Mrs. R. C. Davis Honors Daughter

A pretty affair of Friday afternoon was the informal tea for which Mrs. R. C. Davis was hostess at her home complimenting her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Gordon, nee Helen Davis, of San Anselmo, Cal.

The afternoon was spent in conversation over the tea cups and in wandering about the garden of the Davis home. Miss Thelma Davis, home from the east for her summer vacation from her study of voice, sang a group of numbers as a pretty feature of the afternoon.

Former friends of Mrs. Gordon invited to meet her again included Mrs. J. P. Bates, Mrs. Laura Eaton, Mrs. Francis Wilson, Mrs. William Schultz, Mrs. Arthur Bates, Mrs. L. J. Stitt, Mrs. C. A. Mulkey, Mrs. Nancy Thompson, Mrs. Jeanette Pooler, Mrs. Skife, Mrs. Charles Siegmond, Mrs. Greter C. Birtchet, Mrs. Louis Siegmond, and Miss Thelma Davis.

Mrs. Davis was assisted in serving by Miss Davis. Gladioli in pastel shades were used for effective decorative note about the guest rooms.

A number of informal affairs are being planned for Mrs. Gordon who will return to her home in California Friday. Mrs. William Schultz will be one of the hostesses of the week.

Mrs. Gordon returned to Salem with her parents and Miss Davis this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Miss Davis spent two weeks in the south. The visitor has many friends in Salem and in Corvallis where she graduated from Oregon State college school of home economics in 1928.

Slumber Party is Jolly Event

Miss Erma Cole has as her house guests her cousins, Miss Frances and Florence Cole of Astoria.

They have been the inspiration for many social affairs, among them a delightful slumber party given by Miss Betty Ray McGahan.

Guests included Miss Erma Cole, Ruth Melson, Maxine Schor, the honored guests, Miss Frances and Miss Florence Cole, and the hostess, Miss Betty Ray McGahan, and Mrs. Mable McGahan.

Silverton—Mrs. J. H. McCullough won high score for the women and Mr. McCullough won high for the men in the card party sponsored Wednesday night by the Monica Altar society at St. Paul's hall. Low scores were held by Mrs. Peter Meyer of Mt. Angel and by W. Stirber of Silverton.

Mrs. L. Scharback was chairman of the general committee and will be in the coming three weeks. The next party will be held in two weeks and is also open to the public. Assisting on the refreshment committee Wednesday night were Mrs. Joseph Schneider, Mrs. J. M. Arundson of Scotts Mills, Mrs. W. Stirber and Mrs. Russell Luckey.

The Altar society will hold its August meeting next Wednesday with Mrs. William MacNeill. At this time the newly elected president, Mrs. Tom Miller, will appoint her committees for the coming year.

Gervais—Members of the Jelderks families spent the day Sunday at the Silverton auto park where they fittingly celebrated the birthday anniversaries of five members of the family. Those so honored were Ben Jelderks, Jr., Herman Jelderks, Norman Parsons, Theodore Jelderks and Ellen Vogt. Those making up the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jelderks Sr., Ben Jelderks Jr., and family, Herman Jelderks and family, Norman Parsons and family, Theodore Jelderks and family, Charles Vogt and family and Mrs. J. C. McDonald and small son of Salem.

Little Miss Gladys Fisher was attractively entertained on the occasion of her 12th birthday Thursday afternoon at the E. B. Thomas home with Mrs. E. B. Thomas and Mrs. T. Fisher as hostesses. To compliment Miss Gladys were Russell Fisher, Dorlene Chapman, Elsie Sebern, Shirley Pinat, Doris Martin, Bernard Bloom, Rachel Bloom, Bob Renfro, Dorothy Thompson, Barbara Shisler and Frances Shisler.

Another vacation party is anticipating the month of August at Nelscott; and will leave Monday according to present plans. The group will include Mrs. E. B. Barnes, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Barnes, and daughters, Joan and Suzanne, and from Portland, Mrs. M. Parangoulian, mother of Mrs. Barnes, Miss Carrie Mathews, and Miss Mary Parangoulian. Mr. Barnes will spend the weekends with the party.

Always popular guests in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn have arrived for their customary summer visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. LaRout, Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn make their home in San Jose, Cal. Mrs. Wrenn is connected with the staff of Stanford, while taking advanced work there.

Among the supper parties for those attending "Grand Hotel" Thursday night was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Sackett entertained. Covers for dinner were placed for Miss Genevieve Phayer, Mrs. Ralph Barnes, Dr. Henry Kohler, and for Mr. and Mrs. Sackett.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Patsy Livesley and Marilee Fry are expected back this weekend from Vancouver, B. C., where they have been spending the week.

Guests from Oneta, New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Livermore, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dibble.

Informal Bridge Honors Guest

Miss Thelma Young will entertain tonight with an informal bridge evening complimenting Mrs. Harold Moomaw of Santa Anna, Cal., who has been visiting in Salem and Hubbard for the past few weeks. Mrs. Moomaw who was Miss Helen Frey, is the guest of Miss Young this weekend.

