ST. PAUL, July 27.—William Eder celebrated his 75th birthday Saturday. Those present to make the occasion a happy one were his wife, Mrs. Eder; Mr. and Mrs. Maillard Blanchard and sons, Floyd and Frank of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman and son, John Jr., of Portland; Mrs. Margaret Eder and family, Helen, Frances, Viola and Peter John; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ernst and family, Lester, Virginia, Jimmie, Vincent and Elmer; and Edwin Woodruff of St. Paul.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Case, July 23. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith and Mr. and Mrs. William Smith.

The following people are now spending their vacation at the beach: Marie Kirsch, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirsch, is at Rockaway; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and family, Mary Ann, Jean and Tom at Neskon; and Mrs. J. G. McKillip and son, Junior and Teddy at Rockaway.

Mrs. Claude Smith and children, Jimmie, Jack, David and Jane are now visiting at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of eastern Oregon.

The St. Paul people attending the Gervais Catholic church picnic Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Faber and children, Virgil, Arthur and Kathleen; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davidson and son, Earl.

Walter Bernard, who has been ill for several months, is now at his home for a few days.

The early clings-toe peaches, the Triumphs, are now being picked and packed at the L. L. Ernest orchard near Horse-Shoe Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross and sons, Donald and Clark, and Emil Johnson of Portland were among the picnickers at San Salvador Beach Sunday.

Carol May and Maurine Merten, who have been visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Ray Jones of Redmond have returned to their home.

Weekend Visitors
Visitors over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pillette of Aurora at the Ed Pillette residence; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buckley and son, Tom of Dundee at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonald; Harold Davidson of Portland, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Davidson; and Mrs. Norton of Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gooding.

AT IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

Mrs. Helen Hill and daughter Helen of Seattle are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peilard.

GILMORE MANAGERS TO MEET SATURDAY

All Gilmore Oil company branch managers and salesmen in Oregon and Washington have been asked to be in Portland Saturday, July 30, to hear company officials outline future merchandising plans which include one of the most comprehensive newspaper advertising campaigns ever sponsored by an oil company in the west.

"Although I'm not at liberty to divulge complete details at the present time, Gilmore will have some very important news to announce to the motoring public on August 1," declared D. H. F. MacPherson, northwest division manager of the Gilmore concern. "During the last year, Gilmore engineers have been using record-making racing cars to test various new gasoline products in the Gilmore laboratories. These tests have given us some very pertinent facts and we intend to give the motoring public the benefit of this information."

Clarence S. Boesemeyer, vice-president of the Gilmore concern, will arrive by plane to take part in the northwest meeting.

BIRTH REPORTED

BRUSH COLLEGE, July 27.—A baby girl was born Tuesday to Mrs. Anne Irons of Seattle, formerly a teacher in the local school for several years, according to word received by friends here. The little girl has been named Joy and is the second child in the family, the other being a boy, Miss Grace Hendrickson of Salem, sister of Mrs. Irons, is visiting at the Irons home. Miss Hendrickson was also a teacher in the Brush College school at one time.
