mrs. Niele Wicker, Mrs. J. McNeil.

Felicitation of many friends are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Deryl Myers upon the birth of a daughter, born Saturday morning at Salem General hospital.