Former intimate friends of the guest have been invited for tonight and include Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. James McFarland, Miss Ruth Moore, Miss Margaret Livesley, Miss Doris Neptune, Miss Florence Young and Miss Zelma Bush.

Miss Gene Belle will assist Miss Young at the late supper hour.

Slusher-Maaske Nuptials in Portland

Monmouth—A wedding of interest to Monmouth folk occurred Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Portland, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Gulick, 915 Alameda Drive, when Miss Margaret Lee Slusher became the bride of Robert J. Maaske of Salem. Mrs. Gulick is an aunt of Miss Slusher.

Rev. Rimbach of Trinity Lutheran church read the service before a group of immediate family members. Miss Slusher was lovely in a flat crepe ensemble in two tones of blue. She carried Tallman roses and was attended by her grandmother, Mrs. P. E. Slusher, and by her mother Mrs. Charles L. Tucker of Monte Vista, Colorado. A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony at the Campbell Court hotel.

Miss Slusher is a member of the music faculty of the Oregon Normal school. She is a graduate of the Normal, also of the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma. She is province president of Phi Beta, national musical secretary, and secretary of the Northwest Music Teachers' association. She also is a member of the P. E. O. sisterhood.

Mr. Maaske is a son of Mrs. F. H. Maaske of Bertrand, Neb. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and affiliated with Pi Kappa Phi social fraternity. He is in the office of the state department of education at Salem. They will make their home at 1975 Maple street, Salem.

Jefferson—The members of the Millersburg Wednesday Embroidery club entertained their families with a picnic at Wilson Lake Sunday.

Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fisher; Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Truax and family; Kathryn and Johnny Kothoff; Mrs. Elizabeth Truax and sons, Gerald and Howard; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Conser, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Barnes and two sons, Billie and Fennell; Mr. and Mrs. James Gourley, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farlow, Mrs. Laura Van Matre, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Groshong and two children; Howard and Gertrude Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Drager and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Martin had as their house guests for a few hours Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Watt and Miss Barbara and Shirley Watt of Newark, N. J. Mr. Watt is the son of George W. Watt, a pioneer of Marion county. Mr. Watt left Salem about 30 years ago to take up his residence in New Jersey. The family moved west by the southern route and will return by way of Yellowstone National park.

Bridge Club Closes Its Season

One of the attractive affairs of the week was the last meeting for the "Ever Ready" bridge club which met at the home of Mrs. Nellie Harris Friday afternoon. The affair was a dessert luncheon and as a surprise for Mrs. Harris the guests came in costume, each attempting to be as funny as possible. The result according to report was very successful.

Crystal bowls filled with dainty flowers, and candlesticks holding blue tapers added beauty to the lace cloth that covered the luncheon table.

Scores for the year had been kept and at the close of bridge which followed the luncheon hour these scores were announced. According to score the guests were allowed to choose in turn from the package piled on a table—one package for each member.

Mrs. Gene Grabenhorst, daughter of Mrs. Harris, and Miss Bernice Babcock assisted at the luncheon hour. Members present included Mrs. A. L. Brown, president, Mrs. E. F. Marcus, Mrs. Harvey O. Taylor, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Kitty Garver and Mrs. Harris.

The group will continue its regular meetings with the coming of fall.

Lincoln—A large group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Durham recently and spent the day with a picnic dinner and wedding anniversary.

Present were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Durham and children Evelyn and Lowell Duaine, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hathaway and daughter, Delores, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hathaway and daughters, Marjorie and Wanda. Mrs. Charles Phillips and children, Wilson, Iris, John, Ray, Audrey, Roy and Ronald, and Wesley Hathaway, all of West Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Noah Kessel and children, Juanita, Robert and Kenneth Alden of Eola, Mrs. Van Allen of Salem and her guest, Mrs. Roy Linn of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Rayford and Miss Virginia Belle Ely of Dayton, Ohio. In the group were the honor guests, and hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gleason, Clifford Gleason, Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, Janice and Jean Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drager, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Margaret and Eleanor Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. James I. Teed and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain.

Clear Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Scheirman recently entertained with a wedding shower in honor of their son Victor Scheirman and his wife, Opal Taznie, who were secretly married June 25. The wedding was a complete surprise to the family as well as the neighborhood. Guests at the shower were Mr. and Mrs. Riemer and son Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scheirman and daughter Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmatz, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and the newly married couple and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Scheirman and daughter Rose Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox returned Friday morning for two weeks vacation. The first week was spent at Victoria, B. C. This visit included a cruise among the San Juan Islands. Then they returned and spent the past week at Agate Beach. Plans had been made for spending the weekend there but rain spoiled golf so they came home by way of the Roosevelt highway to Florence. Among the Salem people at Agate beach whom the Cox saw were Mrs. Fritz Lade, Fred Thilensen's, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. W. H. McMahon, Miss Winnifred Byrd and the E. Hofers.

Mrs. Irl S. McSherry had as her luncheon guests for Friday her mother, Mrs. R. E. Doak, and Mrs. J. Pederson and Mrs. F. Davidson all of McMinnville.
