The winning Portland run came when Finney, who had doubled, scored on Keesey's single.

FIREMEN WIN OUT AND RACE TIED UP DALLAS, July 29—By defeating the Legion Hares Thursday night 6 to 2, the Firemen forced the Hares into a tie with the Industrials for second place in the Twilight league series.

The playoff of this tie will come Monday night.

Tuesday night the Knights of Pythias will send a team on the field against the Pioneer Hill Billies in a final effort to break their winning streak. So far this year the Hill Billies have won every game played against teams from the Dallas Twilight league.

It is probable that a few other games will be arranged in order to keep the twilight ball season open for a while longer.

The Farmers clinched the league cup last week for the fourth consecutive time and the last scheduled game was the Legion-Firemen clash Thursday night. The Legion and Industrials will fight it out for second place and the Firemen have succeeded in clinching the cellar.

Batteries for the game last Thursday were Boyston and McCann for the Legion Hares, and Syron and Fleming for the Firemen. Umpires were Jack Hayes and Dick Domashofsky.

FRENCH FAR AHEAD IN DAVIS CUP RACE PARIS, July 29.—(AP)—Jean Borotra, who thought he was too old to play tennis, tonight was the toast of Paris, victor over the American and Wimbledon champion, Ellsworth Vines, Jr., as France swept the first two matches of the series with the United States in defense of the Davis cup.

The colorful, well-loved Borotra, drafted for the French team against his wishes, swept to convincing victory over his young opponent 6-2, 6-3, 6-4, while Henri Cochet won as expected from Wilmer Allison 5-7, 6-5, 7-5, 6-2.

The unexpected defeat of Vines about smashed any hopes the American had of regaining the trophy France won at Germantown in 1927. They must win the next three matches, the doubles tomorrow and the two singles Sunday, to win the cup and that appears to be an impossible task with Borotra playing the best tennis of his life and Cochet still the master of old.

The state junior golf tournament is over, and with its completion comes the same thought that arises when junior baseball comes to an end for any team of players—where do they go from here?

Many of the lads playing in the junior tournament were in for the last time. At the same time, some of them who have marked possibilities for major competition later on, are not quite ready for it.

They practically speak no more suitable competition ahead of them until they are ready to enter state and sectional tournaments, and those may seem far away. Meanwhile the promising junior player who is a caddy—nearly all of them are—has the alternative of quitting the bag-toting occupation or losing amateur standing. If his dad doesn't happen to own a membership which entitles the boy to play golf, he's out off from the chance to practice.

These depressing thoughts have nothing to do with the pleasing showing Salem's entries made in the junior tourney. Most of them stayed in until Thursday, Millard Groves was the only one in a flight final Friday and he won that with great ease.

We're willing to bet, without knowing anything about the scores, that Groves hit a golf ball more times in tournament play than any other lad who played through Friday's finals. That's because he played fewer holes, if for no other reason. Greatly undermarched in the second flight, he didn't get past the 16th green except in his match with his hometown rival Walt Cline, Jr., who carried him to the 20th. Two of his matches ended on the 14th and one on the 15th.

Speaking of another tournament, it's worth a word that Dr. David R. Hill won the second flight in the Salem Golf club's spring tournament, beating J. H. Willett one up in the final. The third flight hasn't been wound up yet but may be in time to clear the boards for the fall tournament, as Lytle and Page are ready for the finals.

MONMOUTH, LYONS ARCHERS WIN OUT SEATTLE, July 29 (AP)—A strong headwind handicapped archers shooting for distance today, in an event of the closing day of the four-day annual archery tournament, but Homer Prouty, of Portland, Ore., world's record holder, shot the longest arrow.

His longest shot, of six, was 393 yards, one foot, 7 1/2 inches, while his world's record is 466 yards.

Mrs. E. J. Partlow, Monmouth, Ore., won the women's shoot with a mark of 218 yards for two feet, five inches. Mrs. Prouty, holder of the women's world record, was second at 231 yards, 2 1/2 inches.

John Hobson, Lyons, Ore., won the junior class with a distance of 262 yards.

Reynolds, who refused to enter the tournament in which Robin Reed won the welterweight belt, was reported recently to have trimmed down to the required weight, due to the depression which forced him back into mat competition. His claim to the title is in opposition to that of Henry Jones, who won the Midwest association's belt from Reed here recently. The association in awarding this new belt, declared Reynolds' title vacant for want of defense.

REYNOLDS DEFENDS WRESTLING 'TITLE' CINCINNATI, July 29 (AP)—Jack Reynolds, Cincinnati claimant to the welterweight wrestling championship, successfully defended his "title" tonight by defeating Gordon Arquette of Tacoma, Wash., in two straight falls.

Reynolds took both with a body lift and slam and body pin, the first in 45 minutes 15 seconds and the second in 15.10.

Wildcat McCann of Portland, Ore., was declared winner over Joe Dorn of Dallas, Texas, after Dorn was disqualified for "antics unbecoming to the profession."

REV. GALLOWAY IS AT CAMP MEETING

Rev Fletcher Galloway, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, is in Portland this week attending the Columbia River Nazarene camp meeting which is held annually in a beautiful fir grove near the intersection of Craig road and Baseline highway. Dr. J. B. Chapman of Williston, Mass., is the special speaker and along with his evangelistic messages he is giving two missionary addresses as he has just returned from a world missionary tour that covered 30,000 miles. Dr. J. G. Mossion of Kansas City, general missionary secretary, has also had part on the camp meeting program having spoken several times last week.

Dr. Mossion spoke in the Nazarene church here last Sunday night in connection with the closing program of the daily vocational Bible school. More than 300 people were present at this service and a very interesting program was given.

Rev Galloway will return home Saturday and fill the pulpit in his own church. He is announcing the following subjects. Eleven a. m. "The Hand of God" and 8 p. m. "The fountain of Eternal Life." A popular feature has been introduced in the Sunday night services the past few weeks in the privilege of calling for request numbers for special music. This plan will be followed again tomorrow.

Blaze Damages Rooming House On Summer St. Fire which was thought at first to be merely a chimney blaze, shortly before noon yesterday did an estimated $35 damage at the May E. Lickel rooming house at 693 North Summer street.

The blaze started from an overheated pipe which ran from the basement furnace up through the two stories, the fire originating about a register on the first floor. The upper story was filled with smoke, but the fire went unnoticed by occupants of the house, who happened to be in the basement for a period of time.

Completion of Road to Falls Is in Question Whether the new road leading toward South Silver Creek falls will be completed this year or not is in question, states County Road Supervisor Frank Johnson, following a survey which he and John Porter, county commissioner, made of the work.

The weather will have a great deal to do with the work, which is progressing rapidly now under the present favorable conditions. Some rocks as large as a small house will have to be blasted from the proposed route.

Ten per cent of this year's graduates of Davidson college, Davidson, N. C., had grandfathers who attended the institution.
