Tax Certificate Market Slower

The market for delinquent tax certificates has fallen off noticeably this year due to the reduction the interest rate from 12 to eight per cent, Sheriff O. D. Bower reported yesterday. Aside from mortgage owners who buy the certificates to protect their rights, almost no purchasing of certificates is going on, Bower said. As a result the county's cash position is considerably below a year ago when the 12 per cent certificate forced most tax liens into the hands of purchasers, leaving the cash for the county.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11-(AP)-I flat wheat market helped apply the brakes to stocks' advance today and closing share prices avoraged lower for the second time

Heavy profit-taking swarmed over the list at frequent intervals, although previously buils had been able to maintain enthusiasm with demonstrations in rail and farm implement issues. The average net loss was trifling, a few leaders losing a point or so on the day. Volume totaled 4,402,-410 shares.

At its best, the market was up about 1 to 4 points; at its worst there was roughly the same range of decline. Between times, prices churned about erratically, sales in the bond market were the largest since October, 1931. American Telephone, U.

Steel, Allied Chemical, Borden, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Santa Fe, Westinghouse, Chrysler and Consolidated Gas closed lower, but International Harvester and J. I. Case, although under their highs, showed more than a point to the good. Johns-Manville was strong, up 3 net. Union Pacific met heavy profit-taking on maintenance of its dividend rate, but made up most of a 3 point dip. Preferred stocks were strong. Metals improved, especially those stocks which have an interest in silver.

The Portland General Electric company Thursday filed with the public utilities commissioner here its answer to a complaint of citizens of Hillsboro protesting against the rates and service of the electric concern.

The complaint charged that the rates were unreasonable and discriminatory, and that the service was inadequate. These charges were denied in the answer filed by the electric company. The company alleged that its rates were reasonable and just, while its service is dependable and ade-
