Announcement is Made a Picnic Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ross H. Wood of Dayton, Oregon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Maxine Reavis to Hermann Hale Strachauer of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The announcement came as a complete surprise at a picnic and swimming party given last Thursday at Hirtler's grove by Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Emma Evans of Dallas, Oregon, in honor of Miss Reavis' sister, Marcell, on her sixteenth birthday.

The wedding plans are for the early fall and the couple will leave for Minneapolis by auto and a month's trip in the east, after which they will return to make their home in Salem.

Mr. Strachauer, a former army officer, has been connected with gas and oil operations in Oregon and Washington for the past two years.

The guests at the party included Miss Edna Bollman, Miss Grace DeGraff, Miss Helen Shreve, Miss Mary Starbuck, Miss Evelyn Lindahl, Miss Ruth Petre, Miss Lois Walton, and Miss Melva Robinson, all of Dallas; Miss Grace Carlson, Miss Marie Johnson, Miss Belle Rockhill, Miss Lee Hesler, Miss Ruth Dorsey, Miss Myrtle Beaul, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Claire Stilwell and Miss Bernice Hirtler, all of Dayton; Miss Nona Mendenhall, Sheridan, and Miss Bernice Staats, McMinnville.

Swimming Party is Jolly Affair

Miss Augusta Nodurft entertained a group of her friends Monday evening with a delightful swimming party at Silverton park. Later the group returned to her home in Salem for refreshments. The rest of the evening was spent with music and dancing.

Those present for the enjoyable affair were Patricia Draper, Harriett Hagemann, Muriel Rowe, Helen Hoover, Josie Acklin, Irene Roemhildt, Marguerite Crossan, Thelma Hoover, Zelma Sweeney, Paul Wahlgren, Ramon Gheer, Walter Robinson, Merton Roemhildt, Roy Crab, Elmer Lowell, Don Schupp, Waldemar Roemhildt, John Sweeney and Bob Aufderheide.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulus Expected Soon

Of much interest will be the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, who are now en route to Salem from New York city. The definite time of arrival is not known and may be any time this week or even later, as side trips and stops are being made along the way west.

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Paulus was solemnized recently in New York where Mr. Paulus, a prominent business man of Salem, had presumably gone on business. Mrs. Paulus, nee Helen Carey, is known by a very few people in Salem who have spent some time in New York and her arrival is being pleasantly anticipated.

W. C. T. U. Plan August 21 Meeting

Plans were made Tuesday for a W. C. T. U. service to be held in Wilson park August 21. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Charles Fessenden, Mrs. T. J. Tooze, Jr., and Miss Amy Martin. The speaker has not yet been announced.

The meeting will be a discussion of the prohibition question and much interest is expected to be shown in it.

Fred Tooze, Jr., was announced as the speaker for the 4 o'clock session to be held August 16 in the organization hall at Ferry and Commercial streets.

Mrs. P. T. Tooze gave a vocal solo Tuesday afternoon as part of the program and Miss Amy Martin read an interesting political article. Mrs. Nedra Buck spoke splendidly on the subject of "Courage" and the life of Miss Anna Gordon, late national organization president.

Wacoona—A joint celebration was held Sunday at the A. W. Nusom home honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nusom on their 47th wedding anniversary and Orland J. Becker on his birthday. All members of the immediate family were present except a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Brooks of Hayward, Calif.

Covers were placed for the honored couple Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nusom, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nusom and daughter Sheryl of Clatskanie, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Becker and sons, Norris, Orland and Hollis of Hayward, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Nusom and sons Donald and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Nusom and children Rosemary and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Karl M. Brown, Melvin Brown and Keith Brooks. Additional afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover and daughter, Rosalie, of Pioneer.

Mrs. Hazel Elliott entertained with a delightful surprise party Monday night in compliment to F. M. Hoyt. Present were Mrs. Mattie Clark, Bernadette Clark, Betty and Bobby Clark, M. Grant, Alma, Anna, Lois, Billy and Frances Hoyt, Pat Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt.

Mrs. Albert Hunter and Mrs. Allyn Hunter have returned from Seaside where they have been spending some time as the guests of Mrs. George L. Dutton and Nancy and Bob Dutton.

Guests at the W. W. Corey home the past few days include Mrs. Winifred Denton of Klamath Falls, formerly of Salem, and Mrs. Jack Semont of Enid, Okla. Mrs. Semont is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corey.

Wee Maid Celebrates First Birthday

A pretty party which will not be remembered by the honor guests perhaps but which was a delight for the day was that which celebrated the first birthday of Sharon Claire Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton Monday afternoon.

Ten small guests came to call and enjoy social festivities dear to the heart of wee people. They were accompanied by their mothers who enjoyed the tea hour with Mrs. Hamilton while the wee small guests were enjoying a birthday party with favors marking the place for each guest. Mrs. L. E. Davis of Independence and Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, grandmothers of the wee maid, were present and from Monmouth as additional guests were Miss Cassie Stump and Miss Agnes Campbell. Mrs. C. S. Hamilton assisted the hostess in serving.

Englewood Club Postpones Meet

The regular meeting of the Englewood Women's club has been postponed from this Friday to August 12, at which time it will meet in Englewood park.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. H. P. Grant, Mrs. R. A. Ramage, Mrs. J. A. Barker and Mrs. Roy Southmayd.

Mrs. Robert Mything and Mrs. C. B. McCullough were informal hostesses Tuesday night in compliment to Miss Frances Malotte of San Francisco. Miss Malotte has been a popular visitor in Salem for the past several weeks.

Among the early arrivals of those who have spent the summer away from Salem are Prof. and Mrs. Cecil R. Monk, who have returned from Seattle where Prof. Monk has been attending the University of Washington summer school, taking work on his doctor's degree.

John Hadley Wins Medals in Archery Series at Seattle

LYONS, Aug. 2.—Harry Hobson and sons, John Hadley and Junior spent several days of last week in Seattle, where they attended the National academy tournament. John Hadley took part in the contest and was successful in bringing home several of the awards in the junior class, among them being a silver cup, gold medal and bronze placard.

Mrs. Harry Hobson ran a huge splinter in the thumb of her right hand Friday while doing the chores about the place, as Mr. Hobson was away. She was getting the cow in from the pasture and picked up a stick to drive her when the large splinter made its way into her hand. She had to go to Stayton to have it removed by a physician. She suffered considerable pain in the wound throughout the night after having it removed.

Bean picking started in several yards the past week but most yards will wait until the last of this week or the first of next to begin picking. Everyone is busy with their final work so work can begin as soon as the pickers are ready.
