MORE JOBS GIVEN THIS YEAR, SHOWN

July Total 1931 Compared To 684 Year ago; Slack Period is now on

A comparison of "business" handled by the federal employment bureau here for the month of July, 1932, with the same month a year ago shows that 1105 men and women sought jobs there in the month just closed, while 778 men and women registered for work in July, 1931. The increase for this year is 327.

Last month, the employment office secured jobs for 1991 persons, while in July, a year ago the office placed 834 men and women in jobs. Of the men placed last month, 39 were veterans, and of the total placements, 117 were women.

This week opened with the slowest day in three months.
